Jones, Katharine M., ed. Ladies of Richmond, Confederate Capital. Indianapolis: Bobbs-Merrill, 1962.

Emily Mason, Washington during secession crisis, 28, 32-33, 48
Winfield Scott, 48
Sally Tompkins, First Manassas, rejoicing over victory, 71-73
Anita Withers Diary, Manassas victory, death of child, 76—78
Clara Minor Lynn, women feeding soldiers, 108-9
Jennie D. Harrold, women helping sick and wounded soldiers, 133-35
Kate Mason Rowland, Fredericksburg, Christmas, hospitals, small pox, 145-47
Debate on Supreme Court, right of secession, Gustavus Henry, 147-48
Mary Custis Lee, hair from Confederate generals, 153, 171
Kate Mason Rowland, sick and wounded, 165-68
Kate Mason Rowland, Yankee threats to Richmond, summer, 1863, 172-73
Emma Mordecai, news of soldiers, Gettysburg, 175-77
Mary E. Rowland, Chimborazo Hospital, James Johnston Pettigrew, 177-80
Virginia Nicholas Sanders on John Hunt Morgan, hat prices, 206-8
Angela Moreno Mallory, missing husband, loneliness, prayer, Clement Clay, Stephen Mallory, party, exchanged prisoners, Varina Davis, bereavement, 213-15, tending to wounded son, Stuart Hospital, bad whiskey, 224-25
Prices, 225
Emma Mordecai, Camp Winder Hospital, food prices, 228-30
Woman government clerk, plaits straw hats for more income, 230-31
Kate Mason Rowland, Early raid, hospital work, soldiers, society, band plated, 235-36
Anna Helen Holmes Trenholm, evacuation of Richmond, 273-74
Emmie Sublett, Yankees in Richmond, 291-92
Mary Custis Lee to Jefferson Davis, May 1865, 299-301