Miller, Charles Dana. The Struggle for the Life of the Republic: A Civil War Narrative by Brevet Major Charles Dana Miller, 76th Ohio Volunteer Infantry. Edited by Stewart Bennett and Barbara Tillery. Kent, Oh.: Kent State University Press, 2004.

76th Ohio Infantry
Enlistment, 2-6
Measles, 8
Departure of regiment, 13-14
Officers, 14
Fort Donelson, 17ff
Confederate prisoners, 20
Shiloh, 27-31
Dodging bullets, 30
Disease, hospital, 35
Corinth, 39-41
Conciliatory policy, protecting rebel property, 45-46
Marching, water, 47
Tobacco, 47-48
Alcohol, 48
Vicksburg, 56
Confederate prisoners, 58
Pilot Knob, 64
Slaves, amusements, 66
Vicksburg, 69-72
Arkansas Post, 75-81
Confederate surrender, fraternizations, 78-80
Siege of Vicksburg, 85ff
Lightning, 86
Disease, burial, 87
Grant, canal, 88-89
Foraging, 91
Plantation destruction, 92
Jackson, Mississippi, 94-95
Wounded, 99
Caves, 102
Artillery, 102-3
Picket fraternization, 103-4
Grant whiskey, 106
Slave women, 107
Water, 112, 114
Conscription, substitutes, 115
Confederate woman, 115-16
Disease, malaria, 119-20
Federal rations for civilians, food, 121
Sutler, 122-23
Malaria, 127-28

Sick leave, 133-37
Reenlistment, 142ff
Alcohol, 144
Veteran, furlough, 148
Wounded of General Kilpatrick, 158
Atlanta campaign, 155ff
Coward, 160
Slave camp servant, 167
Kennesaw Mountain, 172-73
Soldier shebang, 173-74
Lightning, 176
Dead soldier, premonition, 188
Dead soldier, Confederate, 196-97
Captain, duties, 197-98
Surgeon, amputation, 203
Democrats, McClellan, 1864 election, 208-9
Soldier burial, 213-14
Tobacco, women, 223-24
Haircut, 224
Battle of Atlanta, 231-34
Vicksburg, 236-39