Priest, D. D. Shouts and Whispers: The Civil War Correspondence of D. D. Priest of Mount Holly, Vermont. Edited by Nancy D. Wilson. Manchester Center, Vt.: Shires Press, 2011.

Co. I, 2nd Vermont
Food, 7
Guard House, 8
Parade, 15
Death and suffering, 25
Bull Run, 27
Band of brothers, 31
God's protection in battle, 35?
Southerners, poor dress, women, 36
Ignorant southerners, 37
Cameron, patronage, corruption, 39
Guns, 41
Food, 42
*McClellan, 47
Weapons, 48
Battlefield, 48
Men ready to fight, 48-49
Soldier pay, 50
Gin, 52-53
*McClellan, 54
Union, 55-56
Morale, 60-61
Morale, Confederates at Manassas, 66
Peninsula campaign, 71
Whiskey rations, 76-80
Foraging, pigs, 81
Gambling, 81
Swearing, 81
Seven Days, 81
Weight, 83
Food prices, 83, 103-4
Disease, 84
Antietam, 87. 94
Buying food, 89
Forging sheep, 93
Fraternization, 95
Mud, 100
Winter quarters, 101
Children, education, 102
Union, slavery, 103
*Soldier, civilian gap, 104
Food, 108
Letters, 108-9
*Copperheads and slaveholders, 114-15

Copperheads and slaveholders, 114-15
Black troops, 115-16
Lincoln, 116
Stanton, 116
McClellan, Peninsula, 117
Burnside, Fredericksburg, 117
Hooker, 118
Chancellorsville, 122-23
Hospital, 121ff
Hospital, stench, 122
Letters, 124
Gettysburg, 130
*Soldiers coming home, 131
Killing Confederates, 132
Need for more troops, 133
*War of extermination, 133-34
Picket truce, 143-44
Mine Run, Cold, 146-47
Hospital, 150ff
Chancellorsville, 152-53
Amputation, 155
Sanitary Commission, 156
Wilderness, 164-67
Dead man, 169
Vengeance, 170