Stilwell, William R. [Co. F, 53rd Ga. The Stilwell Letters: A Georgian in Longstreet's Corps, Army of Northern Virginia. Edited by Ronald H. Moseley. Macon, Ga.: Mercer University Press, 2002.

Seven Days battles, 1-
Capture Yankee army and end war, 2
Dead and wounded, 3
Sights and hardships, 4
Might be killed, friends killed or wounded, 5
Mud, 6
Battlefield sights, whipped army and end the war, 7
Speculating on next fight, armies both tired, Yankees badly demoralized, 8-9
Duty, war nearly over, 11
Yankee camp with lots of materiel, McClellan, 13
Combat experience, 13
Staff position, 15
Thoughts of wife, marriage, home, 15-18
Pies, cooking in camp, 19
Sick and dying soldiers, bounty, 21, 23, 29
Short war, 21
Sutler, 21
Substitute, 21-22
Food prices, 21
Letter, 22
Sick with measles, 23, 25
Soldier pay and prices, 25
Food and prices, 28
God and grace, 29
Conscription, 33
Mountains, Bible, worshipful attitude, 35
Cedar Mountain, 35-36
Morale, confidence, driving Yankees to Washington, 36-37
Antietam campaign, 38ff
Maryland, women, no interference with property, 39-40
Soldier pay and clothes, 40-41
Marylanders and Army of Northern Virginia, 43
Battle of Antietam, 46-47
Confidence, food, 48
Thoughts of dying on the battlefield, 50
Antietam killed and wounded, 50-51
Dead men left to rot, wicked world, battlefield, 52
Dying on a battlefield, meeting in heaven, 52-53
Clothes, 54-55
Clothing, shoes, army in bad shape, 60
Shirkers, stragglers, 60
Illness, surgeons, 61

Trading, buying and selling, making money, 71, 80
Election of officers, 72
Fredericksburg campaign, 74ff
Misses wife and child, longs to be home, 77
Marching, 79
Threats of Federals to shell Fredericksburg and fright of civilians, 81-82
Cold and food, 85
Letters, 87
Made pie, 87
Battle of Fredericksburg, 89-93
Thinks of the many widows and dead soldiers from Fredericksburg, 91-93
Carrying a frightened old woman out of a house in Fredericksburg, 94
Pregnancy and fear for her health, 94-95, 99, 108-9, 126
Worn Bible and pants, 95
Peace meeting in New York, 104
Soldier of Christ, 108
Union and black troops, 109
Thinks war will not last long but will fight an enemy that raises an insurrection, 110
Snowball fights, 112-13
Food, rations, 113
Peace, cold, possible march, 114
Camp routine in winter, dull, 115-16
Snow, Washington's birthday, 118
Prayer meeting, trying to live right, 119
Pay, food, rations, prices, 121
Thoughts of spring campaign, and God, 124
Length of war, 124-25
Prayer and religious meeting, 125-27
John S. Mosby, 127
Birth of child and name, 128-29
Confident of surviving war, 130
Furloughs, 131
Rations, food, prices, 132
Clothing socks, 137
Church membership, 138
Rations, food short, prices, 141-42
Spring 1863, war will soon end, Yankees are whipped, failed at Charleston, 144
Food, vegetables, 145-46
Revivals in army, 147
Chancellorsville, Salem Church, 150-59, 169
Sight of dead men, 151
Preaching in regiment, 159
Quarter rations, food, entire army, 159-60
Clothing, government uniform, 161-62, 166
William Nelson Pendleton, preaching, meeting, ladies, baptisms, 163-64
Joseph Brown, peace candidates, election of 1863, 167

Gettysburg campaign, 171-
Hard marching and campaigning, 173, 176
Speculates on Lee's plans in Gettysburg campaign, 174
Optimistic about campaign, may reach Baltimore or Philadelphia, 176
In Pennsylvania, optimistic, food, supplies, women, 179-80
Taking items from Dutch and memories of Fredericksburg, 181-82
Battle of Gettysburg, 183-8
Soldier pay, 185-86
Death and destruction, cannot go on long, 188
Military affairs, Gettysburg, Vicksburg, Charleston, discouragement, 189-90
Brigade courier, 194ff
Family, hopes God spares his life, 196-97
Short rations, food, pay, 198
Desertion, dissolution, subjugation, morale, God, sin, 201-2
Joseph Clay Stiles preaching, 203-4
Preaching and prayer meeting, 205
Charleston, Bragg, 206, 208
Wife's opinion on war, 205, 207
God and war, religion, personal faith, 208-9
Chickamauga campaign, 211-13
Campaign plans in Tennessee, 212
Chattanooga, 214-
Soldier tired of the war, 217
Impressment of corn in Walker County, poor woman, wife of Union soldier, 223
Lookout Mountain, 225
East Tennessee, Knoxville campaign, 227-37
Furlough, 233
Food, 250-51, 253
Religious revival, 252-53
Overland campaign, 254
Armies commanded by best generals, Lee and Grant, 256
Confidence and claims that Confederates are whipping Federals in battle of Overland campaign, 260, 268
Items captured from Yankees, 261
Malvern Hill, 264
Petersburg, 267-78
Confidence in Early and Johnston, 270
Religious devotion, 271
Food, prices, 272
Petersburg, women, 272-73
Johnston and Atlanta, 274-75
Cedar Creek, Valley in 1864, 284-290