

Abernathy, Martha. The Civil War Diary of Martha Abernathy. Edited by Elizabeth Paisley Dargan. Beltsville, Md.: Professional Printing, 1994.

Defends secession and Confederacy, 1
Religion, God and the war, 1-2
Sermon for soldiers, 6-7
Confederate readiness for war, 7-8
No subjugation, 8
Beauregard and McClellan, 9-10
Lee in western Virginia, 12
Camp religious meeting, 13
Stonewall Jackson, 13-14
Prayer, 16-17
Isham Harris proclamation, 18
Robert Caldwell sermon, fast, humiliation, and prayer, 20-33
Shiloh, 35
Yankee depredations, prisoners, 36
John Hunt Morgan, 38-39
Yankee invasion of the town, 43-45
Husband taken away, needs to remain true to the Confederacy, 51
Chicago women and Confederate prisoners, 57
Religious sentiments, here and throughout, 60
Women and Confederate loyalty, 61
John Hunt Morgan poem, 63-66
Fire in Pulaski, Tennessee, blacks of little help, 67-69
John Hunt Morgan proclamation, 70-71
Marriage, anniversary, 75