

Barber, Charles. The Civil War Letters of Charles Barber, Private, 104th New York Volunteer Infantry. Edited by Raymond G. Barber and Gary E. Swinson. Torrance, Calif.: Gary E. Swinson, 1991.

Letter to his son, do not swear, alcohol, God, 15
Measles, 16
Fort Donelson, 17
*short war, 17-18
Soldier pay, 28
Expects battle near Manassas, Washington fortifications, 30
Venereal disease, 36
Slaves, freedom, 38
Battles, much bloodshed, still expects to be home in July, 41
Peninsula campaign, Yorktown, 44
Drill, firing, 46
Union victories, French mediation, 49
Front Royal, 55
Accidental shootings, 57
Food, 71
England and France mediation, 74-75
Marching, men give out, 77-78
Cedar Mountain, 79-80
Second Bull Run campaign, 81ff
McDowell, 85
Experience and feeling in battle, 85
Antietam campaign, some generals are traitors, 90
Regiment has always fought bravely, 90
Antietam, 94-95
Fredericksburg, 100ff
Duty, 103
Mud March, 115
Emancipation Proclamation, 116
England and France intervention, 119
*Length of war, 121
All men anxious to come home, duty, 121
Gettysburg, 132-36
Swimming, drowning, 139
Conscription, 139
War is terrible, would love to sleep in a bed, duty, 147
Mine Run, 151-52
Boots, 152
Christmas food, 153
War may end this winter, 154
Letters, envelopes, 155
Rundown on regiment battles, size, attrition, 158
Mixed lot of officers, 159

Box, 161
Furlough, 162
Searing, vulgar talk, 165
Women, children and blacks in camp begging food, pride of the southern women humbled, 167
Whiskey, prostitutes, venereal disease, 169-70
Spotsylvania courthouse, wounded, 171-72
Hospital, 172ff
Hospital wounded and dead, 178
Weldon railroad, 186
Petersburg, 187ff
Muster out date and threat of mutiny, 194