

Holden, William Woods. The Papers of William Woods Holden, 1841-1868. Edited by Horace W. Raper and Thornton W. Mitchell. Raleigh, N.C. Division of Archives and History, 2000.

Morphine and quinine, 116
Ad valorem taxation, 117
Convention, secession, 117
Unionist appeal in Standard, 118-
Holden as candidate for state convention, 119-20
Fight between Holden and a rival editor, cane, 123-25
Graham, test oath, 125-26
Roanoke Island and performance of North Carolina troops, 126-27
Guarding railroad bridge, Indian troops, 127-28
Vance for governor, 128-30
J. Johnston Pettigrew, coastal defense, state troops, Confederate neglect of North Carolina, 130
Relief work for sufferers in Wilmington, 131
State printing contract, 131-32, 134
Conservatives and destructives, Vance, 132-34
Montgomery county, and reconstruction sentiments, 135
Peace editorial, 135-40
Confederate troops and attack on Holden office, Conservatives, Davis administration, 140-49
Holden's position on independence, peace, 150-51
Vance, governor's election, Holden running, 152-67
Jonathan Worth, Vance, habeas corpus and gubernatorial election, 155-57
Army voting, coercion, 162-63
Holden on election and Peace, 163-66
Sherman in North Carolina, 168
Union meeting, 168-72