

Jackson, Oscar L. The Colonel's Diary: Journals Kept before and During the Civil by the Late Colonel Oscar L. Jackson. [Sharon? Pa.: n.p., 1922].

63rd Ohio

Recruiting, enlistment, 40
Election of officers, 42
New Madrid and Island No. 10 campaigns, 43ff
Mule teams, 44
Water in tent, 45
Dead bodies, groans of the wounded, 47
Under fire in trenches, 48
Arkansas, bitter rebel slaveholders, 53-54
Slaves, camp servant, 53-54
Siege of Corinth, 54ff
Sight of the dead, 58
Halleck caution and Corinth, 60
Battles of Iuka and Corinth, 61ff
July 4, 61
Rosecrans, 63
Dead on the battlefield, 64-65
Men preparing for battle, 71
Death by bayonet unusual, 74-75
Under fire, sharpshooters, 78
False rumor that Jackson had been killed, 80-81
Former slave camp servant, 81
Killed and wounded, close calls, 82-83
Account of Lt. Labruzan of 42nd Alabama in battle of Corinth, 85-93
Siege of Vicksburg, 94-97
Atlanta campaign, 98ff
Memphis, 98-100
Reenlistment, 104-5
Cold train ride in Tennessee and Kentucky, 105-6
Furloughs, 106-8
Night attack on Decatur, Alabama, 109ff
Atlanta, 113ff
Food, 115
Resaca, 116-18
Marching, 121
Dalton, 124-27
Kennesaw Mountain, 129-39
Fraternization, 133
Christian Commission and Sanitary Commission, 139
Death of James Birdseye McPherson, 140
Siege of Atlanta, 143-
Destroy railroad line, 147, 153

Burning cotton, sparing house, 151
Mules, horses, starvation, 155
Election of 1864 in army, 156
Obscene books, 158
March to the Sea, 161ff
Destruction of Atlanta, 161-62
Provost guards stealing horses and mules, 162-63
Bee hives, honey, 168
Tobacco, 168
Marauders, stranglers, 1st Alabama Union cavalry, 169
Torpedo blows man's leg off, 1st Alabama cavalry, 171
Savannah, 173ff
Battle of Rivers Bridge, General Mower, 177-78
Burning of Columbia, 181ff
State legislature, 183-84
Confederate prison in Columbia, 184
Confederate murder of foragers, 189
Much liquor found, 189
Soldiers and women, 191
Killed dogs used to track down prisoners, 192
Slaves following armies, 192-93
Soldiers and slave, 193-94
Conversation with secession woman, 194
Confederate wooden cannon, 204-5
Johnston's surrender, 206ff
March to Washington, Grand Review, 210-22