

Reynolds John P. “In her hour of sore distress and peril”: Civil War Diaries of John P. Reynolds, Eighth Massachusetts Volunteer Infantry. Edited by Jeff Patrick. Jefferson, N.C.: McFarland, 2013.

Corporal, 8th Massachusetts Infantry
Reaction in Boston to firing on Fort Sumter, 52
Enlistment, 52ff
Departure of troops from Boston, 54-56
New York, 57-58
Annapolis, Old Ironsides, 62-75
New York, 76-
Ellsworth Zouaves, 77, 90ff, 115-16
Laura Keane, 77
Barnum Museum, 79
Bakery, 80
Photographs, 81
Religious services on ship, Episcopal, 83-84
Washington, 87ff
Mount Vernon, 87
Housed in the Capitol, 88ff
Carves initial inside capitol building, 92
Relay House, 100ff
Knapsack, 101
Steam gun, 101-3
Food, pigs, 103-4
Officer elections, 107
Baltimore, 107ff
Wood, 111
Picket duty, 111
Drilling, women, 113
Soldier playing, burlesque on Barnum, 114
Arrests of citizens, 122
Arrest of captains, effigy of colonel, 124-25
Soldier pay, 126
Discipline, court martial, 127-28, 132
Camp routine, drill, 127-28
Clothing, uniform, 128-29
Sabbath inspection, 129
Music, 132
Drill, 134
Mud, 135
Wood, foraging for boards, chaplain, 136
Tents, decorations, 137-39
Saloon, whiskey, beer, arrest, 140
Bathing, 142

Arrest of man for beating his wife, 143
Music, dancing, 147-49
Bunker Hill anniversary, 150-51
Nail factory, 153-54
Slave entertainment, 156
Flag presentation, 156-57
Discipline, 159-60
Recreation, entertainment, 165
Cook, food, 170-71
Food fight, 172-73
Bleeding a patient, 175
July 4, 187
Uniform, Zouave, 192, 209-10, 219
Religious service, music, 192
Discipline, alcohol, 196
Women, flag presentation, 196-97, 200
Picket duty, 197-98
Football, 200-201
Guard tent, arrests, 204
Fort McHenry, 207-8
Searching house for weapons, 216-17
First Bull Run, 218
Flag presentation, 220
Drill, women, 220-21
Drill, 223
Baltimore monument, War of 1812, 223-25
Confederate women in Baltimore, secesh women, 225-26
Returning home, 228ff
New York, 231-32
Mustering out, 233ff
Relay House, 247ff
Sabbath, 247-48
Iron Factory, 252