

Buchanan, James. The Works of James Buchanan. Philadelphia: J. B. Lippincott, 1910.
Vol. 11 1860-1868

Fourth Annual Message, 7ff
Northern interference, abolitionists, dangers of slave insurrections, 7-8
Election of Lincoln does not justify secession 9
Territorial question, 10-11
Fugitive slave law, 11-12
Secession, Constitution, perpetual Union, 12-17
Powers of President, limited against a seceding state, 17-20
Proposed compromise, 21-25
Recommends acquisition of Cuba, 29
Mexico, 32-34
Kansas question, Lecompton, 34-36
Utah, 36-37
Federal expenditures, economy, 37-38
Pacific railroad, 39
Recommends a uniform national election day, 39
Tariff, 39-42
Reaction to Buchanan annual message, 55
Cass resignation, 57-65, 67
Secession opinion in the South, 66
Francis Pickens, secession, 68
James Gordon Bennett, extension of Missouri Compromise, 69
Francis Pickens, secession of South Carolina, 70-73
Crittenden, Missouri Compromise, New York interests, 73-74
Stanton, Secretary of War Floyd drafts, 75
Right of secession, 75
Fort Sumter, South Carolina Commissioners, 76-
Joseph Holt secession, 84-92
Horatio King, 92-93
Treaty with Venezuela, 93-94
South Carolina commissioners' correspondence, 94-99
Jacob Thompson resignation, 100-104
Virginia senators, arsenal arms, 102-104
Philip Thomas resignation, 105-6
Joseph Holt, 105
Resignation of John B. Floyd, 108-109
Conversation with Clement Clay, Fort Sumter, 109-111
Foreign ships in Charleston, 112
John Tyler, Washington Peace Conference, 113, 120-21
Message on Virginia peace resolutions, 116-120
Agreement with Venezuela, 122-23
Holt, Charleston, reinforcement of Anderson, 123-24
Postmaster at Pensacola, 124
Kentucky, convention of the states, 124-25

Fort Sumter, 126-41
 Tyler, Holt, Hayne, Fort Sumter, Pickens, 141-144
 Extra session of the Senate, 144
 Claims against Paraguay, 145-47
 San Juan Water Boundary, 148-49
 Tyler, Washington's birthday, 150
 Seizure of New Orleans Mint, 151
 Extradition of free black murder, Missouri, 152
 Troops in Washington, 152-54
 Treaty with Costa Rica, 155
 Cabinet meeting, Sumter, Anderson, 156-58
 Buchanan return to Wheatland, 159-62
 Stanton, Holt, Crittenden, Seward, 163
 Stanton, Star of the West, 163
 Stanton, Fort Sumter, Pickens, Scott, truce, Holt, Anderson, 163-64, 166
 James Gordon Bennett, 165-66
 Holt, northern newspapers, 167
 Holt, expects peaceful policy from new administration, abandonment of Sumter and Pickens, 167-68
 John A. Dix, Anderson, Sumter, 168-69
 Stanton, Sumter, Supreme Court, 169
 Stanton, Sumter, Lincoln and his cabinet, 170-71
 Holt, Sumter, Anderson, Black Stanton, 171-72
 Tyler, Peace conference, 172
 Lincoln, Scott, 173
 Peace, Sumter, Anderson, 174
 Holt, Breckinridge, fears French recognition of the Confederacy, 174-75
 Lincoln, patronage, policy on secession, Stanton, 176-77
 Stanton, Scott, Holt, Twiggs, 177-78
 Stanton, Twiggs, Sumter, 179-80
 Sumter, Holt, Confederates have started the war, 181
 Dix, Anderson, Twiggs, Fort Sumter, South Carolina, 181-83
 War, South Carolina, Fort Sumter, 184-85
 Gwin, Sumter, son has joined Confederate army, 187
 Sumter, Stanton, Pickens, Seward, Peace Commissioners, 188-89
 Stanton, Scott, Seward, negotiations, 190-91
 Stanton, Seward, Campbell, negotiations, 193-94
 Holt, Fort Pickens, Fort Sumter, Anderson, defense of Buchanan administration, 194-97
 John A. Dix, Governor Morgan, 197-98
 Jeremiah S. Black, defense of Buchanan administration, 198-203
 Stanton, John A. Dix, Cameron, 203-205
 Big Bethel, 204-205
 Southern forts, Winfield, Scott, 207-9
 Beginning of war, Winfield Scott, 209-10
 Stanton, Black, Dix, defense of Buchanan administration, Scott, 210-11
 Fort Pickens, Toucey, Stanton, Dix, Black, 211-13

Bull Run defeat, possible cabinet changes, Scott, McClellan, 213-14
 Need for vigorous prosecution of war, McClellan, no peace possible now, 216
 Buchanan's opinions on prosecution of the war, 217
 Cobden, English opinion, blockade, 218-19
 Stanton, Floyd, weapons to South, 219-220
 Holt, Thompson, Slidell, Horatio King, 221-22
 Despite recent military setbacks, he would appeal for volunteers, 222-23
 Black, Lincoln, Star of the West, Sumter, 224
 Floyd, Stanton, guns, 225-27, 229-30
 Exchange of prisoners, confiscation, 227
 John A. Dix, abolitionists, emancipation, 231
 Trent affair, Cobden, Mason and Slidell, Wilkes, 233-34, 236, 243-45
 Blockade, 234
 Buchanan charged with bringing pictures of the royal family to Wheatland, 237-40
 Howell Cobb, Jacob Thompson, 243
 Stanton, McClellan, 247
 Holt, Lincoln, Stanton, 248
 Willard Saulsbury, Bright expulsion, 230-31
 Buchanan White House expenses, Thaddeus Stevens, 251-52
 Thurlow Weed, cabinet secrets, 252
 Stanton, 253-54
 Stanton, Fort Pickens, 256
 Stanton, Floyd, stealing of arms, 257-58
 Jeremiah Black and policy of Buchanan administration, Fort Sumter, 259-61
 Toucey, Holt, Dix, Stanton, 262
 Jeremiah, Black, Weed, Stanton, 263, 265-67
 Stanton, Holt, Horatio King, Dix, Weed, 268-72
 McClellan, Peninsula, 274
 Forney charges against Buchanan, foreign recognition of Confederacy, Douglas, 275-76
 Forney, Lincoln, recruiting, 277-78
 Pennsylvania congressional election, 278
 Buchanan answer to Winfield Scott, Fort Sumter, Fort Pickens, secession, 279-307, 309-317
 Reading club, 307-8
 Scott, Forney, 318
 Scott, 320-323
 Willard Saulsbury, 323
 Henry Winter Davis resolution, 324-25
 Filibusterers, 326-27
 Horatio Seymour, 328
 Long warned of dangers to the Union, Douglas Democrats, popular sovereignty, 329
 McClellan, Rosecrans, 329
 Democrats in New England, clergy, slavery, 336
 Gettysburg campaign, 338-39
 Franking privilege for ex-presidents, 340
 Conscription, 340
 Horatio Seymour, conscription, 341-42

Secession women, 344
G. W. Woodward, Pennsylvania governor election, conscription, 546-47
Weed, Jeremiah Black, 348-49
Republicans, Democrats, slavery, Salmon P. Chase 350-51
Washington society, 351
Persecution by Herald and Tribune, Scott, 352
Standing army, danger to republic, Grant, 353
Future of Democratic party, paper money, religion, 354
Democrats and the war, 355
Floyd and arms, 355-56
Democrats, war, slavery, 356, 358
Democrats, Voorhees, Powell, 359-60
Toucey, vindication of the Buchanan administration, Cass, Black, Thompson, 361-64
Lincoln, Union League, Copperheads, 365
Governor Curtin, 368
Lincoln, peace, Black, Canada, New York Herald, 369-70
Democrats, McClellan nomination, 372-73
Election of 1864, 374
Polk, Catholic chaplains, 375-76
Election, Lincoln, McClellan, 377
Stanton, 377
Holt, 377-78
Lincoln assassination, 381-82, 385-86
Andrew Johnson, 382-83