

Light, Rebecca Campbell, ed. War at Our Doors: The Civil War Diaries and Letters of the Bernard Sisters of Virginia. Fredericksburg, Va.: American History Company, 1998.

Old maid, 11
Crisis, secession, God, 11
Sin, confession of love, 11-12, 17
Fort Sumter, 13
Marriage and property, 14-15
Lincoln call for troops, Virginia secession, 15-16
Marriage of sister, 16
All talk is of war, 16-17
War, Baltimore, 18
Providence, divine protection, 19
Managing slaves, 19-20
Rumors, 20
Going to church in hoops, 20-21
Unionist woman, 21-22
War and Sunday, school, 22-23
Confederate retreat from Manassas, 24-25
Review of troops by Joseph E. Johnston, 26-27
Feels secure near Confederate camps, 27
Federals taking Fredericksburg, 27-28
Retreat and surrender of Fredericksburg, 29-30
Church service, prayer for president omitted, 31
Pickets, General Patrick, 32
Federal soldiers guarding house, 33
Battle rumors, 35-37
Faithful slaves, 37
Seven Days, 37-40
Slave discipline, runaways, 41-2
Rumors about soldiers, 42
Yankees came demanding food, 43
Jeb Stuart, 48, 51-52, 55-56
Rooney Lee, 52-53
John Pelham, 52-53
Yankees firing on Port Royal, 54-58
Fredericksburg battle, 58-62
Love, 63-66
Port Royal landing of Yankees, 67
Chancellorsville, 68-69
Robert E. Lee, Richard H. Anderson, 73-74
Chancellorsville, 75
Port Royal, 82
Christmas, 86
Marriage, engagement, property, 87, 91-100
Camp Winter, serving soldiers, 89-90

Wedding, 100
Yankee occupation, disappearance of slaves, 103-7
Robert E. Lee, 108
Free black labor, 119
Fall of Richmond, Lee surrender, 120-21
Burning of Richmond, 121ff