

Clark, Walter. The Papers of Walter Clark. Edited by Aubrey Lee Brooks and Hugh Talmage Lefler. Chapel Hill: University of North Carolina Press, 1948.

Vol. 1

Served in 22nd and 35th N.C. as a junior officer, lt. and adjutant

Religion, 8-9

Election of 1860, 41

Yankee prisoners in Richmond, 54-55

Prayer meeting, religion, 58

Civilian morale, 65

Thomas J. Jackson, 65

Zebulon Vance, 66

Death, religion, conversion, 72-73

Uniform, 75

School, duty, war, army, 77

Antietam, 79-81

Mother, duty, religion, 81-82

Small pox, 84

Adjutant duty, routine, 85-87

Prices, 89

Health, 91

Deprivation, 93

Slaves, Yankees, runaways, 94

Yankee depredations, 97

Religion and morals, 101-2

Shoes, 102-3

Soldiers, exposure, damp, hard conditions, 103

Class resentment, 106

*army and character, 106-7

Food and cooking, 116, 117, 120-21

Vance, Holden, and 1864 governor's election, 118

Religion, prayer, morale, 123

Women, 123-24

Immigration, 134

Religion, 134

Morale, religion, prayers, 135

Enemy Yankee depredations, 137

*speculators, 138

*slavery, 138

*morale, 139-40

*black slave troops, 140.