

McGuire, Judith W. Diary of a Southern Refugee during the War by a Lady of Virginia. New York: E. J. Hale, 1867.

Alexandria, Virginia, 9-18
View of United States Capitol, Union, 10-11
Women working for the soldiers, 12-13
Weak Confederate resources but great determination, 12-13
Packing up valuables, faithful slaves, 13-14
Fears Yankee military moves in Virginia, 16
Virginia vote on secession, 16-17
Jackson and Ellsworth, 17-19
Refugees, 18ff
House searched by those who once received hospitality, 21-22
Skirmish at Fairfax Courthouse, 23-24
Mary Custis Lee, 26
Women working for soldiers and in Winchester hospitals, 28-29
Democracy of privates and officers, 29
Day of fasting, humiliation and prayer, 29-30
Giving up luxury, 30
Big Bethel, 30-31
Bishop Meade, refugees, 31-32
Rumors, 32-33
Manassas campaign, 33ff
Falling Waters battle, 33-34
William Nelson Pendleton, 34
Bishop Meade and Leonidas Polk, 34-35
Clergy enlisting in the army, 34-35
Winfield Scott., 35
Refugee dilemmas, 35-36
Sabbath service, prayer, 37
Winchester, sacrifice, men and women patriotism, measles, 37
Rich Mountain, death of General Garnett, confidence, courage, 38
Winchester, hospital, Alabama soldier suffering from typhoid, 38-40
Battle of Manassas, 40-44, 55-64
Does not want to hate and fears butchery, 43-44
House, soldiers with measles, 44
Northern women who came to Manassas anticipating a victory and ready to rejoice over Confederate dead, 46-47
Yankees threatened a woman and her children, accuse them of signaling Confederates, 51-53
Mary Custis Lee, 65-66
Devotion and suffering of women, male stay-at-homes 66-67
Death of a soldier, typhoid, 69
Ball's Bluff, 69-70
Fasting, humiliation and prayer, 72
Stage ride with poor white women, 75ff
Women sacrificing luxury, 82

Mother searching for wounded son, Salmon P. Chase, General Wool, 82-8
 Last words of dying son, 86
 Husband appointed to clerkship in Post office department, had been a minister, not healthy enough to serve as a chaplain, 87
 Richmond, 87ff
 Could not afford to rent room that she wanted, 90-91
 O. Jennings Wise, funeral, 92-93
 Inauguration of Jefferson Davis, 94-96
 Donelson, depression, morale, mother and uncertainty about her sons' fate, 94-95
 Levee, Davis, Varina Davis, 94
 Day of fasting humiliation and prayer, 94
 Bishop Wilmer, 95
 Death of Bishop Meade, 101-2
 Federals like locusts of Egypt, 102
 Stonewall Jackson, Kernstown, 103
 Shiloh victory, 104
 Fifteen year old soldier from Alabama died after six weeks illness, 104-106
 Peninsula campaign, 107ff
 Women sewing sandbags for Yorktown, 107-8
 Fall of New Orleans, Kentuckians, shirkers, Exchange Hotel in Richmond, 108-9
 St. Paul's, confirmation of Jefferson Davis, 110
 Great anxiety, despair, criticism even of General Lee, criticism of Davis, talk of counter revolution, 112-13
 Drewry's Bluff, Jefferson Davis, Robert E. Lee, 113-15
 Virginia legislature, 115
 Family of Confederate taken prisoners appeals to Jefferson Davis, 116-117
 Davis, day of fasting, humiliation and prayer, 117
 Stonewall Jackson Valley campaign, 117-18, 120
 Joseph Johnston, retreat from Williamsburg, 118
 Seven Pines, Johnston wounded, 118-19
 Turner Ashby killed, 119-20
 Brave wounded men in hospitals, 120-21
 McClellan, 121
 Losses in western theater, 121
 Stuart ride around McClellan's army, 121-22
 Seven Days battles, 122ff
 People on Richmond buildings watching the fighting, 123-24
 Conversation between Lee and Jackson, 125
 Good morale after McClellan retreats to James, 126-27
 Slaves running away to Yankees uncertain future, 128
 Young wife and death of husband, 129
 Second Bull Run, Manassas campaign, 131-36, 150-51
 Church service cancelled because of Yankee presence, 134
 Confrontation with Yankees on Peninsula, quoting another woman's diary, 136-50
 Jeb Stuart, no swearing or drinking, 151-52
 Antietam campaign, 152-59

Dependence on God, war, Davis proclamation day of thanksgiving, 152-55
 Lincoln, Emancipation Proclamation, 158-59
 University of Virginia, Charlottesville hospitals, 161-64
 West Hanover County, McClellan troops well behaved in protecting property, 165
 Corinth, 166
 Refugee life and several families in one house, 168-69
 McClellan and Burnside, 170-71
 Unfaithful slaves, 171
 Fredericksburg campaign, 171-77
 Yankees shelling women and children, 172
 Richmond housing, food prices, 173
 Minister husband working as a clerk, 174
 Battle of Fredericksburg, 174-77
 Wounded from Fredericksburg, 176-77
 Women nursing wounded soldiers, 178-180
 Christian soldiers, 179-80
 Fredericksburg churches, St. George's, 180
 Bragg, Stones' River, Murfreesboro, 183
 Northern celebrations of Emancipation Proclamation, 183
 Smuggling items in from the northern, 184-85
 Sunday school, making clothing, 185-86
 Burnside replaced by Hooker, 187
 Sick soldier and India ale, 187-88
 Peace sentiments in North, 188
 Nursing a soldier, food prices, 191
 Washington's birthday, 194
 French intervention, 195
 Home manufacturing, plaiting hats, 196-97
 Food shortages, croakers, 197-98
 Richmond, fasting, humiliation and prayer, St. Paul's church, Varina and Jefferson Davis, 201-2
 Richmond Bread riot, 202-4
 Refugees from Fredericksburg, 205-6
 Refugee woman who works in note-signing bureau, 206-7
 Chancellorsville, 209-
 Death of Stonewall Jackson, 211-13
 Working with wounded in hospitals, 213-14
 Robert E. Lee, described, conversation, 214-15
 Richard Ewell and Stonewall Jackson praying, 215-16
 Vicksburg, 216
 Young people and tableaux, 217
 General Sigel and a Virginia women, 218-220
 Fredericksburg woman on departure from home during bombardment, 220-222
 Yankees burning houses on Mattaponi, 223
 Confederate raid into North, some suffering there necessary, 224-25
 Gettysburg campaign, soldiers' desire for vengeance, 226-31
 Yankee comes to house, 227-28

Vicksburg fallen, 229
 New York draft riots, 231-32
 Death of general James Johnston Pettigrew, 232
 Mary Custis Lee, 232-33
 Hospital chaplaincy, 233
 Meade vs. Lee, 234
 Fredericksburg refugees, 234-35
 Finding dead brother in Yankee uniform on Missouri battlefield, 236
 Lee and day of fasting humiliation and prayer, 237
 Women sewing and making hats, 238-39
 Clothing prices, blockade, 242-43
 Stephen Mallory's wife, 243
 Marriage and war, 243-44
 Clerk in commissary department, 244-45, 250-51
 Dull sermon, 245
 Food and prices, 247
 Death of a Colonel Colston, 248-50
 Making shoes, prices, 251-52
 Food prices, 252
 Poor widow, refugee from Fredericksburg, 252-53.
 Poor women in Richmond, soldier's wife, 254-55
 Kilpatrick and Dahlgren raid, 255
 General Lee and other generals at St. Paul's Lenten services, 255-57
 Food scarce, prices, 257-58
 Memminger orders note signing bureau moved to South Carolina, 259-60
 Religion, leaders, Confederates God-fearing men, 261
 Death of Jefferson Davis's son, 261-62
 YMCA prayers meetings in Richmond, 262
 Overland campaign, 262ff
 Death of Jeb Stuart, 266-74
 Early campaign into Maryland, 281
 Question of vengeance against Federals, 282-83
 Yankee raiding and destruction, 283-84
 Sheridan and Early in the Valley, 284ff
 Milroy and women in Winchester, 285-87
 Women near Winchester very generous with soldiers, 287
 Prices, currency deterioration, 292
 Grant and perseverance, 293
 Burning homes in the Valley, much detail, Hunter, 293-98
 Chaplain stealing in a house, 295
 Refugee housing, Richmond, 298-304, 309-10
 Jefferson Davis and Joe Johnston, 302-3
 John Hunt Morgan, 304
 Dying soldier, religion, wife arrives too late, 311-13
 Dissent of Brown and Stephens in Georgia, 317-18
 Christmas, 323

Fort Fisher, 324-25, 331
Speculators, 325-26
Parties, decadence, 328-29
Marriage, 329-30
Union prayer meetings, morale, 332
Croaker, morale, 332-33
Commissary General, ministers urging people to contribute their corn, 333
Robert M. T. Hunter, Stephen Mallory, Jefferson Davis, morale, 334
Sheridan in Valley, danger to Richmond, 340
Farmers and women sharing with soldiers, 340-41
A. P. Hill killed, breakthrough at Petersburg, 342
St. Paul's church, news of evacuation of Petersburg lines, Richmond, 343-49
Union occupation of Richmond, 349ff
Lincoln visit to Richmond, 350
Service at St. Paul's, Union occupation, 351
Lee surrender, 353-54
Good Friday, hospital patients, 354-55
Lincoln assassination, 355
Return of Robert E. Lee to Richmond, Mary Custis Lee, 356-57