

Meade, George. The Life and Letters of George Gordon Meade. 2 vols. New York: Charles Scribner's Sons, 1913.

Vol., 1

Grand division review, 219

Misses his wife, fears he will never see her again, 219-20

fast, humiliation, and prayer, 221

McClellan had planned a surprise for the Confederates but it did not come off, 221

West Point, 222

Condition of the army, 223

Confederate withdrawal to Manassas, 224

Stone, Ball's Bluff, 225-26

McClellan and discipline, 226

Length of war, 228

Mason and Slidell, 228

Bailey's Cross Roads and McClellan, 229

Davis message to Confederate Congress, war as endurance contest, 230-31

Hard turning volunteers into soldiers, 231

McClellan, 232

Horses, 232-33

Punishing a rebel and destroying property, 234

Mason and Slidell, 234, 239-41

Wedding, 235

Confederate at Manassas and possible movement, 235-36, 238

Halleck, Cameron, Lincoln, slavery, 236

Christmas and pressure on McClellan. 237-38

Anniversary, happy marriage, 241

McClellan, 241-42

McClellan, typhoid, 242

Burnside, 242

Possible European recognition of the Confederacy, 243-44

Ellen McClellan, 244

Privateer hostages, prisoners, 244

Lincoln and the radicals, 245

Forts Henry Donelson, 245

Burnside and Roanoke Island, 245

General Stone, Ball's Bluff, McClellan, 245-46

Opposition to McClellan, Halleck, 246

Fort Donelson, 246

Length of war, 247

Victories in Tennessee may hurt McClellan, 247-48

Baldy Smith, Zachariah Chandler, 248

McClellan and pressure to move, 248-49

Lincoln and McClellan, 250

Confederate evacuation of Manassas, Monitor and Merrimac, 251

Misses wife and children, 251-52

McClellan, 253, 255
McClellan and McDowell, 256
Shiloh, Yorktown, 257, 260
With McDowell's Corps, 248ff
McDowell, Bull Run battlefield, 259
Devastation of Virginia countryside, 261-62
Fredericksburg, McDowell, 262ff
McClellan and Meade appointment, 263
McDowell, Seward, Chase, Stanton, 264
McClellan, Yorktown, promotions, Ord, Stanton, McDowell, 265
Confederate General Field, 266
McClellan and Greeley, 266
Course of war, difficulties, 267
Review of troops, Lincoln, Stanton, Mercier, French minister, Meade praises how Lincoln dealt with Hunter, 267
Washington in panic, McDowell, Jackson in the Valley, 268-69
Fair Oakes, 271
McClellan and McDowell, 271
McDowell and Jackson, 271-2
On the Chickahominy, 273ff
McClellan confident, 275
McClellan, 277-78
Stonewall Jackson, 279
Wounded, 299-300
McClellan, possible removal, Burnside, 302-3
McClellan and Burnside, 304
Pope. Second Bull Run campaign, 305ff
Antietam campaign, 309ff
Confederate army demoralized and in pathetic condition, 311
Camp servant, Second Bull Run, 314
Meade, Reynolds, McClellan, 314-15
McClellan plans, 315
Antietam, 315-16
Possible peace negotiations, 316-17
McClellan, Hooker, Halleck, 318
McClellan, 319-20
McClellan and supplies, 321
Length of war, 322
Promotion of Poe, Halleck, political influence, 324
Marching, 324-25
Removal of McClellan, Burnside, 325-26
Snow and cold weather, 326
Fredericksburg campaign, Burnside, 326ff
Hooker, political interference, 327
Halleck, Meigs, strategy, 326-27
Sabbath, 328

Grand Divisions, army organization, 329
 Halleck, supplying the army, 329-30
 Moving supplies, building road, 330
 Still favors Peninsula route, criticizes Halleck, 330-31
 Hooker, McClellan, Reynolds, Burnside, Butterfield, 332-33
 Burnside, Reynolds, promotion, 334
 McClellan, Prince de Joinville, 335
 Halleck, Pope, McClellan, 335
 Burnside, Chandler, JCCW, 340
 Burnside, Meade to command Fifth Corps, 341
 Butterfield, 342
 Lincoln, Burnside, suspended movement of the army, 344
 Hooker and Burnside, 346-47
 Mud March, 347-49
 Removal of Burnside, appointment of Hooker, Butterfield, Sickles, 350-51
 Possibility of Meade commanding Army of the Potomac, 351
 Hooker, 351-52
 Conversation with McClellan and other generals in Washington, 355-56
 Reynolds, 357
 Political and public demoralization, 358
 Burnside, testimony before JCCW, 358-60
 Conscription, 360
 William B. Franklin, Burnside, controversy, 361-62
 Confederate deserters, food, morale, 362
 Sword presentation, 362-63, 368
 Lincoln and Mary Lincoln visit Hooker's army, 363-64
 JCCW report and Franklin, 364
 Still mourning death of two aides and feels responsible, 365
 Hooker charges of drunkenness, 365
 Burnside and Franklin, 365-66
 Charleston, 366-68
 Chancellorsville campaign, 366ff
 Jefferson Davis, Confederate food shortages, Union strategy, Union conscription, 367
 Ironclads, Vicksburg, Port Hudson, 368
 Mary Lincoln sends bouquets to principal generals in Army of the Potomac, 368
 Loyal League, 368-69
 No early end to the war, 369
 Hooker confident but secretive, 369-70
 Lincoln, Halleck, corps commanders, Hooker cautious and took to digging like McClellan, 372-73
 Possibility of Meade becoming commander, 373
 Critical of Hooker, 374-75
 Andrew Curtin, Hooker, 376
 Meade now at war with Hooker, 377-80
 Meade, Hooker, council of war about Chancellorsville, 381-82
 Hooker and Stoneman, 381-82

Gettysburg campaign, 382ff
Thinks Lee with take offensive, 382-83
Army of the Potomac, morale, 383
Burnside and Chicago Times, 384
Meade removed from Hooker's HQ and kept in the dark, 385
Reynolds, Lincoln, Hooker, 385
Worries about being placed in command of Army of the Potomac, 388-89

Volume 2

Narrative of the Battle of Gettysburg, 1-131
Women praising him, flowers, 133
Plans to attack Lee, his commanders voted against attack, 133-34
Lincoln, Halleck, criticism of Meade, 135
Government wants him to pursue and destroy Lee, 135-36
Lincoln, Howard, Meade, 137-38
Halleck, Meade, Lincoln, 138-41
Halleck ordered him to stop pursuit of Lee, 141
Meade and politics, 144, 162
Andrew Curtin, 145
Conscription, 146
Wilkes, Hooker, Gettysburg, 147
Presents, 148
Judge Carter, Washington, 149
Meeting, Lincoln, Halleck, Meade, 150-51
Should not worry about Meade being misrepresented, 151
Lee report on Gettysburg, 153
Fall 1863 campaign, including Mine Run, 153ff
Meade popular with troops, 155-56
Expects to be relieved from command, 157-58
Gibbon, Hancock, 160-61
Russian visitors, whiskey, 161
Hooker and Meade, 161
Hancock, Halleck, possible removal Meade, 163-64
Stanton, Usher, party, 165
Washington socializing, women, Schuyler Colfax, 167
JCCW, Sickles, Doubday, Stanton, charges against Meade, 169-76, 177-80
Cavalry raid, Kilpatrick, Dahlgren, 167-70
Reverdy Johnson and Wilkinson, 169, 177
Grant, 181
Gibbon, Butterfield, Gettysburg, Sickles, 181-83
Grant, 182
Stanton and Pleasonton, 182-83
Grant, 183
Religious services, communion, Bishop Whipple, 184
Grant, 184ff
Stanton, Sickles, Butterfield, 186

Many humbug stories about Grant, 187
 Meade and McClellan, 188
 Birney and Sickles, 189-90
 Grant described, 191
 Address, condition of the army, 192-94
 Overland campaign, 194ff
 Grant, Senators Sherman and Sprague, 197-98
 Some resentment of Grant, 198-200
 Campaign vindicates what he did at Mine Run in not attacking entrenched positions, 201
 Rants against newspaper reporter, 202-4
 Loss of officers, 207
 Took much hope in one man and thought we would have to maneuver Lee in Richmond defenses and lay siege, 210-11
 Hancock, Meade, Grant, 212
 Early's move toward Washington, 211ff
 Grant, Meade, attacks on Meade in New York Times, Swinton, 213-14
 Butler and Baldy Smith, 214
 Hancock, 215
 Peace Rumors, Niagara Falls, 215
 Slavery, Lincoln, peace rumors, 215-16
 Possible change for Meade to an independent command, 216, 218
 Petersburg mine, Crater, Burnside, 217-18, 220, 221
 Samuel Wilkeson, New York Tribune, 218
 Grant, 220
 Explosion at City Point, 220
 Meade, Sheridan, and Grant, 221-22
 Hancock, 222
 Meade, Grant, Sherman, Hancock, Sheridan, problem with promotions, 223-24
 Weldon railroad, 224-25
 Grant and his family 226
 Lincoln and Stanton, 226-27
 Confederate desertions, 227-28
 Confederate cavalry raid, 228
 Meade, Sheridan, Stanton, victories in the Valley, 229-31
 Close call from shell, 231-32
 McClellan, election, 232
 Soldier vote, officers and men indifferent to politics, 233-34
 Death of Birney, 235
 Meade attacked by Beecher's Independent, 236-38
 Grant, 238
 Stanton as chief justice, Banks or Butler in War Department, 239, 247-48
 Presidential election in Army of the Potomac, possible fraud, 239-40
 Jefferson Davis message, despondency, 241
 McClellan, 242
 Election of 1864, soldier vote, 242, 244-45
 Confederate desperation, arming slaves, 243

Rosecrans, foreign officers, 243-44
Verdict of history, Meade, Sherman, Grant, 245-46
Gettysburg, 248-49
Promotion, 247-49, 251-52
George H. Thomas, 250, 253
Need to replenish armies, 250-51
Burnside, 253-54
Defends Grant, 256
Fort Fisher, Butler, 256
Hampton Roads conference, 258-61
Petersburg mine, Crater, report of JCCW, Burnside, Grant, 261, 267
No hope for peace now, Confederates determined on another campaign, 263
Visit from Stanton and his wife, 267
Lincoln and Mary Lincoln, 268
Breakthrough at Petersburg, 269
Appomattox, Lee surrender, 270-71
Lincoln assassination, radicals, Grant, 273-74
Gettysburg, 307-422