

Odell, Thomas Goldsborough. The Civil War Correspondence of Judge Thomas Goldsborough Odell. Edited by Brian C. Pohanka. Bowie, Md.: Heritage Books, 1992.

Soldier pay, 1
Sermons, prayer meeting, 1
Kentucky unionists, 9
Vice, alcohol, 11
Quarters, fort, 13
Cooking, 13
Slave servant, 12-13
Alcohol, 16
Slave, disloyal owner, 24-25
John Hunt Morgan, 26-27, 34
Guard duty, 31
Stones River, 31-32
Slave servant, 32-33
Letters, mail, 33-34
Kentucky and Emancipation Proclamation, 34
Soldier pay, 35
Desertion, citizens' clothes, 36
Jefferson Davis, Emancipation Proclamation, 38
Soldiers in private houses, 41-42
Black troops, 47
South, slavery, 50
Chaplain, preaching, 51
Fall of Richmond, rumor, 53
Slaves, 54
Morale, optimism, 57
Chaplains, sermon, 59
Food prices, 60
Vicksburg, 61
Religion, contentment, world of misery, 71
Confederate spies, 71
Slave woman, 73
*providence, emancipation, 74
Morale, Vicksburg, 79
Unionist, slaves, 79-80
Furlough, 88
Camp routine, 90
Black religious service, slavery, 92-93
Chickamauga, 93-101
Wounded, 96-109
Food, 113
Letters, 117
Sermon, Unitarian, 129