

Cram, George F. Soldiering with Sherman: Civil War Letters of George F. Cram. Edited by Jennifer Cain Bohrnstedt. DeKalb, Ill.: Northern Illinois University Press, 2000. Sgt, 105th Illinois

Alcohol, temperance, 5
Chaplain, 6
Food prices, 9
Frankfort, Kentucky, 10
Rosecrans, Buell, 14
Bowling Green, Kentucky, devastation, 15
Ignorant southerners, 16-17
Newspapers, 21
Food, break, 23-24
Peace, morale, 25
Bathing, 27-28
Christmas, 28-29
Deaths, diarrhea, 35
Disease, deaths, 36-37
Chaplain, 39, 49
Deserters, Copperheads, 40
Reading, Shakespeare, 44-45
Democrats, copperheads, 45
Confederate soldiers and generals, 46
Huts, 47
Food, 48
Bathing, 48
Soldier life, routine, 50
*Soldiers, 50-51
Tullahoma, 52
Nashville, 52ff
Women, 54,
Rosecrans, 59
Granger, 63
Reenlistment, 66
Temptations, 73
Peace rumors, 77-78
Marching, 79
Chattanooga, 81
Soldiers and government, 87
*soldiers and home front, 88
Morality in regiment, 91
Chickamauga, 95
Atlanta campaign, 93ff
Hooker, 104
Newspapers, Confederate atrocities, 104-5
Confederate prisoners, 108

Terrain and death, 116
Losses in regiment, 118
Joseph Johnston and Hood, 127
Confederate deserters, 128
Hooker, 129
Sanitary and Christians Commission, 132
Petersburg, black troops, 133
Lincoln, election, disgusted with politics, 137
Mosquitoes and frogs, 138
Rumors, 139
McClellan, copperheads in regiment, 140
Sherman, 142
March to Sea, 146ff
Atlanta, 147ff
Sherman's army, South Carolina, 153ff
Plantations, slaves, 157
Lee surrender, 162
Lincoln assassination, 162-63