

Cummins, Simon B, Give God the Glory: Memoirs of a Civil War Soldier. Edited by Melvin Jones. Eagle River, Mich.: Greenlee Printing, 1979.

Disease, illness, 6-7
Hospital food, 9
Box, 10
Burial of Confederates, 31
Marching, foraging, 42
Food, 44
Housing, lice, 44-45
Mine Run, 45-47
Women, 51
Reenlistment, 57
Religious service, 62-63
Grant and heavy artillery, 64
Overland campaign, 67ff
Cold Harbor, 72-73
Religion, 73-74
Death of James Wadsworth, 74
Diarrhea, often during Overland campaign, 75 and preceding pages
Christian conviction and coming home, 77
Petersburg, 77ff
Food, 81
Hospital, 81ff
Hospital food, 83
Petersburg entrenchments, 83-84
Soldier pay, 93
Valley campaign, 1864, 95ff
Whiskey, 96
Rumors about Petersburg, 99
Religion at home, 100
Lincoln, election of 1864, 117, 123
Food, 121
Food prices, 124, 135
God saved his life in rail mishap, 130
Christmas, 133
Bounty, 137
Fraternization, 143
Religious backsliding, 146
Box, 148
Confederate deserters, 148
Sheridan, 151
Fort Stedman, 152-53
Lee surrender, 157-58
Assassination of Lincoln, 162-64