

Dunlap, Robert Caldwell. As the Mockingbird Sang: The Civil War Diary of Pvt. Robert Caldwell Dunlap, C.S.A. Edited by Susanne Staker Lehr. St. Joseph, Mo.: Platte Purchase Publishers, 2005.

Missouri State Guard

Enlistment, 13ff
Department of troops, 16
Jayhawkers, 17-18
Unionists, 19
Wilson's Creek, 20-24
Sterling Price, devastate Kansas, 28
Christmas, 29
European recognition of Confederacy, 31
Lectures of prophecies of Daniel, 31
Death of soldier, 32
Sold bad horse, 34
Earl Van Dorn, 34-35
Pea Ridge, Sterling Price, Van Dorn, 36-38
Wounded, 38
Fresh enlistments, 42
Mud, 42
Corinth, 43ff
Confederate women, 45
July 4, 48
Murder in company, 49
Iuka, 50-52
Sterling Price, 52
Coffee, 53
Corinth, 54
Review of troops, 60-61
Christmas, 61-62
Jefferson Davis, 63
General Bowen, 64
Alcohol, whiskey, 66
Vicksburg, 69-85
Soldier punished for playing cards with black man, 74
Fight between Confederate soldiers, 77
Big Black River, battle, 78-79
Dead bodies, burial truce, fraternization, 80-81
Food prices, Vicksburg, 84
Food, mule steak, 85
New Orleans, women, prisoners, 86-87
Hardee, 89
Food, clothing, shoe prices, Demopolis, 90
George M. Vest, Confederate congressman, Missouri, 92

Jefferson Davis review of troops, Johnston, Hardee, 93
Women and affection for Missouri troops, 93
Widespread stealing, 94
Discipline, punishments, 94
Bragg falling back from Chattanooga, morale, 95
Discipline, punishment of soldiers for killing hogs, 96
Christmas, 96
Food prices, 96-97
Mobile, 100ff
Demopolis, 105-9
Governor Watts speech, 107
Reenlistment, 110
Deserters, 112, 115-16
Troops reviewed by Governor Clarke of Mississippi, 112
Gainesville, Alabama, 113
Atlanta campaign, 116ff
Kennesaw Mountain, 123ff