
Lincoln's elections, Benjamin Hill, Robert Toombs, secession, 40-41
Douglas and Bell supporters and secession, 42
Herschel Johnson, 42-43
South Carolina and Georgia secession, 43, 45
Secession certain, 45-48
Fear of slave insurrection, 45
Peaceful secession, 47
Food, rations, 54
Beauregard movements, 57
Room and board, 61
Officeseekers in Richmond, 62
Yankee prisoners in Richmond, 63-64
Captured Yankee guns, 64
Morale, Yankees already whipped, 65
Yankees stealing slaves, slaves refuse to move away from the coast, 78
Moral regiment, 79, 83, 95
Fearful magnitude of war and must fight, 92
Savannah, Yankee threat, 93-
Masons in the regiment, 95
Slave letter, 125
Thoughts on two years of war, 131
Elections and greater freedom of speech and criticism of northern administration, 131-32
Wives and husbands slain in battle, 133-34
Arrangements for wife to board near the camp, 142-45
Stonewall Jackson wounded, condition, 153
Robert E. Lee described, 166-67
Robert E. Lee and rations, movements, 172-73
Early, Barksdale, Marye's Heights, Chancellorsville, 173
General Hooker movements, 174, 178
Chaplain, 179
Hooker fears Confederate invasion, 184
Gettysburg campaign, 184ff
Faith in Richard Ewell, 187
Marching, 188
Milroy, 190
Robert E. Lee's intentions unknown, 194
Confederate money, bonds, 201, 205
Religion and fatalism, 203
Treat Unionists well unlike Milroy and Confederates, 209
Pennsylvania and Maryland women, 211
Crude Pennsylvanians, women use rough language, 213
Pennsylvania peace Democrats, 214
Citizens too liberal in giving troops whiskey, 214
Think her husband will be spared, looks forward to close of the war, 215
Deserter camps in North Carolina, less patriotism than in Georgia and Virginia, 215-16
Pennsylvania women, blacks run off, afraid of Confederates, 218
Confederate army behaving well in Pennsylvania, not taking much food, 218-19
March to York, Pennsylvania, 221-22
Battle of Gettysburg, 223-227
Confederate army respected private property and did not speak rudely to women, 226
Band and instruments captured by Yankees, 231
Assessment of Gettysburg campaign, short rations, 238-39
Discourage and low morale in North Carolina, 245, 262
Shoes, prices, 245-46
Accomplishments of Gettysburg campaign, expectations too high, 248-49
Confederate military, situation, morale prospects of European intervention, 251
Envises comrade's wound and furlough, 265
Mine Run campaign, 286-87
Christmas and possible trouble with slaves, 291
God's protection, hardened to suffering and danger, 283-94
Selling land and slaves, 302-3
Christmas, 304-5
Hiring out slaves, 307-8
Dull court martial duties, 320-21
Conscription and resistance, 325
Court martial described, 329-331
Tells of soldier and his devoted wife, 331
Sabbath in army, 331-32
Soldier endurance, makes best of bad situation, easily amused, 333-34
Snow storm, rabbit hunting, 334-35
Two soldiers arrested for killing pigs, 335
Grabbing food not considered stealing by soldiers, 335-36
Slave, old servant in camp, spoiled, 336-37
Letters both hopeful and desponding, 337-38
Food, reduced Confederate rations, 338-39, 342-43
Furloughs and morale, 341
Musing on when war will end, Confederate and Yankee confidence, 343-44
Reenlistment, 344-45
Morton's Ford, 348-52
Theater, minstrel show in camp, 352-53
Morale improving and Georgia prospering, 356
Confederate money, 357
Plan for spring campaign, Grant, 369
Forged furlough, arrest, 375-76
Spring campaign, rumors, 378
Campaign, Burnside's Ninth Corps, morale, 380
Overland campaign, 383-
Spotsylvania Courthouse, 393-96
Grant appears exhausted, 397
Hard to believe fighting will continue and worn out with suspense, 401-2
Death of slave, 404
Loose relations between men and women in Miller County, Georgia, 406
Valley campaign, 1864, wounded, 423ff
Despondency about military situation in Georgia, 438
Election of 1864, McClellan's poor chances, 443
Hope for the future, 446
Winchester and Fisher's Hill, 450-55
Thinks folk likely demoralized by recent defeats, 458
Anticipates large assaults by Grant at Petersburg, 459
Deaths of slaves, 460
Loss of faith in Jubal Early, profane and ignores the Sabbath, 460-61
Wants to sell slaves and exchange for real estate, 463
Yankees burning places in the Valley, 463
Sheridan and Early, 464
Fears for safety of Richmond, 466
Fisher's Hill and Cedar Creek, 469-89
John B. Gordon, Jubal Early, 483, 490-92, 497
Richmond Newspapers, 1864 Valley Campaign, Jubal Early, 493-96
Slave soldiers, 494
Cedar Creek, Evans report, 499-501
Whiskey, alcohol in army, 506
Not sure what will happen in war but whole Yankee nation very determined, 515
Food, eating well in late 1864, 517
Expects Sherman's army to be destroyed, 518-19
Sherman's march through Georgia, 521
Petersburg, 522ff
Fort Stedman, 533-36
Fort Fisher, April 2 attack and Appomattox, 540-554