

Feilden, Henry Wemyss. A Confederate Englishman: The Civil War Letters of Henry Wemyss Feilden. Edited by W. Eric Emerson and Karen Stokes. Columbia: University of South Carolina Press, 2013.

Boastful, confidence, 3
Southern women, 3
Confederates cannot be conquered, 3-4
Richmond, 4
Stonewall Jackson, 5-7
Copperheads, Lincoln, 7, 10-11
Yankees and slaves, 8
Charleston, 8ff
Yankee conscription, 10-11
Cotton, 11-12
Beauregard, 14
Beauregard, report on Morris Island, 16
Bishop Elliott, 19, 21, 27, 34
Picnic, Beauregard, 20
Hardened to death, think little of death and eternity, 21
Augusta Evans, Macaria, 21
Lying Yankee newspapers, 22-23
James Island, 24
Sherman will be retreating, 26
Memminger, 31
Union prisoners under fire, Confederate policy, 32-33
Retaliation, 33
Sherman and Johnston, 33
Dinner party, food and drink, 35
Kennesaw Mountain, Sherman, 36
Elliott, Quintard, Polk, 37
General Seymour, Yankee general prisoners, siege of Charleston, 37-38
Bombardment of Charleston, 40-47
Sherman and Johnston, optimism, 42
Confident about keeping the Yankees out of Charleston, 43-44
Death of William Porcher, coffin, 43
Yankee outrages in Virginia, 45
Grant in Virginia, 47
Dirty Confederate soldiers, Florida reserves, 51
Bathing, 53
Olustee, 55
Yankees firing on Charleston, 58
Mobile, Farragut, 58
Furlough, 61
Florida, 50ff—much description
Floridians have plenty of food and slaves yet live in a crude manner, 63-64
Indian mound, 66-67

Women, flirting, 69
Charleston, 71ff
Beauregard, 71, 74, 79-80, 81-82
Downplays danger from shelling Charleston, 75
Discouraging news from Virginia, Early driven back, 76
Reconstruction, subjugation, morale, 79
Jones and Ripley, 80
Hood, 80
Confederate women, 83
Dead officer, yellow fever, 85
Hardee, 84-85, 89
Boyce letter and peace, 86-87
Despair, ports closed, 93
Woman asks for pass to go to Charleston to visit boot maker, 95
Hardee trouble, 96-97
Lonely for wife, 97-98
Sherman, 100
Sherman and Columbia, 101
Charleston, Sherman in South Carolina, 102
Charleston, 104
Charleston, Columbia, Sherman, 105
Evacuation of Charleston, 106
Sherman and destruction, 108
Bentonville, 110
Expects Johnston's army to join Lee and then attack Sherman and Grant, 111
Charleston to North Carolina, fighting, 113-14
Will defeat Sherman with Fabian policy, 115
Yankee atrocities in South Carolina, 115
Lee abandons Petersburg lines, 116
Disloyal slaves, 118

