

Paxton, Frank. The Civil War Letters of General Frank 'Bull' Paxton, C.S.A., A Lieutenant of Lee & Jackson. Edited by John Gallatin Paxton. Hillsboro, Tex.: Hill Jr. College Press, 1978.

Duty, bloodshed ahead, 4
Will enter battle without fear, 5
Letters, women, 5
Discipline, 6
Bull Run, Manassas, 11
Letters, love, 15
Duty and determination, 17, 19, 26
Stonewall Jackson, 22
Love, 23
Women, soldier wives in camp, 25
Furlough, resignation, 32-37
Duty, home, 33
Rumors, 40
Duty, 40-41
Jackson's Valley campaign, 44ff
Election of officers, 48
Sabbath, 50
Second Bull Run, Manassas, 54
Supply problems, 57-58
Morale, 58
Providence, 59-60
Duty and destiny, 62
Extortioners, 62, 66
Fredericksburg, 68
Paxton arrested on insubordination charges, 70
Confidence, morale, 71
Execution, deserters, 73, 75
Religion, Jackson, 76
Religion, service in camp, religious soldiers, 78, 79-80
Extortion, 81-80
Providence and sin, 82
Premonition of death, 85