

Peel, William H. Far from Home: The Diary of William H. Peel, 1863-1865. Edited by Ellen Sheffield Wilds. Bloomington, Ind.: AuthorHouse, 2009.

Gettysburg campaign, 34ff
Secession, women in Maryland, 35
Foraging, 35-36, 44-45
Women, Confederate, stealing, food, 47
Longstreet, 58
Pickett's charge, 59
Captured, 67ff
Irish, motives for fighting
Marsena Patrick, rumored death of Longstreet, 72-73
Johnson's Island prison, 100ff
Sutler, stamps, 103
Oath, 105
Copperhead newspaper, 106
Brothers of the Southern Cross, 106ff
Hospital, 108-9
Women, visiting prisoners, 109-10
Washington's Birthday, 111-12
Prayer meeting, revival, 115
Pray for meeting, 122-24
Sherman, 122-23, 126
Frederick Douglass, 123
Tracts, testaments, 123
Yankee chaplain, sermon, 124
Sutler, 125, 175
Exchange, 128
Rumors of French recognition, 128
Escape attempt, 131
Boxes, 136
Copperheads, 137
April Fool's, 144
Sutler, 149, 233-34
Frostbite, 150
European recognition, 150-51
Fasting, humiliation, and prayer, 152
Copperheads, newspapers, 153
Fort Pillow, 156
Baseball, 158
Lincoln, Fort Pillow, retaliation, 158-59
Prisoner exchange, letter, 160
Copperheads, Indiana, 162
Overland Campaign, 173ff
Shelling at Charleston, 184
Escape, ladders, 187

Grant, casualties, 196
Escape attempt, 197ff
Vallandigham, 205
Gold prices, 214
July 4, 215
Fight, prisoners, 226
Baseball, 226, 248
Petersburg mine, 232
Fasting, humiliation, and prayer, 234
Escape attempt, 235ff
Food, 239
Northern peace sentiment, 243
Execution, Confederate prisoners, 255
Rats, 259
Draft riot in Sandusky, 263
Tornado, 265
Food, 276-77
Presidential Election, 282
Escape attempt, 291ff
Sherman, 295
Christmas, 296