

Petty, Elijah P. Journey to Pleasant Hill: The Civil War Letters of Elijah P. Petty, Walker's Texas Division, C.S.A. Edited by Norman D. Brown. San Antonio: University of Texas Institute of Texan Cultures, 1982.

Alcohol and gambling, 9
Camp life and temptation, 15
Arrest, shooting a pig, 21-22
Christmas, alcohol, 29
Women, Christmas dinner, 30
Galveston, 36
Alcohol, prostitution, murder, 37
Morale and motivation, 78
Alcohol, whiskey, 80, 117, 298
Prices, 99
Education, 99
Disease, 102-3
Arkansas and its people, 104
Marching, 111
Soldier suffering, 114
Theft, discharge of soldiers, 126
Arkansas Post, 128
Federal desertions, Vicksburg, 133-34
Food, 136
Fear, 139
Slave prices, 142
Peace prospects, 144
Desertion, execution, 145, 148, 150-51, 152
Slave, 154
Advice to daughter, education, reading, 155, 156-57, 161, 167, 307-8, 311-12, 318-19
Swearing, 159
Lice, 163
Women, 164-65. 170, 204-5, 220, 257-58, 277-78, 296-97, 317
Women, dancing, 207
Federals had occupied sugar areas, sugar shortage, 213
Denouncing Yankees and calling for all out war, 213-16, 223
Combat experience, first battle, 231-33
Morale and murmuring, 250
Demoralization and insubordination in the army, 251-52
Soldier deserting and selling slaves in Texas, 262
Demoralization, migration, disaffection, 267
Substitution, substitutes, 278
Hog stealing, 287
Foraging, 289
Demoralization and peace sentiment in the army, 302
Braxton Bragg, 309-10
Music, 314

Jews, anti-Semitism, 324
God, providence, 332-33