

Sand, Henry Augustus. Crossing Antietam: The Civil War Letters of Henry Augustus Sand, Company A, 103rd New York Volunteers. Edited by Peter H. Sand and John F. McLaughlin. Jefferson, N.C.: McFarland and Company, 2016.

103rd New York Infantry

Food, 3-5
Annapolis, 4-5
Arrival of Seventh New York in Washington, 6-10
Newspaper reports, 10
Soldier take the oath in front of Lincoln and other dignitaries, 11
Recruiting in New York, Zouaves, 11-12
Dining with Prussian minister and family, 14-15
Clothing, tents, 17
Camp life suffering, 18
Letters and food, 19
Carl Schurz, 21
Christmas, 29
Food, 34
Letter writing, 35
Pea Ridge, 35
Burnside expedition, 36ff
Tents, 36-37
Sutler, food, 37
Seward, flag presentation, 38-41
Seasickness, 43-43
Letter writing, 44
Plantation of a Confederate, 45
Mill restored, 45
Picket duty, 45-46
Needs newspapers in camp, 48
Shiloh, 49
Shooting practice, 50
Skirmish with Confederates, 51-58
Box items, 58, 62
Food scarce, 59
Slaves, 60-61
Trouble with officers, arrest, 64-65
Box contents, 65
Illness, 66-67
Officers, desire for promotion, 69
Military situation in Virginia, Banks, 70-71
Corinth, 72-73
Officers, 73
Box, books and other items, 73
Sabbath, 73

Fever, 75
General Nagle, 76-77
General Ferrero, 77
General Stanly, 77
Accused deserter, suicide, 77-78, 92
Illness and soldier carelessness, 78-79
Sailing, 80-81
Fort Macon, 81
Unionists, 81
Beaufort, 81-82
Fever, 82-83
Food, prices, mess, 84
Reading material, 86
Burnside, 89
Still hope about capturing Richmond, 91-92
Chaplain, 92-93
Conscription, 93-94
Water, tea, 95
Diminished regiments, retreat of McClellan, 96
Dead and wounded from recent battles, 96
Camp routine, 98
Colonel Rush Hawkins, Zouaves, 99, 104
Box, souvenirs sent home, secesh watering pot, 100
Court martial, 101
Campground, 103-4
Box, 105
Halleck, 105
Camp servant, 106
Theft, 106
Fredericksburg, 107ff
Picket duty, slaves, 115
Box and contents, 116
Falmouth, provost marshal duty, 116-17, 120
Music, band, 118
McClellan, 121
Seward, 121
Sykes' regulars, 122
Confederate women and morale, 122
Second Bull Run, 123-25, 130
Destruction in Fredericksburg, 125-29
Antietam, 132ff
Death of Captain Sand, 136ff
Letters from the wounded Captain Sand, 137ff