

Stephens, George E. A Voice of Thunder: The Civil War Letters of George E. Stephens. Edited by Donald Yacovone. Urbana: University of Illinois Press, 1997.

Religion, Mormonism, colonization, 121-23
Death, fatal railroad accident, 153
Slave, 134-35
Slaves and Union soldiers mistreatment, 138-39
American Republic and slavery, 141
Slaves, fear of Yankees, 146
Southern poverty, poor whites, 147
Black soldier, 148
Whiskey, 148
Thanksgiving, 150
Christmas, slaves, 150-51
Slavery and liquor, 156-58
Slaves, contraband, 157
Sutler, 157-58
Diplomacy, England, 162-63
Slave, whipping, 163-65
Murder, 164-65
Joseph Hooker, 167-69, 173-75
Slave, 168-70, 173-75
*Convention, future of black race, 170-71
Confederate women, 175
Mud, 173, 176
Colonization, 177-79
*Future of black race, 179
Surgeon, 181
Catholic chaplain, slave, 182-83
African American religion, 182-83
Fugitive slaves, 186-87
Slave women, miscegenation, 187
Slave laborers, 188-89
Manassas, Confederate abandonment, 192-93
General Naglee and slaves, 193-94
Officers returning fugitive slaves, 194-95
*McClellan and Confederate abandonment of Manassas, Army of the Potomac, 197-98
Fugitive slaves, 198-200
Slaves, officer servants, 204
Slave scouts, spies, 204-5
Fugitive slaves, 208-9
Deserter, 209
Fredericksburg, 210ff
Dead, wounded, Cowardice, 214
Union soldiers, slave, cruelty, 214-15
Emancipation Proclamation, 217
Christmas, whiskey, 219
Joseph Hooker, 219-20

Black troops, 228-32
Copperheads, 228-32
Black troops, 54th Massachusetts, John A. Andrew, 235ff
Darien, Georgia, 242
Fort Wagner, 244-46, 264-65
New York draft riots, 250-51
Black troops, pay, 252-53, 258-59, 319-21, 325-26
Charleston, 250ff
Chaplain, religious services, 268-69
James Montgomery, 272ff
Battle of Olustee, 292ff
Lincoln administration and blacks, 305ff
Emancipation, 325
Petersburg, 326-27