

Stone, Kate. Brokenburn: The Journal of Kate Stone, 1861-1868. Edited by John Q. Anderson. Baton Rouge: Louisiana State University Press, 1972.

Brother anxious to fight and fears war being over before he can fight, 13
News is all war, 14
Subscribes to various northern publications and worries about Lincoln stopping mail, 14
Overseer wife, 15
Anxiety about boys who have gone off, harder to be at home, 17
Meat prices will be high, 18
Debate over secession, 19
Women and inaction, 24
Fasting, humiliation, and prayer, 24-25
Runaway slaves, insurrection rumors, 28
House slaves lazy and disobedient, 33, 35
July 4, 36
Lincoln message to Congress, 39
Sewing for the soldiers, 39
Humane master, preaching to slaves, 41
Manassas victory, 44
Benefit concert for soldiers, 52
Slaves stealing, 53
War, politicians, carry war to Washington, 56-57
Jefferson Davis, presidential election, 66
Teacher failure, 73
Christmas, 77
Year of war, God, good rulers, 79
Leonidas Polk, appeal for slaves to work on fortifications, 83
Death of Zollicoffer, 85
Clothes, paper money, 86
Overseers, rich man's war, 95
Foreigner who feels he should join the army but does not want to go, 96
Losses in Tennessee and burning of cotton, 100-101
Conscription, 103
Benjamin F. Butler, New Orleans, 105, 111
Food, shortages of many things once considered necessities, 109
Clothes, 109-10
Appearance of Yankee gunboats, 122-23
Yankees taking off slaves who go willingly, 126-28
July 4, 127
Poor food, 129
McClellan losses, Seven Days, 131-32
Slaves returning from the Yankees, other running away, 134-35
Exchanged prisoners arrive, 143
Cake, flour price, 145
Lincoln, Emancipation Proclamation, 145-46
Maryland and Antietam campaign, 146

Clothing and boot prices, 147
 Leather supply, shoes for slaves, 152
 False report of her brother being killed at Fredericksburg, 165-66
 Refugee preparations, 168ff
 Dangerous slave cook, woman, leaves, 170-72
 Kansas Jayhawkers in neighborhood hunting slaves, 173
 White women having to milk and get breakfast, 173
 Vicksburg, 178
 False rumor of Bragg resignation and Johnston in command, 178-79
 Slaves and Yankees, 179-80
 Lincoln and conscription, dictator, 180
 Women, Yankee letters of protection, 181
 Woman, Yankees take her horse, 182
 Slaves declare themselves free and are leaving, 183
 Outages by Yankees and slaves, 184
 Death of brother, news arrived seven weeks after his death, 186-88
 Refugees, tales of Yankees, loss of slaves, 191
 Slaves quarreled over dividing family clothes, 193
 Refugee housing, 193
 Yankees carry off slaves, 195
 Black soldiers, ransacking house, slaves, 195-97
 Refugees traveling, 198-
 Refugee losses, 202-3
 Slaves at salt works, 204, 207
 Yankees hire black labor, barely feed them, 208
 Death of Stonewall Jackson, 211
 Women and Confederate soldiers, 213
 Food for refugees, 222
 Refugees in Lamar County, Texas, 223ff
 Locals out of fashion, still wear hoops, 225
 Rumors about Vicksburg and Port Hudson, 229-30
 Only hope in the invincible Robert E. Lee, 230
 Indians, Confederate sympathizers, 232
 Prices, 232
 Baptist meeting and sermon, 232-33
 Gettysburg and Vicksburg, 233
 Dirty kitchen, dirty beds, food, 237
 European recognition, 240
 Texas people, hiring slaves, 242
 Shopping and high prices, 245-46
 Brother wounded at Gettysburg, 247-48
 Unionists and trade with Yankees, 248-49
 Conflict and prejudice against refugees, school, 249-51
 Rumors, credulity, 253
 Death of soldier from fever, 259-63
 Contrast of prosperous northern states and Confederacy, 266-67

Christmas, 269
Read material books, 270
Trouble in past year, 272
Red River campaign, Banks, Mansfield, 280-81
Conscription, seventeen-year-old, 282
Overseers, detail, 283
Jayhawkers hanged by mob, 283-84
Refugees, clothing shortage, 291
Society, dancing, hardening, 292-93
Hanging spies in Missouri, 294
Music, new songs, 296, 301
Yankees, vengeance, guerrillas, 296-97
Yankees, black troops, 297-98
Military rumors, 312-13
Peace rumors, 316-17, 320
Defeats and Lee surrender, 330-31, 333-34
Lincoln assassination, 333