

Swisshelm, Jane Grey. Crusader and Feminist: Letters of Jane Grey Swisshelm, 1858-1865.
Edited by Arthur J. Larsen. Saint Paul: Minnesota Historical Society, 1934.

Railroad travel, 86-88
Chicago Zouaves, 90-93
Republicans and Douglas in Illinois, 93-94
Kentucky woman and slavery, 95
Land and railroads, 99-100
Fort Snelling, First Minnesota troops, 104ff
Food for soldiers, 116-17
Dress parade, 117-19
Discipline, 124-25
Lecturing, 126ff
Removal of Simon Cameron, 128
Slavery, appointment of Stanton, married women's property rights, 129-130
Thomas W. Sherman, Port Royal, Cameron, 131-33
Confiscation act, 133-34
Mill Springs and government military policy, England and France recognition, 135
Minnesota governor and wife and fashion, 135-36
Ignatius Donnelly and wife, 136-37
Notes blacks working in Washington, meaning of emancipation, 164
Slavery and emancipation, race, Washington, 164-66
McClellan, 167-68
Democrats and New England, 170
Republicans cowardly, Lincoln reluctant to arm blacks, 171-74
Confiscation Act a dead letter, 172-73
Lincoln tells a story, anecdote, rather than leading, 173
Much cowardice in wartime Washington, 174-75
No hope in Congress, 174-75
Stanton, 175-78
General Fremont, 176-78
Fears McClellan coming back into the army, 178
Galusha Grow, 178-79
Byron Sunderland, chaplain of the Senate, 180
Indians, Minnesota, 180-84
Lincoln, patronage, appointment of Democrats, 187-88
Mary Lincoln, 188-90
Sioux Indians, Minnesota, 191-97
Fremont, 199
McClellan, 199-200
Washington streets and mud, 201-3
Union meeting, Washington, 203-10
Lincoln, Fremont, slavery, emancipation, 205-6
Lincoln described, 207-8
Andrew Johnson speech, 209-10
Report of the Joint Committee on the Conduct of the War, copperheads, McClellan, 211-16

Army of the Potomac traveling lighter since removal of McClellan, 216-17
Lincoln and enrollment of black troops, 218, 220-22
George Thomas, Fremont, Hunter, Cameron, 218-19
Hooker prospects of victory, Knights of the Golden Circle, 223-24
Sioux Indian troubles, 224-28
Hooker, Chancellorsville, 228-31
Mud, roads, 229-30
Hospital service, 232ff
Whiskey, 233
Dead patient, 233-34
Gettysburg campaign, 235-38, 241
Secession feeling in Washington, 238
William H. Channing, minister, slavery, emancipation, Washington, 242-44
Sunderland, emancipation, 243
Copperheads, 245
Conscription, 250-51
Contraband camp, Stanton, 250-52
Meade, morale, confidence, 252
Pennsylvania and wounded soldiers, 253-54
First Minnesota regiment, 254-55
Nurse, Dorothea Dix, details about various patients, 255-63
Governor Ramsey and the Sioux, 266
Dead animals on Washington streets, 269
Disloyal generals, McClellan, Halleck, Butler, Meade, 271
Mild policy of Lincoln, Fremont and McClellan as presidential candidates, 272
Jubal Early advance on Washington, 272-75
McClellan as presidential candidate, 275
Ignatius Donnelly, Republicans, 275-76
Rally for Union victories in Washington, McClellan supporters, 277-79
Sibley and Sioux Indians, 279
Arrest of German Jew clothing dealing, arrests of rebel sympathizers, disloyalty, 280-82
Rejoices over the end of the war, 285-86
Assassination of Lincoln and Confederates, 286-90
Andrew Johnson, 290-92
Slave and fall of Richmond, 291-92
John Wilkes Booth. 292-94
Johnson, Lincoln assassination, Confederate involvement, assassins trial, slave power, 295-303