

Wells, Seth J. The Siege of Vicksburg from the Diary of Seth J. Wells. Detroit: William M. Rowe, 1915.

Co. K. 17th Illinois

Old and new regiments, 11
Marching, heat and dust, 12
Governor Yates, recruiting, 15
Soldier drummed out of camp, 16-17
Fredericksburg, 19
Countryside stripped of provisions, slaves suffering for food, 21
Christmas food, 25-26
Foraging, 23
Alcohol, vice, 25
Soldier pay, 28
Plantations, 31
Canal, 32-34
McClelland, 34
Foraging for chickens, 38-39
Disease, burials, 41-42
Conscription, 42
General, 53
Lorenzo Thomas, black troops, 53
Destruction of gins and mills, 60
Prices, 62
Wounded, 62
Big Black river, 64-65
Close call, objects stop bullet, 66-67
Fraternization, 69
Shelling, deaths of civilians, 72
Artillery, premature shell bursts, 78
Confederate rations, 79
Artillery fire, death, 80
Port Hudson, Gettysburg, 83
Artillery explosion, 85
Capture of Vicksburg, 86-87
Surrendering Confederates, 87-88
Gettysburg, 93
Confederates and McClelland, 95
Fraternization, 95-96
Horse, 98-99