

Garrison, William Lloyd. The Letters of William Lloyd Garrison. Edited by Walter M. Merrill and Louis Ruchames. 6 vols. Cambridge, Mass.: Harvard University Press, 1971-81.

Vol. 5

Wendell Phillips, assault plot, 5

War as punishment for slavery, 6

Wife's birthday, watch, 8

New Mexico, Charles Francis Adams, 10

Peaceable secession, Lincoln, 11

Animal rights, 13-16

Must support government during the war but no compromise principle, 17

Rallying of northern opinion, 19-20

American Antislavery Society, National Antislavery Standard, 21-22, 29

Colonization, Haiti, 24-26

Abolition and loyal slaveholders, 35-36

Conservative press and Lincoln administration, 37

Fremont proclamation and Lincoln, 39

Lincoln message, very critical, conservative press, 47

Balloons, Lowe, 53

Lincoln and colonization, 53

Edward Baker, 53

Wendell Phillips, lecture, 54-55, 57

Garrison lecture, 55

Homeopathy, 61-62

English opinion, 64ff, 79-82

Abolitionists and the war, 65-75

Abolition and peace, 75-78

Anna Dickinson, lectures, 85-90

George W. Julian, Garrison lecturer, Wendell Phillips, 90-91

Slavery, emancipation in Washington, D.C., 91

David Hunter, Lincoln, 93

Quakers, war, slavery, 97-98

Garrison, antislavery speech, 101, 103-4

Conscription, non-resistance, 106-7

Abolitionists, war, hostility, 111-12

Lincoln, doubtful honesty, 112-13

Antietam campaign, 113

Emancipation Proclamation, 114-15

McClellan and Emancipation Proclamation, Fremont, 123

Paper shortage, subscription prices, Liberator, 129

George Thompson and English abolition, 139-40

Emancipation Proclamation, John A. Andrew, 141-42

Slowness of army, no faith in Halleck, Grant, or Banks, Emancipation Proclamation, 143

Northern racism, 143

Moncure D. Conway, 146

England, slavery, and the war, 146

Reports on antislavery society meeting, 152-54

Seeking journalist job for son, Theodore Tilton, 158-59
James M. Mason, Moncure D. Conway, Horace Greeley, 161-62
New York draft riots, Confederates and Copperheads, 165
Gerrit Smith, progress of emancipation, 170-71
Arthur Tappan, 173-74
Horace Greeley, Fremont, 185
George Thompson, 186ff
African American soldier pay, 191
Rumor of universal emancipation, 191
Gideon Welles, seeks exemption for navy chaplain, 197-98. 216
Charles Sumner and slavery, 200
Garrison, Phillips, Lincoln, election of 1864, 203
Anna Dickinson speeches, 205
Republican convention, Lincoln, slavery, 208
Garrison, Lincoln, Stanton, 210
Phillips, National Anti-Slavery Standard, Lincoln, 213-14
Garrison praises Sumner for his role in antislavery legislation, 215-16
English views of America, Lincoln, Moncure D. Coway, 220-33
Fremont and Cochrane, Lincoln, 235
Charles Eliot Norton, Nathaniel Banks, Louisiana reconstruction, 249-53
Reconstruction, cabinet, Governor Andrew, 254
Charleston celebration, 266ff