

Haines, Zenas T. “In the Country of the Enemy”: The Civil War Reports of a Massachusetts Corporal. Edited by William C. Harris. Gainesville: University Press of Florida, 1999.

Enlistment and early camp life, 33ff
Whiskey, 42
Bathing, 42-43
Women and patriotism, 43
Chaplain, 44
Clothes, 45, 49
Band music, 46, 56
Cook, food, 46, 47, 49, 50
Food, sutler, 53
Religion, 171
Politics and religious affiliation, 58-59, 63
McClellan, 171
Death of cat, 63-64
*Soldier and prisoner, 64
Steamer to North Carolina, 68-73
Newbern, 74ff
Tarboro, 79ff
Newbern, poor whites, women, 81
Skirmish, 82-85
Slaves, 88
Food, 93
Foraging, 95
Women, 95-96
Thanksgiving, 98
Burning fence rails, 106
Newspaper, 108
Duty and battle, 109
Food, sutler, 110
New Year's, 110-11, 118-22
Foraging, 112-13
Boxes, 114-15
Free black women, food, 128
Washington's birthday, 133-36
Black troops, 136
Washington, North Carolina, 141ff
Women, snuff, 145
Theater, 145-46
Slave woman, sutler, 146
Black religious service, 147, 150
African American troops, 152, 154
Funeral, 157
Malaria, 158
Provost duty at Newbern, 168

Copperheads, McClellan, 171-72
Soldier medium, 172
Officers, heroes, 177
Slave dance, 177-78
Black religious wake, 180
Regiment welcomed home, 185ff