

Haydon, Charles B. For Country, Cause & Leader: The Civil War Journal of Charles B. Haydon. Edited by Stephen W. Sears. New York: Ticknor and Fields, 1993.

Enlistment and departure, 1ff
Mud, swearing officer, 2-3
Camp life, 3-4
First death in regiment, 4
Card playing and various vices, 4
Three-year enlistments, 5, 9
Morals in camp, 5
Guard duty, 5
Food, cooking, diarrhea, 5-6
Officers, discipline, 7
Church service, 7
Court martial, discipline, 10
Deserter, 11
Small pox, 11
Economic motives for enlistment, 12
Women in camp, 12
Shooting practice, 14
Drill, 13-14
German soldiers, 15
Thoughts on departing for war, 16
Food, 19
Trip through Ohio, women, 19-20
Baltimore, 20-23
Washington, 23ff
Marching, 23
Women, 25
Sleeping sentinels, pickets, 25
Field fortifications, 26
Food, 26
Drill, 28-29
Israel Richardson, comments throughout much of the journal
Discipline, 29
Coffee, 30-32
Picket firing, 30-31
Balloon, 32
Diarrhea, 33
Soldier life, 33-34
Camp life, effect on later life, 34
Height of soldiers, 35
Food, 36
Soldiers doctor themselves, 36
Rain, tents, 37
Lincoln message, call for volunteers, 40-41

Sutler pie, 43
Ellsworth, 43
Food, 44-45
McClellan, Rich Mountain, 45
First Bull Run campaign, 50-62
Soldier destruction of grocery, 51
Water and heat, 54
Winfield Scott, 56
Washington, Congress, Andrew Johnson, 63-64
Alcohol and gambling, 64
Robert E. Lee, Arlington, 64
Whiskey and gambling, food, 65-66
Poor officers, 69
McClellan, 70
Sutler, 71
12th New York mutiny, three month regiments, 71-72
Deserter, 71
Law career, 74
Officers and morality, 75
Soldier foraging and destruction, 76
McClellan, review of troops, 77
Bad officers, 77-78
McClellan, 79
Young soldier killed a Confederate, 82
Picket firing, 82
Trees and defenses, 83
Alcohol, 84, 89, 90
McClellan, Sabbath, 85
Fraternization, trading newspapers, 86, 88
Shooting at Confederates, 90
Picket firing, 90-91
Swearing, venereal disease, 91-92
Picket firing and burning houses, 95
Destruction, 95
Men grow more ferocious, barbaric, 95
Alcohol, card playing, 96-97
Boarding in a house, 99
Skirmish drill, 101-2
Entrenchments, 102
Unqualified officers, 103-4
Food, mess, prices, 105
Marching, 111
Relationship between friends and family and battle, 112
Soldier pay, 113
Rumor of McClellan taken prisoner, 114
Review of troops, 114

Alexandria and slaves, 115-16
Death of soldier who should never have enlisted, 121
Shooting practice, 122
Rumors, 123
Courts martials, 123-24
Americans have little appreciations for architecture or art. 126-27
Review of troops, McClellan and Lincoln, 129-30
Deserter, prostitute, 135
Tent, rain, soldier and warm fireplace, 135
Harriet Lane, 135-36
Discipline, 137-38
Washington, prostitutes and politicians, 138
Funeral, chaplain, sermon, 144
Log and broad quarters, shanties, 147-48
Men turning into soldiers, 148
Picket and guard duty, 149
Officer problems, 153
Soldier pay, 153
Southern woman, illegitimate children, 156-57
Mason and Slidell, 160
Foraging, discipline, 160
His differences with an officer named Benson, 161-62
Slavery and Virginia architecture, 163
Rumor of Lorenzo Thomas treason, 168
Officers drunk, 172-73
Greenbacks, 174
Slavery, 174
Discipline and training, 178
Boxing, 178-79
Soldier life and camp life, 180
Officers and courage, 181
Engagements, marriage, soldiers, women breaking it off, 181
Charles Dickens, 182
Soldier pay, 182
Drill, 183
Congress, prostitutes, soldier pay, 183-84
Friendly fire, 186-87
Soldier determination, 188
Religious service, camp, 190
Drilling, 192-93
Alcohol, women, 195-96
Requirements of a good officer, 198
Secesh women, 198
Army of the Potomac plans, McClellan, 200-1
Officers and promotions, 201
Plundering countryside, 202

Yorktown siege, 204ff
McClellan, 207
Monitor, 208
Hampton, Virginia ruins, 209-10
Food, money, 213
Picket firing, 220
Camp religious services, 221
Death of a soldier, 222
Balloon, 222-23
Officers tired of war, 223-24
Shiloh, 224-25
Enlistment and expectations, 226
McClellan, 226
Yorktown evacuated, 231
Williamsburg, 231ff
Dead and wounded, 233-34
Revenge, burying enemy dead, 234
Enemy atrocities, 237-38
Optimistic about the course of the war, 239
Corinth, Halleck, Johnston, 239
Newspaper accounts of battle, Hancock, Kearny, 239-40
Facing battle, 240-41
Whiskey, 243
McClellan and Stanton, 244-45
Confederate woman, 245
Lice, 245
Fair Oaks, Seven Pines, 247ff
Unburied dead decomposing, 248
Discipline and disease, 250
Wounded men on the field, courage, 251
Home and peace, 251-52
Water. 252
Seven Day, 254ff
Anticipates death and fears defeat's impact on the country, 256-57
Courage of Confederates as Americans, 260
Harrison's Landing, 262ff
McClellan, 263
General assessment of Seven Days, 263-64
Wonders if subduing Confederates may be impossible task, 264
Kearny, 265-68
Heintzelman, 265-66
Review of troops, 266
McClellan reputation and Peninsula, 270-71
Army of the Potomac moving slowly, 271-72
Marching, 272
Second Bull Run, 278ff

Kearny killed, Chantilly, 282
Leesburg, 284-85
Removal of McClellan, 286
Cavalry easier service, 287
Lincoln, morale, 288
Cavalry, hay, horses, 288
Too much protection of Confederate property, 288-89
Regiment consolidation, outrage, 289
Fredericksburg campaign, 291ff
Edwin Sumner, 292
Snow, 292-93
Card playing, Sunday, 293
Morale, 299
Fraternization, 300
Winter quarters, hut, shanty, fireplace, 300-301
Kearny and Richardson, 302-3
Burnside and McClellan, 304-5
Mud March, 305-8
Sounds of shells and thoughts on going into battle, 306-7
Burnside, Hooker, 308
Desertion, execution, 308
Hooker and men on picket, 308-9
Western theater, Burnside, 317
General Poe, 319
Poor chaplain sermon, 321
Stragglers, 321-22
Lincoln, Emancipation Proclamation, 324
Alcohol, 332-33
Slaves, 333
Illegitimate birth in Kalamazoo, 335
Wounded, 339
Hospital, 339ff
Surgeon probing wound, 341
Vallandigham, 341
Southern woman and baby, unmarried, 346
Winter quarters, 351
Soldier clothing, Valley Forge, 351-52
Reenlistment, 352ff
Food in short supply, 353
Women, seduction, 354
Knoxville, Brownlow, 357
Generals, 357-58
Cincinnati, 361