

Cammack, John Henry. Personal Recollections of Private John Henry Cammack: A Soldier of the Confederacy, 1861-1865. Huntington, West Va.: Marshall University Library Associates, 1991.

31st Virginia Infantry, 20th Virginia Cavalry, 10th Virginia Heavy Artillery, private 1860 election, 7-8
Alcohol, election, 8-9
Secession speeches, 10-11
Enlistment, 14-16
Politicians go home rather than enlist, 17
Clash with Unionists, 18-19
Poison food, 10
McClellan, western Virginia campaign, 19ff
Cowardly lawyer, 22
Self-mutilation to get out of the army, 25
Laurel Hill, 24-25
Rich men sons as soldiers, camp slaves, 24-25
Picket duty, 25-26
Friendly fire, 26-27
Laurel Hill retreat, 27-
General Garnett's death, 28-29
Dirty meat, 30-31
Picket firing, 34-35
Cheat Mountain, 35-40
Typhoid, death of cousin, 40
General Edward Johnson, 41-42
Cheat Mountain, casualties, 42-43
Hospital, 43-
Food, chicken pie, 45
Alcohol, fight, 45-46
1862 Valley campaign, 47ff
Cross Keys and Port Republic, 49-50
Seven Days, 51ff
Frazier's Farm, Glendale, casualties, 51-52
Stonewall Jackson, Federal prisoner, 52-53
McClellan, 53, 59
Malvern Hill, 54-55
Mule, 55-56
Stonewall Jackson tactics, 56-57
Death of brother Lucius, premonition, Cedar Mountain, 60-63
Alcohol, soldiers in jail, 67-68
Louisiana Tigers deserters, 70-71
Fording a river, 71-73
Scouting toward home, 75ff
Stolen horse and escape from Yankees, 84-85
Robbers, 87-92

Hunting for Federals, 93-96
Women, 97-99
Food, women, 100-1
Droop Mountain, 101-2
Defenses of Richmond, earthworks, 102-3
Joins artillery, 103ff
Kilpatrick, Dahlgren, raid, 104-5
Shoes, 105-6
Captain Barlow, 103-7
Accidental shooting, 108
John Minor Botts, 109-110
Francis Stearns, arrested, 110-11, 120-21
Desertions, 112-13
Guard duty at Libby Prison, 113-116
Jefferson Davis, 117-18
Itch, 118
Food, 118-19
Fraternization, 119-20
Desertion, 120
Robert E. Lee, 121-22
Mary Walker, doctor, 122
Battle of Fort Harrison, 123-28
Wounded, 128-31
Prisoners, 130
Man who had shot his toes and could stand gunfire brought close to artillery fire, cruelty, 131-32
Picket firing killed black soldier, 132-33
Food supply around Richmond and Petersburg, 133
Federal soldiers and loyal slaves, 134-35
Christmas, 137
Defending Staunton, Virginia, opponents of Confederacy, Dunkards, Quakers, 142-44
1864 Valley campaign, Sheridan, 145-46