

Bear, Henry C. The Civil War Letters of Henry C. Bear: A Soldier of the 116th Illinois Infantry. Edited by Wayne C. Temple. Harrogate, Tenn.: Lincoln Memorial University Press, 1961.

116th Illinois Infantry
Memphis, buildings burned, 5
Food in the South, 6
Woman soldier, 6
Smallpox, 7
Morphine, 7
Alcohol, 7
Duty, tired of war, 8
Southern women, 9
Sleeping, 9
Subjugation rather than compromise, 9
Copperheads, 9
Vicksburg, 11ff
Tents, 12
Sends overcoats home, 12
Artillery accident, 12-13
Itching, smallpox, 13
Photograph, 13-14
Haircut, 17
Diarrhea, 17
Wood loading on boats, 17
Gunboats, 18
Lincoln message, slavery, 18
Christmas, 18-19
Chickasaw Bluffs, 22ff
Soldier death, 23
Food shortage, 25-26
Arkansas Post, 28-31
Vicksburg canal, 32-
Sleeping, unhealthy place, 35
Food prices, 36
Deserters, conscription, 37
Vicksburg, 40
Picket duty, 40
Raymond and Jackson, 40-41
Wounded, 41
Soldier death, diarrhea, 41-42
Surrender of Vicksburg, 42
Iowa hospital, 44-
Religion, universalism, 45
Celebration of Lee's surrender, 46-47
Lincoln assassination, 47

