
Muster roll, Georgia troopers, 50-51
Winter quarters, a place where they can be together, 63
Misses him, letters, 64
Taxes, 65
Virginia Peninsula, 66-67
Christmas, 72-74
Magruder, winter quarters, 75
Men seeking war to continue for their own gain, 75
Worries about husband and his health, differences in feel between men and women, 76
Home finances, 76-77
Gratitude, 77
Trouble with officers, Col. Cobb, 81-82, 107, 303-5
Church fire, 83
Marriage, religion, 85
Generals, Henry Wayne, 86
Short war, 87
Lincoln, no aid from foreign countries, 89
Frustrated with idleness, drilling, 100
Shooting accident, 100-101
Writing conditions, 102
Officers, 103
Soldier life, 103
Letter to little daughter, 103-4
Rumors about Fair Oaks, Seven Pines, 105-6
Wants war over and to live quietly at home, 119-20
Contrast between camp and home, 120
Problems with officers, 121
Food prices, 121
Officers’ wives in camp, 122, 128
McClellan and Jackson, 123
Officers, 125
Fears McClellan’s slow approach to Richmond and Confederate passivity, 126
Letters, 127
Women, men and human suffering, 127-28
Stuart and review of cavalry troops, 128
Stonewall Jackson, 129
Seven Days, 129-30
Casualties, wounded suffering in the heat, 131
Picket duty, 133-35
Horses, shoes, 135
Need for foreign recognition and peace, 136
Long war, no foreign recognition, 138
Officers, 139-40
Instructions to wife on a lot of land, 149-50
Antietam campaign, 151-53
Stragglers, 152
Maryland, 153
Casualties, 153
Accusations of destruction of property, Stonewall Jackson, 154-55
Lee and Stuart, 155
Letter to his little daughter, 156-57
Nature and length of war, 158
Worries about poor during the winter, Confederate money, 166
Letters, 167
Lee, need to follow up recent victories, 167
Lincoln, 167
Skirmishes, 169, 172
Officers, 171
Home sickness, 179
Stuart’s officers vs. Hampton’s officers, 180
Critics of Stuart, cronyism, 180-81
Homesick, prefer furlough to commission, 181-82
Fredericksburg, death of Thomas R. R. Cobb, 182-83
Book and shoes, 183
Christmas, 183-85
Providence and war, 184
News of the children, 195
Wife offers career advice for husband in army, 196-97
Foreign intervention, Lincoln and providence, 197
Mason and Slide, 198
Demoralized, no more fighting, doubts about foreign intervention or war ending soon, 199
Furlough, 200
Hampton, officers, 201
Chancellorsville, 203-6
Horse, 204-5, 207
Pemberton and Vicksburg, Jefferson Davis, 205
He may come home and hire a substitute, 209
Lincoln the dictator, 209
Condition of the Stuart Cavalry, review of troops, 212-13
Dance, 213
Food prices, 214
Read Bishop Elliott’s sermon, 224
Horses, 224
Army does not suit him and he wants to be home, 224
Cavalry review, 225
Land deals at home, 225
Brandy Station and after, 226-33
Hampton and Stuart, 229
Women and food for Cobb’s Legion, 229-30
Georgia and Jefferson Davis, 231
Camp slave, 232
Gettysburg, wounded, 246-57
Casualties, 248-49
Western general incapable, need for another Lee, 253
Morale at home, Jefferson Davis and Joseph Brown, 258
Lee’s mistake at Gettysburg, 258
Soldiers are wasteful and destructive, 260
Suffering on both sides and morale, 261
Bone fragment removed from wound, wished he had been sent home, 262
Denies Army of Northern Virginia is demoralized, 262
Farm details at home, 262
Need for vegetables in his diet, 263
Diarrhea, 264
Letters, 265
Skirmishing, 268
Wounded, taken prisoner, death, condolence letters, 280-300
Horse infirmary, 306-7