

Foote, Corydon Edward. With Sherman to the Sea: A Drummer's Story of the Civil War.
 Edited by Olive Deane Hormel. New York: John Day, 1960.

10th Michigan Infantry
Enlistment, 18-27
Sending the troops off, food, 30-31
Shiloh, 32, 36-37
Drummers, 33 et passim
Corinth, 40ff
Sanitary Commission, alcohol, whiskey, 42
Hospital, 48-
Doctor's wife, 51
Food, 52
Foraging wood, 63
Camp discipline, 66
Deserter execution, 71-73
Stones River, 75-81
Giving water to a wounded Confederate, 83
Picket duty, 87
Selling pies, 93
Train accident, 95-96
Tullahoma campaign, 102ff
Bacon, maggots, food, 103
Runaway slaves, 107-8
Sutler, theft, guardhouse, 109-16
Burning dead mules, 124-25
Food, 129
Confederate women, 130
Campaigning in East Tennessee, 133 et passim
Rosecrans, 134
Fraternization, 139-40
Chattanooga, Missionary Ridge, 142-50
Knoxville, Burnside, 153ff
Foraging, 155-56
Winter quarters, 159-60
Christmas, 160
Dance in camp, 160-61
Reenlistment, furloughs, 162-63, 165ff
Yankee graves, 174
Atlanta campaign, 175ff
Marching, 176-77
Sherman, 177-78
Artillery fire, 179-80
Maggots, 180-81
Mother Bickerdyke, 181-82
Sherman, 182

Kennesaw Mountain, 183-89
Fall of Atlanta, 195
Wounded men, 197
Sutlers, 197-98
Parrot, 198
Chasing Hood, 199ff
Election of 1864, 205
March to the sea, 208ff
Foraging, 211-13
Women, 213-14
Slaves flocking to army, 215-18
Lincoln assassination, 241-42