McClenthen, Charles S. Narrative of the Fall & Winter Campaign, by a Private Soldier. Syracuse, N.Y.: Masters & Lee, 1863.

Co. G, 26th New York Infantry
Regiment after Antietam, 5
Pennsylvania woman with carpetbags full of food for son in 6th Pennsylvania Reserves, 7-8
Food, rations, shortages, 8-9
Unionist woman, destruction of property by soldiers, 9-10
Confederate prisoners, 12
McDowell, 12-13
Marching, 16
Confederate woman, 18
Church, graffiti
Convalescent camp, straggling, 20-22
Black Horse Cavalry, 22-23
Removal of McClellan, 23
Marching, 24
Unionist property, guard, protection, 25-26
Unionist, alcohol, temperance, 26-27
Marching, rain, 27-28
Officers, privates’ rations, court martial, 29-30
Rumors, 31-32
Fredericksburg, 33-47
Pontoons, 33
Music, band, 33-34
Dead soldiers, burials, 44-45
Fraternization, 45-46
Shirker, gets off stretcher and walked off, 46
Winter quarters, 47-48
Mud march, 48-52
Demoralization, 49-50