

McKee, Jennie Starks. Throb of Drums in Tennessee, 1862-1865. Philadelphia: Dorrance, 1973.

26th Battery Light Artillery Indiana
Letters of Leo Starks
Soldier nearly drowned, 71-73
Taken prisoner and paroled in camp near Annapolis, 73ff
Camp Douglas, 74
Food, 74
Alcohol, 75
Smallpox, 79
Letters, 81
Kentucky, 82ff
Wife, wedding anniversary, 85
Washing, 91
Rumor of capture of Richmond, 91
Fears letters being captured, 91-92
Boots, 93
Soldier life, misses wife, 94
Rain, 95
Worries about her working at home, 98
Food prices, 101
Foraging potatoes, 103
Cleaning quarters, 104
John Hunt Morgan, Indiana, 104, 108-9
Inspection of troops, 106-7
Marching, 111
Food, foraging, 112-13
Confederate woman, house robbed, 119
Robbed East Tennessee Unionists, just as bad as Confederates, 120
Intelligence, women, tobacco, 121-22
Winter quarters, 122-23
Food prices, soldier pay, 123
Horses, 124
Clothes, boots, 129
Food prices, 130
Alcohol, whiskey, 133-34
Nashville, women, 135-38
Hospital patients, 139-40
Cold, sore throat, doctor, pills, hospital, 141-42
Knoxville, 143ff
Black troops, Fort Pillow, 144
Loving wife, 148
Confederate women, 151-52
Food prices, 153
False rumors about the battery, 161

Love for his wife, 164
Chasing Joseph Wheeler's cavalry, 172ff
Tomatoes, food, 173
Longs for furlough, love for wife, 179
Cleaning camp, bugs, lice, 182
Election of 1864, Morton, Lincoln, McClellan, 182-83
Conscription, substitutes, 184
German soldiers, 188
Refugees, 190
Box, 196
Food, 203-4
Letters, 213
Mules and cattle, beef, 214
Women in Knoxville, 216-17
Conscription, 220
Cleaning swords, 221
Officers, soldier pay, 223
Illness of son, 224-25
Box, 252
Wife's loneliness, 255
Letters, 256-57
Peace, 257
John Hunt Morgan, 260
Heard of death of local soldier, 262
Vallandigham, 1863 Ohio election, 263
Union soldiers died in prison, 267
Unusual childbirth, 281
Governor Morton, rumor of husband's discharge, 282
Vaccination, 287
Christmas, 303
Son cutting up in church, 305
Recovery of son from illness, 312-13