

Murray, R. L., ed. Letters from Gettysburg: New Yorkers' Correspondences from the Battlefield. Wolcott, N.Y.: Benedum Books, 2005.

Gettysburg, 34ff
July 1, 34ff
Seminary Ridge, 34-35
76th New York, 33-37
94th New York, 37-40
Taken prisoner, 40
97th New York, 40-43
104th New York, casualties, 43-45
1st New York Light Artillery, Battery L, 45-56
July 2, 47-48
July 3, 48-50
63rd New York, 57-60
Hooker and Burnside, 58
108th New York, 60-66
111th New York, 67-69
Battle impossible to describe, 68
Badly wounded man, 69
125th New York, 70-74
Wounded men, 72
126th New York, 75-79
July 2, 76-78
1st New York Light Artillery, Battery B, 79-80
1st New York Sharpshooters, 81-93
Berdan's Sharpshooters, 82
86th New York Infantry, 83-85
124th New York Infantry, 85-
Officer casualties, 86-87
Staff officer, General Joseph Carr, 87-
Casualties, 88
Tide turned against the Confederates, 88
Dead officers, burial, 90-91
44th New York Infantry, 92-94
140th New York Infantry, 94-101
146th New York, 101-106
Defends role of Fifth Corps in the battle, 102-3
Defense of Meade, 104
Chaplain, 105-6
1st New York Independent Artillery, 107-9
122nd New York Infantry, 109-110
119th New York Infantry, 111-113
134th New York Infantry, 114-17
Death and burial, 115
136th New York Infantry, 117-120

157th New York Infantry, 120
July 1, 121-22
July 2, 122
60th New York Infantry, 124-28
137th New York Infantry, 128-
July 2, 129
Casualties, 130-31
149th New York Infantry, 132-35
150th New York Infantry, 135-37
1st New York Light Artillery, Battery A, 138-140
5th New York Cavalry, 141-46
8th New York Cavalry, 146-50
Father religious admonitions to son, 151
Death of son in battle, 152