

[Pike, James]. The Scout and Ranger: Being the Personal Adventures of Corporal Pike of the Fourth Ohio Cavalry. Cincinnati: J. R. Hawley, 1865.

Knights of the Golden Circle, 137-39
Secession, 139-42
Surrender to Texas posts to state troops, 145
Secessionist tactics, misrepresentation, 145
Sam Houston, 146-47
Arrests and despotism, 148-49
Persecution of Unionists, 155
Escape from the South, 155-72
Orsmy Mitchell, 174
Pontoon, 175-76
Protection of civilian property, 176-77
Prisoners, 184ff
John Hunt Morgan, 189-208
Scouting, 189ff
Kentucky minister, sermon, 212-13
Unionist, 216ff
Slave, guide, 225-26
Dispatch of Buell, 227-32
Bridgeport, 235ff
Prisoner of the Confederates, 241-48
Fredericksburg wounded, Washington hospitals, 249-50
Paroled prison, visits home, 253ff
Stanley raid at Middleton, 265-72
Morgan raid in Ohio, 273-75
Unionist woman, 288-92
Unionist sermon, 293
Lookout Mountain, 296ff
Dig Gap and Chickamauga, 300-16
Wheeler's cavalry defeated, 317-28
Foraging, citizen suffering, 319
Confiscating mules, 329
Confederate conscription, 331-32
Bridge burning, Augusta, 336-45
Union prisoners, Augusta, 347-48
Chased by dogs and taken prisoner, 349ff
Drunken guards, threats of lynching, 354-58
Prisoner in Augusta, food, 361ff
Whipping post, 362-63
Prison in Charleston, 363-69
Food, Sisters of Mercy, 368
Prisoners in Columbia, deserters, 370
Escaped prisoner, 371ff
Confederate woman, 379-81

North Carolina campaign, 383ff
Slaves and boats, 384-87
Wilmington, 387