

Putnam, George Haven. Memories of My Youth, 1844-1865. New York: G. P. Putnam's Sons, 1914.

176th New York Infantry
Trent affair, Palmerston, 202-13
Ship, Alabama, 214-15
John Bigelow, 215
John Slidell, 216-17
Erlangers, Beauregard, 221-225
Disappearance of specie, hard money during the war, 225
New York City, Fernando Wood, 228-29
Enlistment, 231-32
Women visitors to camp, 236-37
Quartermaster, 238-39
Banks, Louisiana, 241-
New Orleans fire department, 251
Chaplain, Calvinist, morals, 255
Port Hudson, 259-60
Brashear City, 260-70
Red River campaign, Richard Taylor, Banks, 299ff
Kerr family, women, 275-79
Reenlistment, 280-81
Swamp trip, 281ff
Horse, 284-85
New York draft riots, 296-87
Alcohol, 289-92
Card playing, Poker, 289
Duties of adjutant, 293-94
Earthworks at Alexandria, Louisiana, 303-4
Baseball, 305-6
Letters, 315-16
Protection of Confederate property, 316-17
Marching, 327-30
General Canby, 330
Hospital, 334ff
Jubal Early 1864 campaign toward Washington, 338-43
John Slidell, 341-42
Shenandoah Valley campaign, 344-48
Cedar Creek, 349
Taken prisoner, 374-86
Prison life in Richmond, Libby, 386ff
Chess and learning German in prison, 389-90
Food, 391-94
Presidential election in prison, 394-96
Prisoner in Danville, 396ff
Escape attempt, 399-408

Water, 403
Prison guards, 408-10
Toothbrushes, 410-11
Jefferson Davis, 415
Castle Thunder, 415-16
Christian Commission, North Carolina, 428-29
Lincoln assassination, 430-31
Savannah, 436-37