
16th Maine Infantry
Militia Muster, 1-4
Enlistment, 5-6
Departure and railroad journey, 10ff
Shooting accident, 12
Washington, 13-14
McDowell, 15-16
Bull Run campaign, 18-26
McDowell, 19ff
Hospital, 26-28
Death by disease, 26-27
Oliver Otis Howard, 8ff
Chaplains, 32
Raising a company, 35
Appointed adjutant, 36
Election of captain, Governor Washburn, 36-37
Morale after Second Bull Run, 42-43
McClellan, 43
Antietam campaign, 44-48
Maryland women, 45-46
Chaplains and fence, 50
McClellan and Lincoln, 50-51
Foraging, 51-52
McClellan, 53
Sheep, General Bayard, 54
Burnside, Fredericksburg, 57ff
Thanksgiving, food, 58
Soldier deaths and burials, 58-59
Coolness under fire, 65
Field hospital, 68
Cowardice, 71
Mud March, 77-78
Army of the Potomac morale, 80-81
Hooker review of troops, 81
Chancellorsville campaign, 83-93
Fasting, humiliation, and prayer, 84
Chaplains, 85
Slave blessing Union soldiers, 95-96
Gettysburg, 98-107
Helping the wounded, 107-8
Conscription, arresting deserters, 112-116
Mine Run, 117-119
Winter quarters, 120
Chaplain, memorial service, chapel, 124-25
Chaplain and Confederate women, 127-28
Overland campaign, 130ff
Spotsylvania Courthouse, 135-41
Crossing the James River, 150-51
Petersburg, 152ff
Taken prisoner, 155-58
Libby Prison, 159ff
Money and food, 160-61
Food from Confederate soldier, 163-64
Salisbury, 164-68
Danville, 168
Clothes, 174
Election of 1864, 175
Grand Review, 181-82
Bravery and courage, 185
Danger and death, 186
Defeat and loyalty, 186
Sickness and adversity, 186-88
Growlers, 188—89
Grumblers, 189
Chaplains, 189-90
Newspaper correspondents, 190
Springfield mustkets, 190-91
Drill, 191
Dust, 191
Portrait of a private, 192-96
Foods, 196-98
Regimental character, 199
Patriotism and practicality, 199-200
Fortunes of war, 200-201
Prison diary, 249ff
Religion, Calvinism, 262
Food hunger, 265 et passim