
Buchanan’s cabinet and secession, 176-77
Charles Stone and organized forces for defense of Washington, 178
David Twiggs, 179
Drilling 179-80
Lincoln, 180-81
Lincoln inauguration, Winfield Scott, 182
Lincoln as the just inaugurated president, 183
Fort Pickens, 189ff
Confederate drydock, 196-97
First Bull, 203
McDowell, 203-4
Lack of organization for supply or artillery, 205
Blenker, 205-7
Spectators at Bull Run, 209
Retreat of Tidball’s battery, 211-12
William H. Russell, 213
Army of the Potomac in September 1861, 216
Organizing artillery, 218-220
Troops review, socializing, 220
Yorktown siege, 223
Artillery reserve, 225-26
Earthworks along the Chickahominy, 232
Defends McClellan and change of base to James River, 233
Gaines’s Mill, 234-38
Ambulance and wounded officers, 239
Savage Station, 240
Defends McClellan on Malvern hill and the ship, 242
Malvern Hill, 242-246
Hospital, 236
Casualties on the field, 237-38
Rush’s Lancers, 248-49
Soldiers burial, Taps, 250-51
Tidball and war, slavery, 253
Complaints about the navy and gunboats, 253
Lincoln at Harrison’s Landing, 254
Embalming business, 255
Slaves and entrenchments, 256
Funerals for dead slaves, 256
Difference in fighting qualities between the two sides, objects of the war, 256-57
Henry J. Hunt appointment as artillery chief, 260-61
Antietam, 263ff
Averell’s brigade, cavalry scout, 271-72
Hospitals and wounded, 272
Complaints about lack of promotion, wants furlough, 272-79
Cavalry actions, late October 1862, 274-75
Criticism of generals, McDowell, Porter material, 279
Burnside and promotion for Tidball, 283-87
Description of Tidball, 291-92
Chancellorsville, 293-97
Still dissatisfied with his rank, 299
Horse artillery brigades, 300
Gettysburg campaign, 301-310
Tidball promotion, 312-16
Artillery organization, 318-20
Overland campaign, Wilderness, Spotsylvania Courthouse, 324-330
North Anna River, 332-334
Cold Harbor, 335-37
Crossing the James River, 338-39
Petersburg, 340ff
Pessimistic about the war, 346
Commandant at West Point, 347ff
Troubles with a cadet, 347-351
Siege of Petersburg, 354-57
Fort Stedman, 358-65
April 2, breakthrough assault on Petersburg, 365-68
Lee surrender, 368