

Wafer, Francis M. Surgeon in the Army of the Potomac. Edited by Cheryl A. Wells. Montreal: McGill-Queen's University Press, 2008.

108th New York Infantry
Winter quarters, 4-5
Enlistment, 6-8
Washington, 10ff
Typhoid and diarrhea, 13
Chancellorsville, 17-29
Surgeon and wounded, 24
Casualties, mortality, 29
Gettysburg, 32-51
Hospital patients, 32
Bull Run battlefield, 38-39
Wounded men, 52
Harpers Ferry, 55-56
Illness, hospital, 61-64
Bristoe Station, 70ff
Frightened non-combatants, 71-80
Mine Run, 82-87
Winter quarters, 87-90
Morton's Ferry, 93-97
Wounded men, 96-97
St. Patrick's Day, 99-101
St. Patrick's Day, Father Corby, 102
Soldier pay. 102
Overland campaign, 104ff
Wilderness, 107-114
Po River, 114ff
Women, temperament, Catholic, 106
Surgeons in battle, 109
Wounded men, 116
Hospital, chloroform, 116-17
Catholic soldier, 117
Spotsylvania Courthouse, 117-19
Cold Harbor, casualties, 119-20
Father, alcohol, 120
Petersburg, 124ff
Black soldiers, 126
Trenches, 127-28
Music, 128
Artillery fire, 131, 133
Doubtful that brother can visit camp, 134-35
Surgeon commission, 150-51
Fredericksburg, 152-53
Winter quarters, 152-53

Irish Brigade, St. Patrick's Day, Corby, 154
Bible, 154