

White, Henry S. Prison Life among the Rebels: Recollections of a Union Chaplain. Edited by Edward D. Jervey. Kent, Oh.: Kent State University Press, 1990.

Chaplain, Rhode Island Heavy Artillery,
Election of 1864 Copperheads, 2
Black Confederate soldiers, 2
Confederate divisions, Jefferson Davis, 3
Chaplain duties, 6
Taken prison, 6-7
Fugitive slave, cooks, 11
Copperhead prisoner, bounty, 16
Prison food, 17
Guards, theft, 22
Deserters, 23
Religious service, 24
Universalist ministers, slavery, 25-26
Confederate deserters, execution, Kinston, 26
Confederate chaplain, slavery, 28-30
Confederate soldiers and prisoners, 30-31
Women and snuff, 32
Slavery and abolition, 33-34
Wilmington, 34-35
Andersonville, 37ff
Wirz, 37
Guards, 38
Water, 39
Soldier shot at dead line, 39-40
Food, 40
Deaths, 41
Hospitals, 41-42
Theft, hardening of prisoners, 42
Confederates steal boxes sent to prisoners, 43-44
Music, women looking down into prison, 45-46
Letters, 46
Canteens, 49-50
Macon prison, 50ff
Thoughts of home and religion, 52-53
Food, 56-57
Union officers, 58
Washing, 58-59
Lice, water, sinks, 59
Boxes, theft, 60
Chaplain, religious service, 62-63
Food, 63-64
Prayer for the President, 63-65
Funeral sermon, cursing, Confederacy, 66-67

Prayer meetings, 67
Escape attempts, 67-68
July 4, 69
Burial of officers, 71
Escape attempts, 71-72
Women disdain for prisoners, 73
Savannah, 73-75
Southern Methodists, 76
Slave, 76-77
Sink, 77
Religious service, 77-78
Charleston, 78-80