
21st Texas Cavalry
Denies the Confederacy was a rebellion, 132-33
Enlistment, 133-34
Conscription, 134
Camp life, 135-
Detailed to recruit to see sick child, 136
Furloughs, 137
Wife did not understand his sense of duty, 137-38
Measles, 138
Returns home, wife does not at first recognize him, 140
Shreveport, 141
Cotton Plant, Arkansas, 141ff
Religion and Masons, 143-45
Parsons’ Texas Cavalry, 145ff
Scouting, 146ff
Guerrillas, arrested by Union cavalry, spy, 147-48
Wounded, burials, 148-49
Battle of Shell Creek, 150-53
Prisoners, 151-53
Traveling in Arkansas, 154ff
Confederate money, 158
Food, 162
Becomes a sergeant, 162
Recruiting, 165
Deserter execution, 165-66
General Marmaduke, invasion of Missouri, 166-67ff
Fort Patterson, 168-73
Wounded prisoner, 172
March to Cape Girardeau, 173-77
Retreat from Jackson, Missouri, 177-79
Final period in Missouri, skirmishing with Federals, 179-84
Arkansas, St. Francis River, skirmishing, 184-86
Battles at Taylor’s Creek, 186-
Casualties, 186-88
Ironclad gunboat, 189-80
Pine Bluff and back in Arkansas, 194-197
Morale, 196
In Texas, 198-99
Campaigning in Louisiana, 200ff
Mansfield, Pleasant Hill, 202
Natchitoches, 202-206
Battle near Clouterville, 206-214
Battle of Monette’s Ferry, 214
Nathaniel P. Banks, 215-17
Alexandria, Louisiana, 217-18
Disease, illness, 218-222
People demoralized back in Texas, 223-25
Last camp on the Little Brazos, 225-28