

Spence, John C. A Diary of the Civil War. Murfreesboro, Tenn.: Rutherford County Historical Society, 1993.

Murfreesboro, Tennessee

Election of 1860, 2
Secession election in Tennessee, 5
Fort Sumter, 6
Army wagon, 7
Question of war, 7
Confederate confidence, 8
Kentucky, 8-9
Tennessee secession vote, 9
Electioneering, soldiers in camp, 9
First Manassas, Bull Run, 11-12
Women hospital society, 12
Hospital, 12
Fence rails, 12-13
Gunboats, 14
Mill Springs, Fishing Creek, Zollicoffer, Crittenden, 14-15
Fort Henry, 15
Fort Donelson, 15-17
Abandonment of Nashville, 17
John Hunt Morgan, 18, 23, 41
Murfreesboro, Federals arrive, Ormsby Mitchel, 19-23
Albert Sidney, Johnston, 20
General Mitchel and cotton confiscation, 21
Federals stealing horses, 21
Slaves fleeing to Federals, 21
Federals searching houses in Murfreesboro, 22
Oath, 23
Battle of Shiloh, Albert Sidney, Johnston, 23-25
New Orleans, Benjamin F. Butler, 26
Corinth, Beauregard, 26-29
Home guards, 29-30
Confederate flag, 30
Support for war, 31
Oath, passes, slaves, 32
Federals and slaves, 32
Oath, provost marshal, Murfreesboro officials, 33-34
Colonel Parkhurst expedition of Chattanooga, Confederate women, 34-35
Nathan Bedford Forrest, 36
Foraging, 36-37
Provost marshal, churches, false charges against citizens, searching houses, 37-39
Methodist church, Nashville, conflict over minister, 39
Foraging, horses, corn, 40-41

Rumors, Morgan, 41-42
Mayor, alderman, oath, 42
Forrest and Federal cavalry, 43-48
General Crittenden, 45-48
Provost marshal, 48-49
Hospitals, women, 49-50
Bragg Kentucky campaign, 50-54
Federal soldiers, 54
Confederate soldiers, 55
Stones River, Murfreesboro, 56-70
Soldiers, surgery, 64
Rosecrans comes into Murfreesboro, 64-65
Local families and wounded Confederates, 70
Fence rails, 70
Hospitals, 71
Federals and slaves, 71-72, 77
Fortifications, 73
Refugees, 74-75
Federals search houses, 75
Slang words, 76-77
Federal officers, prostitutes, 78-79
Provost marshal, 80
Federals and quarters, 80
Street cleaning, 81
Federals stealing hides from a tanyard, 81
Slaves coming through the lines, 81-83
Guard house, 82-83
Churches and hospitals, 83
Fortifications entrenchments, 85-86
Cedar from Stones River battlefield made into souvenirs, 86, 143-44
Officers make money, 86
Surgeons and doctors, 87
Cooks, 87
Ministers, chaplains, 87-89
Hospitals, 89
Methodist chaplains, 90
Rosecrans, Catholics, Easter, 90-91
Alcohol, 91
Methodist abolitionist, black minister, 91-92
Rosecrans, 93-94
Gettysburg, 94
Slaves and pleasure, 94-95
Vicksburg and Port Hudson, 95
Union League, 96
Confederate chaplain, 96-98
Chickamauga, 98-99

General Wheeler raid, 99-102
 Ministers, abandoned property, confiscation, chaplain, businessman, 102-5
 Business and merchants under military occupation, 105-6
 Lincoln's call for more troops, conscription, reenlistment, 107-8
 Black soldiers, 108
 Chattanooga, Bragg, 108-9
 Black school, 110-113
 Recruiting black soldiers, 113-114
 Comparing northern and southern soldiers, 115
 Smallpox, 115-16
 Stones River monument, 116
 Black religious meeting, 116-17
 John Hunt Morgan, 117-18
 Quality of soldiers, reenlistment, morale, 118-19
 Fighting for emancipation, Union, 119-20
 United States flag, 120
 Christmas, 121
 Length of war, 121
 Confiscation and stealing, 121-22
 Subjugation, 122
 Wood price, 123
 Prices, food, inflation, 123
 Lincoln, 124
 Deserters and condition of Confederate army, 124
 War rumors, 124-25
 Election of 1864, 125-26
 Black character, slaves, soldiers, 126
 Yankees, cotton, former slaves, 126-27
 False accusation against women as spies, 127
 Yankee impudence, watch sale, 127-28
 Searching house for a Confederate uniform, really to see if there is anything worth stealing, 128
 Black soldiers, 129
 Small pox, 129
 United States flag, Union, abolition, 129-30
 Washington's birthday, 130
 Deserters and false accounts of conditions in Confederate army, 130
 Andrew Johnson, local elections, 130-31
 Confederate who did not much fight and has gone over to the Federals, 131
 Yankees and cotton, 132
 Federal regiments with too many officers, 132-33
 Nathan Bedford Forrest, 133
 Black soldiers, 133-34
 Lincoln and Grant, 134
 Search for Confederate flag that did not exist, 134-35
 Northern teacher, 135-36
 War and slavery, race, 137

Black soldiers, 137
Contraband camps, 137-38
Local business, money, 138
Sale of abandoned property, Yankees, 138-40
Nathan Bedford Forrest, Fort Pillow, 140-41
Northern planters in Mississippi, 142
July 4, blacks, dinner, speech, 142-43
Black religious revival, women, 144
Atrocity of Union cavalry, 144-45
Joseph Wheeler raid, local forces, 145-48
Nathan Bedford Forrest raid, 148
Murder of a Unionist, 148-51
Nathan Bedford Forrest, Rousseau, Milroy, 152-54
Blacks panic during raid, 154
Confederate prisoners, 155
Nashville convention, 155-56
Tennessee election, 1865, 157
Black celebration, 157-58
Robert E. Lee surrender, 158-59
Federal soldiers mustered out, 159
Confederate soldiers coming home, 160
United States flag raised, 160-61
Reburial of Confederates, 161-62