

Beers, Fannie A. Memories. A Record of Personal Experience and Adventure during Four Years of War. Philadelphia: J. B. Lippincott, 1888.

Patriotism of husband wife, 9
Unionist family, 9-10
Enthusiastically waved Confederate flag, became a woman, 10-13
Snuck off to Baltimore, 13-14
Manassas, 14-15
Try to take a Union steamboat, her brother, a Federal soldier, would help, passed through Confederate lines and reunited with husband, 16-20
General Magruder, 23
Great celebration of Manassas victory in Richmond, many officers in Richmond 24-27
Evening drills, 37
Purity of Confederate patriotism, 27-28
Great importance of the new flag, stars and bars, 28-31
Patrick Henry statue, 31
Maury, 32
Women in society, 33
Mrs. Hopkins and hospital work, 34
Mrs. Gawthmey generous in sharing meals with soldiers, 35-36
Jefferson and Varina Davis, Confederate White House, 36-38
Religious devotion and prayer for Confederate president, 38
Many private hospitals, women, first patient, 38-40
Information on hospitals, 42ff
Sad cases, 43-43
Joseph Johnston's army on the Peninsula, 47-49
Mobile, 52ff
Difficult lives of women in country houses during the war, rumor, 53-54
Shortages, sewing for the soldiers, 54
Church with items to be sent off to soldiers, 55-56
Condition of wounded men after Shiloh, 58
Gainesville, Alabama, nursing sick and wounded soldiers, 59-
Patient, alcohol, 63
Regulations, meals, food, bedding, clothing, 65
Ringgold, Georgia hospitals, women, 70
Musician who kept track of hospital stores, 75-
Cases, soldiers, 77-80
Winter, receiving two hundred more sick soldiers, 80-
Dead soldiers in church, 83
Gangrene, 90
Officers' ward, 90
Soldiers as gentleman, courtesy toward women, 90-93
Surgeon and interest in Beers' "nursery" for patients, 94-95
Commissary stores, food, running out, 95
False tales of surgeons and attendants stealing food, 96-98
Cowards and shooting off fingers, 96

Foraging trip, 96ff
Wounded from Chickamauga, 99ff
Siege of Knoxville, 107-8
Shortage and poor quality of food, 108-112
Newman, Georgia, 113
Local women helping soldiers, 113
Kitchen, distribution of supplies, 115ff
Screams of patients, 122
Young soldier who helped in the hospital, 124-25
Other hospitals, 126ff
Religious services, Episcopalians, 127
Fenner's Louisiana Battery, 128ff
Badly wounded soldiers, 134-35
Removal of Joe Johnston, soldier morale, 138
Jefferson Davis, 138
Roddy's Confederate cavalry, 139
Refugees, women and boys, 140
Surgeons, 140-41
Women and approach of Yankees, 141-42
Sudden deaths due to excitement, 142-43
Wounded wards, 143ff
Comfort from a South Carolina soldiers, 144-45
Milking cows, 145-47
Food, sound of guns, 150-51
Battlefield, water, dead soldiers, 152-56
Buckner hospital, wounded Federals, 156
Patients wounded again, 157
Wounded soldiers from Iowa and Indiana, 159
Wagon and foraging, women, 160ff
Food, 172
Hospital tents, patients, 172-74
Surgeon, 175
Convalescent soldiers, 175
Battle of Franklin, wounded men, 176-77
Generals and prolonging of the war, 177
Hood, 178-79
Last Confederate Christmas, foraging, 179-84
Selma, 188
Union soldiers, women, 189-98
Confederate women, 199ff
Some letters from women produced deserters, 199
Women who came to be with their men in hospitals, 200-22
Mother and dying son, 201-2
Virginia soldier in battle of the Wilderness, 223-226
Fenner's Louisiana Battery, 227-
Drill, 228

Magruder, 229

Box, food, 229-30

New Hope Church, 234ff

Christmas, food, 239-41

Evacuation of Mobile, battle losses, 241-42

Address to wives and children of Confederate veterans, 306-311

Confederate reunion in Dallas, 312-18

Louisiana soldiers' home, 319-23