

Chilvers, William B. Held in the Highest Esteem by All: The Civil War Letters of William B. Chilvers, 95th Illinois Infantry. Edited by Thomas A. Pressly, III and Gary D. Joiner. Abilene Texas: State House Press, 2018.

95th Illinois Infantry

Enthusiasm of Chicago people, railroad accidents, 6-7

Pickets, Confederate cavalry, 9

Marching, Oxford Mississippi, 13

Holly Springs, Christmas, 14-15

Illinois Democrats, 15

Doubts that Federals will prevail, expects Confederate independence, 16

Vicksburg expedition, 18

Cooking, food, 20

Colonel says to shoot anyone at home who supports the rebellion, 20

Colonel not very strong, 21

Opposition to abolitionists, cursing blacks, 22

Slaves coming into lines, working on earthworks, 23

Conscription, black troops, 23

Advantages of black troops, 24

Commissions and black troops, 24

Furlough, 26

Alcohol, 27

Conscription, 28

Hemorrhoids, needs medicine, 28

Holly Springs, 29

Vicksburg, 30

Vicksburg, assault, 34-36

Wounded soldiers, surgeons, 35-36

Sharpshooters, 36

Clothes washing, 37-38

Fraternization, 40

Copperheads, 41

Fall of Vicksburg, 41-45

Woman at home, 42

Heavy losses at Vicksburg on May 22, 45

Conscription, 45-46

Hates slavery, 47

Abuse of a black man, effects of slavery, 47

Better horrors of war than peace coupled with slavery, 48-49

Food, 49

Black soldiers, 55

Furloughs, recruiting, 59

Officers, alcohol, black women, venereal disease, 61

Proud of adopted country, 63

Grant, 69

Boxing match, 71

Possible war with France, northern Catholics, 72
Soldiers harassing former slaves, 73
Destruction of property, including that belonging to slaves, 75
Charles Stone, 78
Brice's Crossroads, 80-83
Lincoln, Fremont, election of 1864, 83
Gambling, 84
Reenlistment, 86
Soldier pay, food, 86
Confederates still strong and in good shape, 87
Newspaper fights vs. real war, Lincoln, Blair, Bates, Chase, 87-88
Money controls the county, 88
Disasters of Brice's Crossroads and Red River expedition, 88
Economic weakness, conscription, Fremont, 88-89
Tupelo, taking no prisoners, atrocities, 90-91
Death of General McPherson, 91-92
Memphis, Forrest raid, critical of officers, 92-93
Arkansas, 93ff
Marching, clothing, valuables, 98-99
Farming, 100-5
Election of 1864, Lincoln, Fremont, Vallandigham, 107
Does not think blacks want to go north, 107-8
Conscription, 108
Sterling Price, Missouri, 1864, Unionists, 109-11
Railroad accident, 114-15
Peace rumors, Texas and Maximilian, 117-18
Conscription, 120
Mobile campaign, 122
Siege, wounded men, 124-25
Wilson's raid, Alabama, 126
Lincoln assassination, 127
Farming in Illinois, inflation, 131-33