

Gordon, John B. Reminiscences of the Civil War. New York: Charles Scribner's Sons, 1903.

Enlistment, 3-5
Joseph E. Brown, pikes, skill with guns, 5-7
Rebel yell, flag, patriotic women, 9-12
Montgomery, 13
Jefferson Davis, Abraham Lincoln, 14-16
Strong spontaneous uprising of the people, young people, 16-19
Slavery, 19
States' rights, nature of the Union, 20-25
6th Alabama, governor Moore, 36
Journey to Corinth, East Tennessee, neighbor against neighbor, Robinson and Breckinridge in Kentucky, family division, 26-32
Slave, 32-33
Andrew Johnson, Parson Brownlow, General Grant, 33-36
Bull Run, Manassas, Johnston, 37-44
Ewell, 39ff
Young woman at the battle, 41-42
Panic of Federals, 43-44
Cedar Creek, 44-46
Seven Pines, Fair Oaks, 55-59
Christmas, 48-49
Winter, clothing, 49-51
McClellan, Peninsula, 51ff
Presentiment of death, 60-62
Warren Akin, presentiment of son's death, fall from a horse, 62-63
General Ramseur, furlough, death, 63-64
Wilderness, brother's presentiment of death, 64-65
Some soldiers had blind faith in their own invincibility, D. H. Hill, 66-68
Thoughts on going into battle, 68-69
Burial of the dead, 70-71
Stonewall Jackson, 71ff
Malvern Hill, 72-76
Character and courage, 76
Leonidas Polk, 80
McClellan, Antietam, 80
D. H. Hill, 84
Brave Union officer, 87
Wounded, his wife, 89-91
Convalescence from wound, company of Augustus Baldwin Longstreet, 92-95
Chancellorsville, Stonewall Jackson, Jeb Stuart, 95-101
War horses, 101-104
Battle of the Wilderness, 103-4
Fraternization, Christian fellowship, dance, trading, 105ff
Atlanta campaign, Johnston, Sherman, Kennesaw, 109
Courage of color bearers, 114-19

Longstreet, Knoxville, 116-17
Confident of success in 1861-62, 120-23
Emergence of military leaders, Union and Confederate George H. Thomas, McClellan, Hooker, Sherman, Grant, Albert Sidney Johnston, Beauregard, Bragg, Lee, Hardee, Hood, Sickles, Johnston and Jefferson Davis, 123-36
Gettysburg, 137-76
Reasons for Lee crossing the Potomac, 137-141
German farmer, 141-42
York, Pennsylvania, 142-43
Orders for protecting property, 144
Horses, 145-46
Wrightsville, fire, woman, 147-49
July 1, 150ff
Ewell, 157-58
Meade, 159-60
July 3, Longstreet, 160-63
Vicksburg, 177-79, 182-87
Changes in Confederate command in Trans-Mississippi, Holmes, Shelby, 179
Soldier who lost two arms and continued to serve, 180-81
Prentiss, Shiloh, 181
Lee and Meade in fall of 1863, 188ff
Stanton, 190
Bragg, Breckinridge, Stones River, 192-97
Chickamauga, Bragg, Rosecrans, 198-212
Lee and newspapers, 213
Bragg, Missionary Ridge, 213-228
Winter quarters, Clark's Mountain, 229
Religious revivals, 229
Women, patriotism, sewing, knitting, 230-31
Robert E. Lee, religion, 231-34
Battle of the Wilderness, 235-61
Results of the battle of the Wilderness, 262
Robert E. Lee, Grant, 267-70
Spotsylvania Courthouse, Hancock, Lee to the rear, heroism, both armies, 271-86
Capture of a Georgia officer, 287-88
Rain, 289
Fighting on May 18, 289-90
Grant Lee, 290-99
1864 Valley campaign, Hunter, Sheridan, 300
Burning Chambersburg, 304-5
Lee and protection of civilian property, 306-8
Early's raid on Washington, Monocacy, 309-313
Early advance on Washington and retreat, 314-17
Jubal Early, 317-19
Gordon's wife, 319-20
Winchester, 320-325

Rodes, 321-22
Breckinridge, 325
Fisher's Hill, 322-26
Cedar Creek, Sheridan, Early, 327-72
Skirmishes, Early, Sheridan, 373-74
Devastation in the Valley, 374
Family who had suffered several casualties, 375-76
Petersburg, food, 376-77
Christmas, 378-79
Robert E. Lee, starvation in the army, alternatives, peace terms, 379-394
Attack on Fort Stedman, 395-413
Wounded soldiers, religion, women, prayer, 414-17
Five Forks, death of A. P. Hill, breakthrough at Petersburg, 418-423
Scout, movement toward Appomattox, 424-28
Last efforts at breaking Federal lines, Sailor's Creek, Robert E. Lee, 429-432
Union soldiers helping a wounded Confederate, 432
Decision to surrender, 433-441
Sheridan, 441-42
Appomattox, 443-55
What Lincoln might have done, 456-57
Grant and Lee, 457-65