

Articles Uploaded as of March 2020

Wade, Norman. "‘We Are on the Blockading Again’: Letters from a Nova Scotian in the Union Navy." Civil War Times Illustrated 15 (February 1977): 28-36.

U.S.S. Young Rover

Blockading Wilmington, 29

Canadian schooner, fired upon, 29

Blockading York River, 31

Time for more decisive action, 31

Mason and Slidell, 31

Blockading Rappahannock River, 31-32

Defends the United States as a free country, 32

Monitor and Merrimac, 33-35

Death in fall, 36

Walton, Claiborne J. "‘One Continued Scene of Carnage’: A Union Surgeon’s View of War.”

Civil War Times Illustrated 15 (August 1976): 34-36.

21st Kentucky Infantry, Surgeon

Kennesaw Mountain, 34ff

Tired of bloodshed and carnage, 34

Wounded left without water between the lines, 36

Describes horrible wounds, 36

Longs to be home with his wife, 36

Wert, J. Howard. "‘Incidents of the Grant Review at Washington.’" Edited by G. Craig Caba.

Lincoln Herald 82 (Spring 1980): 337-40.

209th Pennsylvania Infantry, Lieutenant

Description of march, 337

Foreign military observers, 337

Custer, 338

Ninth Corps, 338-39

Fifth and Second Corps, 339

Whelan, Henry C. "‘A Race for Life at Brandy Station.’" Edited by Edward G. Longacre. Civil War Times Illustrated 17 (January 1979): 32-38.

6th Pennsylvania Cavalry, Major

Rush’s Lancers, 32ff

Brandy Station, casualties, 32ff

Charge at Confederates, 34ff
Irish soldier, 36

Williams, David. "An Illinois Captain in the South." Edited by Wayne C. Temple. Lincoln

Herald 66 (Summer 1964): 97-102.

115th Illinois Infantry
Getting Republicans out to vote, 1858, 97
Richmond, Kentucky, entrenchments, 97-98
Nation needs a leader for this crisis, providence, 98
Camp life, 99
Chaplains, Sabbath, 99-100
Copperheads at home worse than the Confederates, 99-100
Black troops, 100
Resolutions against Copperheads, support for war, 100-102
84th Indiana and 96th Illinois, 92nd Illinois, 115th Illinois, 9th Ohio battery 101-2

Wolfe, Frank. "From the Foot of Lookout Mountain." Civil War Times Illustrated 22 (June 1983): 38-44.

Quartermaster field staff
Lookout Mountain, 38ff
Experience of battle, 39-40
Montgomery Meigs, 40
Sherman, 41-42
Supplies, 42
Casualties, burials, 44
Wounded men, 44

Woodbury, James M. "Letters of a Minnesota Volunteer." Edited by Leon Basile. Lincoln

Herald 82 (Summer, Fall 1980): 387-92, 438-46.

9th Minnesota Infantry
Sioux uprising, 387ff
Dysentery, marching, 389
Cabin described, 389
Farm work, 389ff
Indians at New Ulm, 390
Indians sentence to hang, Lincoln reprieve, 391
Sick of army life, 392
Possible discharge, 438
Democrats and conscription, 438

Indians left and burned furs, 439
Gettysburg and Vicksburg, 440
Clash with Indians, 440
Service in Missouri, 441
Quantrill, guerrillas, 445
Woodbury's death from dysentery, 446

Article indexes updated as of October 2019

Willson, Andrew. "Captain Wilson and the Shells: How He Hated the Artillery." Edited by William F. Howard. Civil War Times Illustrated 26 (December 1987): 22-27.

17th New York Infantry
Peninsula campaign, 22ff
Yorktown, 22ff
Has not witnessed death in many different forms, getting used to war, 24
Thinks Confederate have superior numbers, 24
Hates shells as a relic barbarism, 24
Shells keep him from sleeping, 25
Entrenchments, 25
Watching progress of terrible shells, 27
Heat, 27
Seven Days, 27
Campaign disaster but army is safe, 27

Article indexes updated as of August 2019

Wilbur, R. H. "One Day with Sherman Coastward." Hours at Home 2 (December 1865): 173-

77.

Marching, Georgia, 173
Foraging, 173
Southerners call for peace, 174
Slaves, 174
Destruction of a railroad, 174-75
Slave camp servant, 175
Sherman, 176

Wilkie, Franc B. "The Battle of Wilson's Creek." Palimpsest 9 (August 1928): 291-310.

Wilson's Creek, 291ff

General Lyon, 293ff
Delays in attack, 293
Most of Lyon's officers opposed the attack, 294
Iowa troops, 295
Artillery fire, 296-97
Mortal wound of General Lyon, 304
Casualties, 307
Sigel, 307-8
Incidents of men killed or wounded, 308-9
Praises Iowans in the battle, 309
Hospital, 310

Williams, Andrew Franklin. "A. F. Williams Diary, 1862." Lower Cape Fear Historical Society

Bulletin 17 (April 1974): 1-6.

1st North Carolina Cavalry
Marching, mud, 1
Horses killed, injured by a horse, 1-2
Casualties, 2
Fort Delaware, food, 3
Escape, 3
Smallpox, 4
Boxes of clothing, 4
Oath, 4
Exchanged, Richmond, 5

Wilson, James H. "A Staff Officer's Journal of the Vicksburg Campaign, April 30 to July 4, 1863." Journal of the Military Service Institution of the United States 43 (1908): 93-109, 262-75.

Bruinsburg, high water, 93
Crossing the Mississippi, 95
Confederate newspapers, 96, 97
Unionist intelligence, 96
Edwards' Depot, supplies, 97
Port Gibson, 99
Baldwin's Ferry, 101
Dispatches, Clinton, 103-4
Prisoner report, 104
Reports on Confederate numbers, 107
Champion Hill, 106-109
Intelligence information from a black man, 261

Grant attacks Vicksburg, 263ff
Siege of Vicksburg, 265ff
Intelligence from a Confederate conscript, 266
Women and children killed by mortar shells, 268
Intelligence information on Vicksburg, 268-69
Intelligence on Confederate food situation, 271
Conscription, secret societies in Arkansas, 273
Surrender of Vicksburg, 274-75

Wright, D. Thew. "Romance of the Great Locomotive Chase." Blue and Gray 2 (1893): 372-75.

2nd Ohio Infantry, Captain James Warnock, 372
Private from East Tennessee, 372
General Ormsby Mitchel, 372
Great railroad chase organized, 372
Marietta, capture train and head to Chattanooga, 373
Andrews and Fuller in race, 374
Men captured and hung as spies. 375

Article indexes updated as of July 2019

"What I Saw at the Battle of Chickahominy." Southern Magazine 10 (January 1872): 1-15.

Member of Stonewall Jackson's staff, 1ff
Stonewall Jackson, 1-5
Seven Days, 2ff
Robert Louis Dabney, 3ff
Ewell, 4
Gaines's Mill, Jackson, D. H. Hill, 5-15

Wilcox, Cadmus Marcellus. "Battle of Jones Farm, September 20, 1864." Transaction of the Southern Historical Society 2 (1875): 67-71.

Petersburg, 67-71
Jones Farm, 67-71
A. P. Hill, Heth, 68
Casualties, 70

Article indexes updated as of June 2019

Waddill, J. M. "A Brave Man's Sensations in Battle." Blue and Gray 3 (1894): 39-41.

Petersburg, sensations in battle, 40-41

Walker, Joel B. "Major-General Alexander Shaler." Northern Monthly 1 (May 1867): 13-23.

Background, 13-15
Seven Days, 16-17
Chancellorsville, 17-18
Taken prisoner, Wilderness, 19
Food prices, 20
Locked up with a slave, 20
Prices, 21
Recreation, 21

Walker, Willis H. "In Service for the Old South." Aerend 2 (1931): 109-22.

Corinth, 109ff
Anticipates a battle, 110
Cooking, camp slave, 110
Nurses, women in camp, 111
Tupelo, 112
Fears Yankee invasion of homes, 112
Low morale, 112-13
Longs for home, 114
Journey to Chattanooga, cheered by women, 116
Railroad trip, boxcars with no seats, 116
Railroad tunnel, 117
Feeble health, 118
Letters, burned, 120
Shoes, 120
Mess, food, 121
Death of husband, 121

Watie, Stand. "Some Letters of General Stand Watie." Edited by Edward E. Dale. Chronicles of Oklahoma 1 (1921-23): 30-59.

Abolitionist threat to the Cherokee, arms, James H. Lane, Jefferson Davis, 34-36
John Ross, convention, Albert Pike, 37-38
E. C. Boudinot, confident about course of war, Confederate independence, 39-40
Sarah Watie conditions at home, 40-41
Moves against Ross faction, 42
Confederate Congress and money for Indians, command arrangements with Indians, 43-45
Fort Smith, 46
Death of Missouri guerrilla, 47

Destruction and deaths, 49
Cotton cards, 50
Condition of Indians, 51
Postwar, 54ff

Watie, Stand. "Additional Letters of General Stand Watie." Edited by Edward E. Dale.

Chronicles of Oklahoma 1 (1921-23): 131-49.

Boudinot, seeking a position, John Ross, 131-33
Rations for Indians, 134
General Steele, Fort Smith, 135
Transportation of supplies, 137
Supplies and reports, 139
Council of Indians, war, General Pike, 141-42
Postwar, 144ff

Wherry, William M. "The Battle of Prairie Grove, Arkansas." Journal of the Military Service

Institution of the United States 32 (1903), 177-89.

13th United States Infantry
Schofield, Army of the Frontier, 177ff
Marching, 179-80
Shelby report, 181-83, 186-87
Battle of Prairie Grove, 183ff
General Blunt, General Herron, 185 et passim
Hindman report, 185-85
Blunt and Hindman, 188

Wilson, James Grant. "Lieutenant-General Grant." Hours at Home 3 (June 1866): 176-84.

Ethnic background of generals, 176
Lincoln, story of Grant at the circus, Grant will hang on, 176
Good service in Mexico, 176-77
Grant and Yates, 177
Shiloh, 178
Grant, narrow escape in New Orleans, 179

Overland campaign, Grant, Lincoln, Stanton, 180
Not impressive physically, 181

Wilson, James Grant. "The Red River Dam." Galaxy 1 (1866): 240-45.

4th United States Colored Troops, Cavalry
Red River campaign, 240ff
Admiral Porter and gunboats, 240
Building a dam, 240-45
Music, singing while working, 243
Black laborers, 243

Wilson, William B. "Lincoln and the Military Telegraph Corps." Magazine of History 13
(1911): 95-99.

Young boys volunteered for telegraph work, 95
Lincoln, 97-98
Lincoln and fasting, humiliation, and prayer, 98
Oliver P. Morton, Lincoln, 98
Lincoln and Seward, 98-99

Wood, Henry Clay. "The Left of the Federal Line of Battle at Wilson's Creek." Journal of the Military Service Institution of the United States 39 (1906): 341-52.

11th United States Infantry
Recruits at Fort Leavenworth, 342-44
Wilson's Creek, 344ff
Casualties, 346
Much material from official reports

Woodward, Ashbel. "Memoir of General Nathaniel Lyon." New England Historical and Genealogical Register 20 (April 1866): 97-109.

Mexican War service, 99-102
Commanding St. Louis arsenal, 104
Events leading up to Wilson's Creek, 104-8
Duty and the rebellion, 106
Wilson's Creek, 108-9
Death of Lyon and funeral, 109

"Wounding of Lieutenant-General T. J. Jackson." Land We Love 1 (July 1866): 179-82.

By a contemporary
Jackson flank attack, 180
Jackson riding in advance about 9 pm., 181
Jackson wounded, 181-82

Wyeth, John Allen. "Cold Cheer at Camp Morton." Century Magazine 41 (1891): 844-52.

Captured on Walden's Ridge, 844
Treated well by Illinois soldiers, 844
Stevenson, Alabama, 845
Camp Morton, 845ff
Pneumonia, 845
Hospital, 845ff
Camp Morton described, 846-47
Cold, 847
Food, inadequate ration, 847-48
Prisoners died of starvation, 848
Letters badly censored, 849
Escape attempts, 849-50
Tunnels, 850
Prisoners killed and beaten, 850-51
Going to the sinks in the cold, 851
Rats and dogs, 851
Commerce, 851
Lice, 852
Met escape prisoner from Andersonville, 852

Wyeth, John Allen. "Rejoinder by Dr. Wyeth." Century Magazine 42 (1891): 771-75.

Survivors agree on stories of hunger and cruelty, 771
Denies prisoners could communicate with friends and family, 771
Official ration not given out, 771
Supplies siphoned off, 772
Testimony from fellow prisoners, 772-775

Article indexes updated as of May 2019

Ward, Durbin. "The Army of the Cumberland. Oration of Major-General Durbin War At the Reunion at Pittsburg, September 17, 1873." Historical Magazine 3 (January 1874): 1-6.

17th Ohio Infantry
General oration on the war, 1ff
Union and equal rights, 2ff
Army of the Cumberland, 5

Wells, James M. "Tunneling Out of Libby Prison: A Michigan Lieutenant's Account of His Own Imprisonment and Daring Escape." McClure's Magazine 22 (1903-1904): 317-26.

8th Michigan Cavalry
Rear of regiment cut off and captured, 317
Gave his watch and money to woman
Confederate soldier took his boots and gave his ragged shoes in return, 317
March of prisoners, 318
Libby Prison, 318ff
Officers registered, 319
Lay on bare floor with no covering, 319
Description of the building, 319-20
Escape plan, digging a tunnel, 320
Tools, 322
Fed by a former Confederate soldier, 325
Surrendered to 8th Pennsylvania cavalry, 326

White, Edgar. "The First Soldier Newspaper." Missouri Historical Review 8 (July 1914): 223-26.

1st Iowa Infantry
Macon, Mo. Pro-Confederate newspaper, 223
Soldier newspaper, Our Whole Union, 224ff

Whittlesey, Charles. "A Episode of the Rebellion." Magazine of Western History 1 (1885): 532-36.

20th Ohio Infantry
Confederate element in northern Kentucky counties, 532ff
Reign of terror against Unionists, 533
Arrests, Camp Chase, 533
Oath, 533
Protests against arrests, 535

Whittlesey, Charles. "Grant and Lee, An Estimate." Magazine of Western History 2 (1885): 434-40.

20th Ohio Infantry
Ulysses S. Grant, 434ff
Halleck, 436-37
Robert E. Lee, 438-40

Jefferson Davis, 440

Williams, Ora. "College Student and Soldier Boy." Annals of Iowa series 3, 26 (1944): 45-54.

14th Iowa Infantry
Enlistment, 45
Cornell College, 45ff
Fort Donelson, 46
Debating club, public questions, 46-47
Stephen Douglas, 48
Blackface, 49
Election of Lincoln, 49
Meeting women, 49-50
Defective arms, 51-54

Wilson, Peter. "Peter Wilson in the Civil War." Iowa Journal of History and Politics 40 (1942):

153-203, 261-320, 339-414.

14th Iowa Infantry
Shanties, 155-56
Food, 156
Teams hauling wood, 157
Shoes, 158
Drill, 160
Officers, 160-61
Benton Barracks, 161ff
Belmont battle, 162
Drill, 163
Horses, 163
Barracks, 165-66
Cooking, 166
Drill, 167
Officers, 168
Sutlers, 169-70
Sabbath, 171
Soldier life, amusements, 172
Cavalry drill, 173
Drill, major, 175
Soldier got drunk and murdered, soldiers attacked the saloon, 175
Measles, 176, 180
Clothing, 177
Sutler, 177
Christmas, 181
Arms and target practice, 183
Trent affair, 184

Length of war, 184
Religion, chaplain, Sabbath, 185
Swearing and alcohol, 185
Soldier deaths, 185-86
Soldier life, doubtful about some of his comrades, 187
Soldier deaths, fever, 186
Poor health in regiment, 188-89
Mud, dirty camp, women, 193
Poorly behaved soldiers, 194-95
Illness in the army, 195
Drill, revolver, arms, 196-97
Strict discipline, 197
Soldier prisoners, 199
Guard duty, 200
Prisoners, 200-1
Discipline, 202
Dancing, officers, 202
Fort Henry, 261-64
Foraging, 264
Fort Donelson, 264-75
Dead on the battlefield, 267
No wish to be in another battle, 269
Morale, 273
Duty, morale, 274
Sutler prices, 276
Officer election, 277
Brave colonel, 280
Diarrhea, 281
Food, 284
Shiloh, prisoner, Tuscaloosa, 286
Paroled, 286
Prisoner exchange, 287, 290
Corinth, 287ff
Shiloh, 287-88
Hospital, sick and wounded, Monterey, Tennessee, 289ff
Carrying for the sick and wounded, 291
Deaths, 295
Soldier pay, 300
Benton Barracks, 301ff
Paroled prisoners, 302
Women, 302
Fighting Indians, 303
Columbus, Kentucky, 306ff
Benton Barracks, 307ff
Iowa soldiers, 308
Treachery of supposed Unionist farmer, 309

Shiloh, 311
 Foraging, plundering, 312
 Fredericksburg, morale, 320
 Rolla, Missouri, 339ff
 Food sales, 341
 Alcohol, saloons in slave states, 341
 Foraging, chickens, 341
 Columbus, Kentucky, 342-43
 Benton Barracks, 343-
 Black servants, slaves, 343
 Foraging and plunder, Rolla, Missouri, 344
 Soldier pay, 345-46
 Soldiers protect each other from charges of plundering or drunkenness, 346-47
 Copperheads, 347
 Peace prospects, 347
 Supports Emancipation Proclamation and arming blacks, 349
 Consolidation of regiments, 350
 Arkansas Post, 352
 Conscription, Copperheads, 353, 355
 Officer election, 354-5
 Peace, need to conquer the South, conscription, 356
 Stealing, breaking into sutler store, 356
 Books and reading, 357
 Impact of war on the South, 358
 Memphis, many slaves coming into the city, racial terms, 359-60
 Officer and election, 360-61
 Cairo, guard duty on levee, 361-62ff
 Officer resignations, 362-63
 Arrest of guerrillas, 363-64
 Copperheads and alcohol, 363-64
 Capturing guerrillas, 365
 Furlough, 268
 Churches in Cairo, 369-70
 Fort Halleck, Columbus, Kentucky, 371ff
 Desertions, 373-74
 Surrender of Vicksburg, celebration in Columbus, Kentucky, saloons, General Asbboth, 378
 Soldiers smash up saloons and carry things off, 378-79
 Gettysburg, Lee's army, 380
 Colonel as politician, 380
 Course of the war, Confederacy, 381-82
 Invasions and suffering, conscription, 383
 Desertion, 383-84
 Soldier pay, 384
 Measles, 385
 Unionists allowed by provost marshal to beat up a secessionist, 385-86

Results of the war, 386
Surgeon tough on sick men, 387
Kentucky men and women, alcohol, smoking, dogs, 388-89
Charleston, Sumter, Wagner, emancipation, 389
Hanging three black men accused to murdering a white family, 391
Beehive, honey, 391-92
Discipline, black soldiers, 392-93
Copperheads, 394
Hunting, sleeping on post, 395-96
Soldier pay, 395-96
Guerrillas, prisoners, 397
Shiloh, cowardice, desertion, execution, 397
Food, 398
New Jersey zouaves, 399-400
Conscription, land prices, 401
Democrats here curse Lincoln but reenlist, 401-2
Black soldiers, sentinels, 402
Soldier life, temptations, effect of army on men, 403
Dislikes studying except tactics, 404
Deserted plantations along the Mississippi River, 406
Vicksburg, 406-7
Foraging, 407-8
Taken prisoner at Pleasant Hill, 410
Texas, destruction of the Confederate, 411-12

Woolverton, William B. "A Sketch of Prison Life at Andersonville." Firelands Pioneer 7 (1894): 63-71.

71st Ohio Infantry
Confederate mistreatment of black soldiers, 63
Prisoners robbed, 64
Andersonville, 64ff
Worst smell ever, 65
Food, 65
Dreams of food, 65-66
Wood for fires, 66-67
Killing prisoners at dead line, 67
Praises some of the Confederate guards, 67-68
Provisions for the sick, 68-69
Deaths, 69
Burials, 69
Scurvy, 70
Stripping of the dead, 70

Documents added as of April 2019

Walker, Chares W. "Battle of Prairie Grove." Publications of the Arkansas Historical Association 2 (1908): 354-61.

34th Arkansas Infantry
General Hindman, 354ff
Organization of the army, 354-55
Formation of 34th Arkansas Infantry, 356-57
Troops on battlefield, 357-58
Battle of Prairie Grove, 358-61
Denial of slavery's importance in the war, 358-59

Walker, Thaddeus J. "Reminiscences of Point Lookout." Blue and Gray 3 (1894): 59-60.

2nd Maryland Cavalry (Confederate)
Point Lookout
Men spending time on the beach, 59-60
Some had never seen a crab, 59
Tobacco joke, 60

Walker, Thaddeus J. "Scouting in the Shenandoah Valley." Blue and Gray 2 (1893): 449-50.

2nd Maryland Cavalry (Confederate)
Sheridan, 449
Scouting, horses, 450

Walker, Thaddeus J. "A Romantic Incident of the War, Ending in the Death of Colonel Ulric

Dahlgren. Blue and Gray 3 (1894): 330-32.

2nd Maryland Cavalry (Confederate)
Winchester in 1863
Union deserters, 330
Took one of the men home with him, 331
Deserter was in fact Ulric Dahlgren scouting prior to Kilpatrick raid, 331-32
Was a spy but could never hate him, 332

Walter, William J. "A Louisiana Volunteer: Letters of William J. Walter, 1861-62." Edited by Edwin A. Davis. Southwest Review 19 (October 1933): 78-87.

5th Louisiana Infantry
Camp life, love, 80-81
Beauregard has barred civilians from camp, 81
Spy captured, 81-82
Stonewall Jackson, troop movements, rumors of fighting, 83-84
Letters, 85
Stonewall Jackson, 85
Morale, fall of New Orleans, 86
Yellow fever will take care of the Yankees, 86

Article indexes updated as of February 2019

Wade, John C. "Some Neglected Aspects of the American Civil War: Recollections of John C.

Wade." Edited by Robert Douthat Meade. William and Mary College Quarterly

Historical Magazine Second Series, 16 (July 1936): 408-13.

Yorktown youth
Peninsula campaign, 409ff
Big Bethel, 409
Yankees and woman, killing hogs, 409
Slaves leave, 411

Waldron, Carroll Scott. "I preferred to take my chances": Memoirs of Carroll Scott Waldron, 17th and 146th New York." Edited by Edmund Cooke. Military Images 14 (March/April 1993): 22-30.

17th New York Infantry, 146th New York Infantry
General Butterfield, 22
Officer election, 22
Alcohol, 22
Second Bull Run, 24
Antietam, 25
Winter quarters, 25
Terms of enlistment, 25
Mutiny, 26
Conscription, 26
Christian Commission, 26
Overland campaign, 27ff
Wilderness, 27
Taken prisoner, 27
Danville prison, 27

Andersonville, 27ff
Prison food, 27
Digging wells, 28
Escape, 28
Recapture 28-29
Florence prison, 29
Oath, galvanized Yankees, 29
Election of 1864, Lincoln, McClellan, 29
Prison quarters, 29
Thanksgiving, 29
Paroled and home, 29-30

Walker, Noah Dixon. "Lieut. Noah Dixon Walker to His Father Noah Walker." Maryland

Historical Magazine 30 (1935); 363-65.

44th Virginia Infantry
Confederate liberty vs. Lincoln tyranny, 364
Western Virginia campaign, 364-65
1862 Valley campaign, 365

Wall, Edward. "The First Assault on Petersburg." Proceedings of the New Jersey Historical Society 3 (1918): 193-204.

3rd New York Cavalry, Chaplain
Butler and Bermuda Hundred, 193-95
Signal tower, 195-96
Sounds of Confederate prayer meetings, 196-97
Cavalry advance on Petersburg, 199ff
Colonel Mix mortally wounded in assault on forts at Petersburg, 201-2
Black troops, Baldy Smith, 202-3

Wall, Edward. "Raids in Southeastern Virginia Fifty Years Ago." Proceedings of the New Jersey Historical Society 3 (1918): 65-82, 147-61.

3rd New York Cavalry, Chaplain
Overland campaign, 65ff
Kautz Raid, May 1864, 65ff
Fires kindled to rout bushwhackers, 67
Alcohol among arguing officers, 70
Seizing horses, mules and food, 71
Horse, 72-73
Death of a lieutenant, 73-74

Bridge burning, 75-76
Wounded officer, 76-77
Confederate family, women, 76-77
Slave mother and child, 78
Destruction of railroads, 79-80
Use of horses on a raid, 80-81
Women and slaves on long marches, 81
Prisoners on march, 81
Kautz second raid, 147ff
Alcohol, 148
Confederates defend a railroad, 148
Heavy rain, women and slaves, 149-50
Destroying bridges, 151
Woman in mansion, 151
Railroad destruction, 153-54
Music, soldiers singing, 154-55
Impact of raids, bridges, railroads, destruction of food, 156-57
Planters, poor whites, 157-58
Slaves, 158-59
Unionists, 159
Coffee, 159-60
Endurance of soldiers on raids, rural vs. urban, 160-61

Wallace, Belle. "An 1864 Letter to Mrs. Rufus C. Burleson." Edited by Merle Mears Duncan.

Southwestern Historical Quarterly 64 (January 1961): 369-72.

Spinning, 369
General Robertson, 370
Wounded soldiers and deaths at home, 370-71

Wallace, Sarah Agnes. "Some Letters of the Barnard Elliott Habersham Family, 1858-1868."

South Carolina Historical Magazine 54 (October 1953): 201-10; 55 (January 1954): 28-39.

Fort McHenry, prisoner, political, duty, 203
Yankees in Maryland, 204
Box, food, 205
Officer elections, 210
Peninsula campaign, 28
Christmas, 31
Food prices, Richmond hospital, 33
Certificate of disability, 33ff
1864 Valley campaign, devastation, 35-36

Sherman, Savannah, 38-39

Wallace, W. W. "The Battle of Shiloh." Journal of the Military Service Institution of the United States 26 (January 1900): 14-25.

13th New York Artillery Heavy

Shiloh, 16ff

No primary material from Wallace

Wallace, William. "William Wallace's Civil War Letters: The Atlanta Campaign." Edited by John O. Holzhueter. Wisconsin Magazine of History 57 (Winter 1973-1974): 90-116.

3rd Wisconsin Infantry

Atlanta campaign, 93ff

Hard march in mountains, Lookout Mountain, dead animals, 93

Resaca, 95ff

Cassville sacked, 96

Food, 96

Poor whites and slaves, 97

New Hope Church, 97

Tearing down houses, 97

Foraging, widows, sheep, 98-99

Food, 99

Marietta, 99

Birth of daughter, 99

Soldier pay, shaving, beard, 101-2

Peach Tree Creek Battle, 102

Shelling an danger, 103

Burning plantations and slave quarters, 103

Water, 104

Confederate deserters, 106-7

Atlanta, 108ff

Capture of Atlanta, Democratic nomination, election, 110

Election of 1864, regiment, 111-12

Foraging, slaves, 113

Wallace, William. "William Wallace's Civil War Letters: The Virginia Campaign." Edited by John O. Holzhueter. Wisconsin Magazine of History 57 (Autumn 1973): 28-59.

Third Wisconsin Infantry

Camp routine, 32

Slave comes into camp, 32

Cook, sewing, 33

Mexican breaking mules, 33
Arrest of Maryland legislature, 33-35
Sending clothes home, 36
Early 1862, thinks war will soon be over, 36-37
Boots, prices, 37
Harpers Ferry, 37-38
Money, food prices, 39
Camping in cemetery, 39
Chaplain, 40-41
Sleeping on piles of leaves, 41
Picket duty, 42
1862 Valley campaign, 41ff
Confederate letters, 45
Carrying food and supplies, 45
Food, foraging, 47
Sabbath card playing, 47-48
Winchester, Confederates kill sick and prisoners, vengeance, 50-51
Soldier pay, 52
Camp routine, 52
John Pope orders, 52-53
Pope and Banks review troops, 53
Chaplain sermon, 53
Wounded at Cedar Mountain, 53-54
Hospital wounded fingers, 54ff
Confederate prisoners, 55
Hospital food, 57

Waller, John. "With Banks from Strasburg to the Potomac." Blue and Gray 3 (1894): 194-96.

28th New York Infantry
Banks, 1862 Valley campaign, 194ff
Worries about guerrillas, 194
Front Royal, 195
Winchester, 196

Walmsley, James Elliott. "The Change of Secession Sentiment in Virginia in 1861." American Historical Review 31 (October 1925): 82-101.

Secession, 83ff
Secession convention, 84ff
Seward, 85
Military preparations, 86-87
Proposed peace conference, 87ff
Enslavement of free blacks, 92
Lincoln inaugural address, 92

War prospect, 93
Secession resolutions Bedford County, 96

Waples, E. Harris. "The Youngest 'Boy in Blue.'" Blue and Gray 4 (1894): 176.

1st New York Artillery, Marine
George P. Bennett, Philadelphia, age a little over nine
Burnside expedition
Roanoke Island
General Reno

Ward, Durbin. "The Presidential Campaign of 1864 as Viewed by a Federal Army Colonel."

Edited by David Lindsey. Georgia Historical Quarterly 39 (June 1955): 187-92.

17th Ohio Infantry, Colonel
Atlanta campaign, 190ff
Democrat who believes this war is necessary, Lincoln, Grant, McClellan, need for a war platform, 191-92

Wardwell, Ernest. "Military Waif: A Sidelight on the Baltimore Riot of 19 April 1861." Edited by Frank Towers. Maryland Historical Magazine 89 (Winter 1994): 427-46.

Baltimore riot, 429ff
Strong secession sentiments, 429
6th Massachusetts Militia, 430ff
Casualties, 434
Washington, 435ff
Food, 436
Colonel Edward F. Jones, 436-37
Baltimore, 439ff
Camp Relay, 440-42
Rumors, 442-43
Nathaniel P. Banks, 443-44

Waring, Martha Gallaudet and Mary Alston Waring, eds., "Some Observations of the Years, 1860 and 1861 as Revealed in a Packet of Old Letters." Georgia Historical Quarterly, 15

(September 1931): 272-92.

Lincoln, war, 275
Woman and home, 278
Secession, 285
Letters from the North, 289

John Brown, Washington peace conference, 289
George Davis, 289
Secession, liberty, Union, subjugation, 290
Teaching, 291
War as punishment, 291

Waring, Thomas Smith. "Confederate Surgeon: The Letters of Thomas Smith Waring, A South Carolina Planter-Physician at War." Edited by W. Curtis Worthington, Jr. Journal of Confederate History 2 (No. 1, 1989): 55-92.

17th South Carolina Infantry, Assistant Surgeon
Camp slave, 63-64, 68
Antietam campaign, 64
Food, 65, 67
Band, music, 65-66
Clothing, 67-68
Second Manassas, Bull Run, wounded, 69-73
Antietam, 74-75
Federal prisoners, 76
Wounded soldier, 77-78
Emancipation Proclamation, 79
Picket firing, 81
Women, 81-82
Eye trouble, 85

Warmoth, Henry Clay. "The Vicksburg Diary of Henry Clay Warmoth." Edited by Paul H.

Hass. Journal of Mississippi History 31 (November 1969): 334-47; 32 (February 1970): 60-74.

32nd Missouri Infantry, Lieutenant
Aide to McClernand
Vicksburg campaign, 335ff
General Osterhaus falls in the war, 336-37
Slaves and boats, 337
McClernand, under fire. 337-38
Confederate women, 338-39
Gunboats, burning cotton, 342
Confederate artillery strikes ships, 342
Felt ill and asks to sleep in McClernand's house, 343-44
McClernand,, 346
Richard Yates, 346
General A. J. Smith hates abolitionists, 347

Passing the Vicksburg batteries, 62-63
McClelland, 63, 66
Port Gibson, 64
Deserters, Confederate morale, 68
Hooker, Chancellorsville, 68
Capture Confederate stores, woman, 69-70
Assault on Vicksburg, 73
Wounded, 73
McClelland gives him leave of absence, 74

Warner, Adoniram Judson. "The Ordeal of Adoniram Judson Warner: His Minutes of South Mountain and Antietam." Edited by James B. Casey. Civil War History 28 (September 1982): 213-36.

39th Pennsylvania Infantry (10th Pennsylvania Reserves), Lieutenant Colonel South Mountain, 217-18
Morale improved by hard successful fighting, 218
Antietam, 219-
Supporting a battery in an exposed position, 222
Alcohol, whiskey, 223
Mortally wounded Wisconsin soldier, 226
Wounded, 228ff
Surgeon treating wound, 230
Killing of a sheep for the wounded, 231
Field hospital, 231ff
Ether, surgery, 234
Second surgery and ball extracted, 235

Warren, Eliza Bethell. "Glimpses of Civil War Newburgh: An Account of Eliza Bethell Warren's Girlhood in Newburgh, Indiana, 1855-1870," Indiana Magazine of History 41 (June 1945): 167-84.

War news, excitement, 176
Training Indiana volunteers, 177
Women working for the soldiers, 178
Confederate raid, 179

Washburn, Wiley A. "Reminiscences of Confederate Service by Wiley A. Washburn. Edited by James L. Nichols and Frank Abbott. Arkansas Historical Quarterly 35 (Spring 1976): 47-90.

1st Arkansas Infantry
Deaths in camp, measles, 49-50
First Bull Run, Manassas, Jefferson Davis, 51-52
Shiloh, 54-55
Corinth, 55
Chickamauga, 57
Chattanooga, Lookout Mountain, 60
Confederate retreat, 61
Religious meeting, 62
Atlanta campaign, 62
Resaca, 63ff
Kennesaw Mountain, 66-68
Johnston, Hood, 69ff
Davis, Hood, troops yelling for Johnston, 73-74
Sherman and Atlanta, 76-77
Hood's Tennessee campaign, 79ff
Battle of Franklin, 81ff

Washington, Ella. "An Army of Devils: The Diary of Ella Washington." Edited by James O.

Hall. Civil War Times Illustrated 16 (February 1978): 18-25.

Hanover County, Virginia
Yankees coming, 19
Anxiety, hard to sleep, 19
Foraging, chickens, food, 20-21
George Armstrong Custer, 21-24
Guards, stragglers, 21-22
Wounded Yankee, 23

Waterman, Robert E. and Thomas Rothrock, eds. "The Earle-Buchanan Letters of 1861-1876."

Arkansas Historical Quarterly 33 (Summer 1974): 99-174.

Co. B, 34th Arkansas Infantry
Arkansas secession, 115-16
Love letter, 117, 120ff
Letters, 126-27
Vicksburg, 128, 134, 136, 138
Disease and death, 129
Hindman, Price, 130
Price, Holmes, 131
Northwest Arkansas free of Yankee vandals, 131-32
Food prices, 132
Chancellorsville, 133-34
Length of war, 135

Religious revival, 141
Desertion, 143
Robbery, foraging, Unionists, 145-47
Foraging, 148
Sterling Price, God, 155-56
Magruder, 156

Watrous, Jerome A. "Reminiscences of War Time Service: Captured." Milwaukee History 14

(No. 2, 1991): 63-66.

24th Wisconsin Infantry
Battle of Gravelly Run, 63
Taken prisoner, 63-64
Gave up sword to Confederate colonel, 64
Tried to deceive captors about troops facing them, 65
General Samuel McGowan, 65-66

Weaver, Henry Clay. "Georgia Through Kentucky Eyes: Letters Written on Sherman's March to Atlanta." Edited by James M. Merrill and James F. Marshall. Filson Club History

Quarterly 30 (October 1956): 324-39.

16th Kentucky Infantry, Captain
Gymnastics for amusement, 325
Resaca, casualties, close calls, 326-27
New Hope Church, 327
Casualties and narrow escape, 328
Kennesaw Mountain, 328
Under Confederate artillery fire, 329-330
Utoy Creek, casualties, 331-32
Slaughter in Hardee's corps, 333-34
Duty, cowardice, 335-36
John Hunt Morgan, Wheeler, 336-37
Election of 1864 in the regiment, Lincoln, McClellan, blacks voting, 338

Weaver, Henry Clay. "The 16th Kentucky and the End of the War: The Letters of Henry Clay

Weaver." Edited by James M. Merrill and James F. Marshall. Filson Club History

Quarterly 32 (October 1958): 336-49.

16th Kentucky Infantry, Captain
Hood's Tennessee campaign, 337
Nashville, 337-38

Battle of Franklin, 338
Christmas, 339
War is ending, 339
Washington, 340
Fort Fisher, 341-43
Sherman, review of troops, 344-45
Breakthrough at Petersburg, 345-46
Sherman and war news from Virginia, 347
Raleigh, Sherman and Johnston, 347-48
Lincoln assassination, slavery, 348

Webb, Nathan B. "Diary of Nathan B. Webb, Sergeant Company D, First Maine Cavalry."

Maine Bugle 5 (1898); 216-223.

1st Maine Cavalry
Taken prisoner, 216
Winchester, Milroy, 217
Confederate women, 217
Food, rations, 217
Food prices, 218
Richmond, Libby Prison, 218
Food, 218-19
Rumors about Vicksburg and Port Hudson, 219
Trading in prison, 219
Belle Isle, food, 220
Digging graves, 220
Gettysburg, 220-21
Gambling, 221
Duty, 221
Confederate morale, 222
Religion in Richmond, 222
New prisoners arrive, 223

Webster, Fletcher. "Col. Fletcher Webster's Last Letter: 'I Shall Not Spare Myself.'" Edited by Wiley Sword. Blue & Gray Magazine 13 (October 1995): 20-27.

12th Massachusetts Infantry
Second Bull Run, 26
Son of Daniel Webster

Welles, Gideon. "The History of Emancipation." Galaxy 14 (December 1872): 838-51.

Lincoln, Emancipation, Welles, Naval Department, McClellan, Harrison's Landing Letter, Seward Cabinet, Emancipation Proclamation

Wells, Ebenezer Tracy. "The Campaign and Battle of Chickamauga." United Service 16

(September 1896): 205-33.

89th Illinois Infantry

Largely just an essay on Chickamauga with few personal recollections.

Criticized exaggerations in the Confederate reports, 218-19

Kelly's Field, 219ff

John T. Croxton, 220

Richard W. Johnson, 221

August von Willich, 221-22

Much information about Johnson's division, 223 et passim

Critique of Rosecrans, 228-29

Critique of George H. Thomas, 229

Critique of Bragg, 230-32

Wells, Frank and George H. Wells. "A Civil War Correspondence Between Two Brothers: One

North; One South." Edited by Keith S. Hambrick. North Louisiana Historical Association Journal 14 (No. 4, 1983): 147-55.

Worcester, Massachusetts and Harrisonburg, Louisiana

Hopes brother will never strike a blow against the glorious flag, 148

Opposes secession, 148

North now united, peaceable secession impossible, 149

Fighting for flag, not against slavery, 149

Notes reign of terror in the South and refugees, 150

Hates abolitionists and Republicans, 150

State sovereignty and Constitution, 151

Right of secession, 151-52

Republican party has caused the trouble, 152

Fort Sumter, 152

Fighting for flag, hatred and revenge, 153

Southerners forced out of the Union, 153-54

Wells, James K. "An Indiana Volunteer Advises His Neighbors." Indiana Magazine of History

53 (June 1957): 175-79.

31st Indiana Infantry, Co. B., Sergeant

Copperheads, Knights of the Golden Circle, 176

Effects of Confederate propaganda, 177-78

Emancipation, racial equality, 177-78

Oliver P. Morton, 178

Wells, Melissa. "Dearest Ben: Letters from a Civil War Soldier's Wife." Edited by Albert

Castel. Michigan History 71 (May/June 1987): 18-23.

Three Rivers, Michigan

Letters, 19, 21

Wants husband to come home, Christmas, 19

Order at home, 20

Women and soldiers, duty, 21

Anxious to hear of Atlanta campaign, 21

Husband nurses soldiers, 22

Reenlistment, 22-23

Farming and household work, 23

Welsh, George Wilson and Philip Rudsil Welsh. "Civil War Letters from Two Brothers."

Yale Review 18 (September 1928): 148-61.

126th Pennsylvania Infantry

Antietam campaign, Washington, 149

Camp routine, 150

Food, 151

Fredericksburg campaign, 152-59

Removal of McClellan, 152

Warrenton, 152-53

Marching, 154

Pennsylvania reserves camp, 154

Mud March, 159-61

Welsh Soldiers. "Welshmen in the Union Armies." Edited by Alan Conway. Civil War History

4 (June 1958): 143-74.

First Bull Run, raw troops, feelings in battle, 145

Army of the Potomac, fall of 1861, McClellan, 146-47

Thanksgiving, be patient with Army of the Potomac, 147-48

Seven Days, wounded men, amputation, hospital, 149

Gloomy about Union prospects and the war, 150

Fredericksburg, sabbath, 150

Battle of Fredericksburg, 151

Tullahoma campaign, Stones River, 152

Corinth, 153-54

Slavery, Emancipation Proclamation, 154

Vicksburg, Fort Hindman, 154-55

Vicksburg, foraging, canal, 155

Conscription, Lincoln, reconstruction, 156
Hospital, Vicksburg, 156
Vicksburg, artillery fire on city, food shortage in city, 157-58
Surrender of Vicksburg, 158-59
Runaway slaves, black troops, guerrillas, 159-60
Washington forts, Christmas, 160
Democrats, Copperheads, 160-61
Conscription, 161
Gettysburg, burial, 162
Chickamauga, fraternization, 163-64
Guntown, Mississippi, battle, 164-65
Southern family caught between the two sides, 165
Petersburg, 166-68
Water, alcohol, 167
Deserter execution, 167
Galveston, blockade, 168
Fort Fisher, 169-71
Peace rumors and destruction of the Confederacy, 173

Welshimer, Philip. "Letters from Grant's Regiment." Ulysses S. Grant Association Newsletter

4 (October 1966): 1-8.

21st Illinois Infantry, Lieutenant, no pagination in digitized copy
Enlistment, oath, family
Soldier pay
Black servant, cook
Guerrillas
Water
Duty, family, willing to sacrifice his life

Wescoat, Arthur Brailsford. "Journal of Arthur Brailsford Wescoat, 1863, 1864." South

Carolina Historical Magazine 55 (April 1954): 71-102.

South Carolina low country, 72ff
Rumor of French recognition of Confederacy, 72
Confederate camp slaves, 73, 76
Hog catching, 75
Refugees, 75
Vaccination, 76
Vicksburg, Gettysburg, 80
Charleston attacked, 81ff
Food, women, death from starvation, 84
Fort Sumter, 97
Food price, 97

Wescoat, Joseph Julius. "Diary of Captain Joseph Julius Wescoat." Edited by Anne King

Gregorie. South Carolina Historical Magazine 59 (January, April 1958): 11-23, 94-95.

Co. B, 11th South Carolina Infantry
Charleston, 11ff
Fort Johnson, 12ff
Magazine explosions, deaths, 13
Fort Sumter, shelling, 14ff
Olustee, 20
Petersburg, 85
Wounded at Cold Harbor, will probably lose a leg
Wilmington, 89ff
Fort Fisher, 90
Taken prisoner, Old Capitol prison, 91-92
Fort Delaware, 92ff
Lee surrender, Appomattox, 94
Lincoln assassination, 94

West, J. Eberle. "Morgan's Raid." Indiana Magazine of History 20 (March 1924): 92-96.

Morgan's raid memoir

Westover, John G. "A Civil War Secret Service Code." Journal of Southern History 8

(November 1942): 556-57.

Wharff, William H. "From Chapin's Farm to Appomattox." Maine Bugle 3 (1896): 231-35.

11th Maine Infantry
Troop review, Lincoln, Grant, 232
Petersburg, 232ff
Charge on Confederate lines, 233
Breakthrough, April 2, 233ff
Hatcher's Run, 232ff
Captured food, 234
Appomattox, 235

Whetten, Harriet Douglas. "A Volunteer Nurse in the Civil War: The Letters of Harriet Douglas Whetten." Edited by Paul H. Hass. Wisconsin Magazine of History 48 (Winter 1964-1965, Spring 1965): 131-51, 205-21

Sanitary Commission nurse

Peninsula campaign, 133ff
Hospitals, 133ff
Dorothea Dix, 135
Slave patient, 141
New York, Confederate prisoners, 141-42
Bullets and effects on the wounded, 142
Wounded Confederates, 140ff
Edward Cross, 5th New Hampshire, 143
Dead soldier's final moments, 144
Wounded men at Harrison's landing, 149
Defiant Confederate women, 207
Teaching former slaves to read, Bible, 209
Slave religion, 209-10
Burning Edmund Ruffin's house 213-14
Army surgeons, 214-15
Death, soldier's last moments, 215
Diarrhea, 216
Filthy hospital, 217

White, Benjamin F. "A 'Christian Warrior' in Winter Quarters." Edited by Edward G.

Longacre. Manuscripts 33 (Summer 1981): 241-44.

6th North Carolina Infantry, Lieutenant
Importance of Christian soldiers, 242-43
First Manassas, Bull Run, 242-43
Christmas, alcohol, 243
Women, 244

White, Henry S. "Ten Weeks in a Macon Prison, 1864: A New England Chaplain's Account."

Edited by Edward D. Jervey. Georgia Historical Quarterly 70 (Winter 1986): 669-702.

Published in book form

White, Herman Lorenzo. "The White Papers: Letters (1861-1865) of Pvt. Herman Lorenzo

White, 22nd Regiment Massachusetts Volunteers." Edited by Kathleen Kroll and Charles

Moran. Massachusetts Review 18 (Summer 1977): 248-70.

22nd Massachusetts Infantry
Enlistment, 250
Arrest citizens, Virginia, 252
Portraits of generals, 252
European intervention, 252-53

Peninsula campaign, 253ff
Yorktown, 253ff
McClellan, food, 255
Taken prisoner, Gaines Mill, 255
Food, 256
Diarrhea, 256
Demoralized, Lincoln, Emancipation Proclamation, desertion, 257-58
Whiskey, 257-58
Emancipation, race, 259
Overland campaign, 260ff
Spotsylvania, death of soldier, 260
Picket firing, fraternization, 263
Petersburg, 263ff
Black troops, 265
McClellan nomination, 256-66
Appomattox, 267-68
Grand Review of armies, 269-70

White, Lonnie J., ed. "A Bluecoat's Account of the Camden Expedition." Arkansas Historical Quarterly 24 (Spring 1965): 82-89.

Lawrence Kansas Tribune
Rain, corduroying roads, 83
Guerrillas kill an officer, 83
Confederate woman, 84
General Steele, 83ff

White, Max E. "The Thomas G. Jordan Family During the War Between the States." Georgia Historical Quarterly 59 (Supplement 1975): 134-40.

Co. A, 24th Georgia Infantry
Peninsula campaign, 135
Gettysburg, 136
Chattanooga, 136-37
1864 Valley campaign, casualties and illness, 138-39

White, Patrick H. "Civil War Diary of Patrick H. White." Journal of the Illinois State Historical Society 15 (October 1922): 640-63.

Taylor's Battery
Enlistment, 641-42
Whiskey distillery, 642
Horses, 642-43

Fighting guerrillas in Missouri, 643ff
Confederate prisoners, 645
Dead and wounded on battlefield, hogs, 645
Battle of Belmont, 646-48
Fort Henry and Donelson, 649-52
Shiloh, 652-54
Corinth, 655
William T. Sherman, water, bath, 655-56
Vicksburg campaign, 656ff
Chickasaw Bayou, 656-58

White, Plympton A. "A Newspaper Account of Life at Camp Wilkins, April 27—June 11, 1861." By James Wudarczyk. Journal of Erie Studies 17 (Spring 1988): 56-66.

Evils of camp life, 57
Governor Curtin and camp location, 57-58
Building the camp, 59
Sleeping arrangements, 61, 65
Daily activities, 64

White, Thomas Benton. "Down the Rivers: Civil War Diary of Thomas Benton White." Edited by Charles G. Williams. Register of the Kentucky Historical Society 67 (April 1969): 134-74.

42nd Ohio Infantry, Sergeant
Enlistment, 134-35
Camp Chase, 136ff
Election of officers, 136
Food, 136
Thanksgiving, 137-38
Confederate home, food, 149
Death of scout, mutilated body, 162
Food, 166
Vicksburg, Chickasaw Bayou, 173

White, Thomas Benton. "A Letter from Vicksburg June 1863—Sergeant Thomas Benton White of the Forty-Second Ohio Infantry Union Army." Edited by Charles G. Williams.

Journal of Mississippi History 38 (May 1976): 221-23.

42nd Ohio Regiment, Sergeant
Grant, success in Vicksburg campaign, 222-23

Failure of attacks on May 19-20, 222

Whitehorse, James E., and James Eldred Phillips. "Final March to Appomattox: The 12th

Virginia Infantry, April 2-12, 1865." By Chris M. Calkins. Civil War Regiments 2 (No. 3, 1992): 236-51.

12th Virginia Infantry
Petersburg trenches, 238-39
Appomattox campaign, 241ff
Cumberland Church, 244-46
Appomattox surrender, 249-50

Whitenack, David S. "Reminiscences of the Civil War: Andersonville." Indiana Magazine of History 11 (June 1915): 128-43.

Co. F., 5th Indiana Cavalry
Extreme cold in Indiana, 128
Atlanta campaign, 129ff
Resaca, 129
Captain mortally wounded by other Indiana soldiers, 130
Stoneman, 130ff
Andersonville, 131ff
Florence, South Carolina prison, 132ff
Escape, 133
Recaptured by home guards, 139
Jailed in Columbia and returned to Florence, 141
Richmond, 142
Hospital, 143

Whitman, Walt. "Here Among the Soldiers in Hospital" An Unpublished Letter from Walt

Whitman to Lucia Jane Russell Briggs." Edited by Francis B. Dedmond. New England
Quarterly 59 (December 1986): 544-48.

Hospital work, 545ff
Whitman appreciates her contribution for the soldiers in the hospital, alarming numbers of sick, 547

Whittemore, Charles and Ruth Whittemore. "Despotism of Traitors': The Rebellious South

Through New York Eyes." Edited by Walter Rundell, Jr. New York History 45 (October 1964): 331-67.

Religious instruction, 332
Swearing, 334
Rumors of troops being discharged, 337
Fort Donelson, rejoicing, 338
Soldier pay, 342
Engineers, pontoons, 342
Religion, divine protection, 342-43
Hopes he comes home this summer and traitors defeated, 344
Fears McClellan may be a traitor, 345
Conscription, enlistment, 345
Impact of war, health, enlistment, 346-47
Confederates gaining ground, 347
Food prices, 348
Fredericksburg, McClellan, Burnside, Halleck, 349
McClellan, copperheads, Fernando Wood, 350
Copperheads, Seymour, 351
Chancellorsville, Stonewall Jackson death, 353
Confederate women, 354
Result of war, victory, God's justice, 355
Reenlistment, 355-56
Copperheads, 356
Theaters, bad company, 357
Bounty, 358
Politics of army officers, 359
Sherman in South Carolina, Copperheads, 360
Discharge of soldiers, 363

Wight, Willard E., ed. "Letters from the Diocese of Little Rock, 1861-1865." Arkansas

Historical Quarterly 18 (Winter 1959): 366-74.

Appointment of archbishop, 368-69

Death of bishop, 370-74

Wight, Willard E., ed. "Pay the Preacher! Two Letters from Louisiana, 1864." Louisiana

History 1 (Summer 1960): 251-59.

Methodist ministers, pay, tight-fisted who refused to pay preachers--Louisiana

Wilkin, Jacob W. "Personal Reminiscences of General Grant." Publications of the Illinois State Historical Library 12 (1908): 131-40.

130th Illinois Infantry

Told another soldiers that Grant would take Vicksburg, 131-32
Furlough application for a comrade given by Grant, 132-33
Running the Vicksburg batteries, Grant, 134-35
Johnston and Pemberton, Grant and possibility of attack, Sherman, 136
Grant orders items taken from a church returned, 136-37
Grant and teamster beating a mule, 137
Bees, honey, Grant laughter, 137-38
Grant and McClermand, 138
Grant and Rawlins, calm when others worried about the enemy, 138-39
Denies Grant was indifferent to loss of life, 139
Grant inspired confidence, 139-40

Wilcox, Charles E. "Hunting for Cotton in Dixie: From the Civil War Diary of Captain Charles E. Wilcox." Edited by Edgar L. Erickson. Journal of Southern History 4 (November 1938): 493-513.

33rd Illinois Infantry, 92nd USCT
Curtis and Steele, 496
Confiscating cotton, 497ff
Hunting, 497
Skirmish, 499-500
More vigorous war policy, conscription, 502
Disease, vegetables, 503
McDowell, 507
Burning property, 507-8
Memphis, 512

Wilcox, Charles E. "With Grant at Vicksburg: From the Civil War Diary of Captain Charles E.

Wilcox." Edited by Edgar L. Erickson. Journal of the Illinois State Historical Society 30

(January 1938): 441-503.

33rd Illinois Infantry
Vicksburg, 446ff
Sabbath activities, 447
Alcohol, 448, 449
Canal, 451-52
Water, 453
Plantation, 457
Canal, 457
Slaves making salt, 459
Special orders on destruction, gambling, alcohol, 465

General McClelland, Governor Richard Yates, 465
Under fire, 471
Friendly fire, wounded, 478
Confederate deserters, 478
Under fire, 479
Wounded men, 480
Can't get to dead and wounded, no flag of truce, stench, 481-82
Shelling and wound, 482-83
Cannon fire, noise, 484-85
Prisoners, short rations, 485
Sabbath, 489
Disease, 491
July 4, surrender of Vicksburg, 495-96
Description of Vicksburg and citizens, 496
Pemberton, 496
Soldier Sabbath, 498

Wild, Silas F. "Expedition to Goldsboro, N.C." Edited by Emma Wild Goodwin. Bedford

Historical Register 7 (January 1904): 88-95.

5th Massachusetts Infantry
Goldsboro, 88ff
Food, 89-90
Church, 90
Battle at Kingston, 90-91

Wilder, Burt Green. "Two Examples of the Negro's Courage, Physical and Moral." Alexander's

Magazine 1 (January 1906): 23-26.

55th Massachusetts Infantry
James Island, 24ff
Soldier pay, 25-26

Wilder, John Augustus. "Key West in the Summer of 1864." Edited by Millicent Todd

Bingham. Florida Historical Quarterly 43 (January 1965): 262-65.

2nd U.S. Colored Infantry, Major
Yellow Fever, heavy losses officer, 263
Sweating, diarrhea, 263
Funeral, 264
Coffins, 265

Wiles, Charles W. "A Skirmish at Little Auburn, Va." First Maine Bugle Campaign 2 (1892):
71-74.

10th New York Cavalry
October 13, 1863
Picket guard prepares for Confederate advance, 72
Repulsed Confederate cavalry charge, 73-74
Had to fall back, one man captured, Libby Prison, 73

Wiley, Calvin H. "Calvin H. Wiley on the Evils of Slavery and the Causes of the Civil War."

Edited by D. L. Corbitt. North Carolina Historical Review 3 (October 1926): 642-48.

Letter of Calvin H. Wiley to Governor Zebulon Vance, 642ff
Slavery and sin, 642
Church, Bible, and slavery, 644
Disaster of secession, 644
Black troops would be disastrous, 644-46
Governors, Vance should push for slavery reform, 646-47

Wiley, Harvey W. "Corporal Harvey W. Wiley's Civil War Diary." Indiana Magazine of

History 51 (June 1955): 139-62.

Co. I, 137th Indiana Infantry
Food, religion, 141
Quarters, 141-42
African-American troops, 142
Refugees, 144
Nashville, 144-45
Stones' River, 145-46
Tullahoma, 146-47
Shooting accident, 147-48
Oath, 148-49
Guerrillas, 150
Small pox hospital, 151
Wicked men in army, 152
Fremont, 153
July, 154-44

Wilkins, William Duncan. "My Libby Prison Diary, August 12 to September 26th 1862."

Detroit in Perspective 3 (Winter 1979): 77-113.

Captain, AAG, 1st Division, II Corps, Army of Virginia

Libby Prison, 80ff
Cedar Mountain, 80
Privy, dead house, 81, 83-84
Food, 83
Rumors of hanging prisoners, 84
Newspaper vindictiveness, 85, 90 et passim
Cardplaying, 86-87
Daily activities, 88
Prisoners forgotten by the government, 88
Disease, 88
War rumors, 89
Imagining home, 89-90
Henry Wirz, 91-92
Military news, 94-95
Wounded prisoner, 96
Cots and bunks, 97
Sabbath at home, 97
Second Bull Run, 99 et passim
Noise, smells, heat, 99
Critical of generals, 101
Food, 102
Tedious daytime hours, 104
Bible keeps him from suicide, 104
Confederate thanksgiving day for recent victories, 105
Rumors of release or exchange, 105
Sabbath, 106
Rumors about Antietam, 106
News of release, 107
Fort Monroe, Emancipation Proclamation, 109

Williams, Andrew. "Civil War on the Kanas-Missouri Border: The Narrative of Former Slave Andrew Williams." Edited by William A. Dobak. Kansas History 6 (Winter 1983/84):

237-42.

Ex-Missouri slave

Foraging, 239

Battle of Newtonia, 239

Quantrill, Lawrence, 240

Williams, George. "Crossing the Lines." Blue and Gray 1 (1893): 121-26.

146th New York Infantry

Overland campaign, 121ff

Burnside, 121
Grant, 121
Gouverneur Warren, 121
Fraternization, trading, 122-23
Wilderness, 123ff
Wounded, 123
Robert E. Lee, 124-26
Reconciliation and respect, 126

Williams, Harrison C. "Regimental History of the 79th Pennsylvania Volunteers of the Civil War: The Lancaster County Regiment." Journal of the Lancaster County Historical Society 84 (1980): 17-36.

79th Pennsylvania Infantry, Letters of Lewis H. Jones and John H. Druckemiller
Enlistment, recruitment of Germans, 18
Blanket, 20
Diarrhea death, 23
July 4, 26
Perryville, 27
Stones River, 29
Chickamauga, 29

Williams, J. R. "An Account of the Battle of Fredericksburg, 1863: Written by J. R. Williams." Edited by Joe M. Rice. North Louisiana Historical Association Journal, 17 (1986): 39-43.

Co. C, 9th Louisiana Infantry
Chancellorsville, 40-42
Casualties, 41

Williams, Richard Mortimer. "The Civil War Courtship of Richard Mortimer Williams and Rose Anderson of Rockville." Edited by George M. Anderson. Maryland Historical Magazine 80 (Summer 1985): 119-38.

Farmer and Doctor
Unionist courting a young woman from a pro-Confederate family, 126ff
Rockville farmer murdered by Massachusetts soldiers stealing pigs, 123
Social divisions of the war, 124-25
Women should refrain from political discussions, 125, 132
Picnic, 125-26

Jeb Stuart's cavalry, Unionists arrested, 126-27
Gettysburg, 128
Marriage, 129
Religion, Episcopal, 130-31
Rose's father, 131-32
Engagement ring, 134

Williams, Sarah Frances Hicks. "Plantation Experiences of a New York Woman." Edited by James C. Bonner. North Carolina Historical Review 33 (July, October 1956): 384-411, 529-45.

Plantation tax problems, 538
Church attendance, 539
Election excitement, Bell, Breckinridge, 540
Yankee aggression, 540
Peace, European powers, 541
Box, 541
Expects Lincoln and cabinet to leave Washington, 542
Suspicion of northerners, marrying a slaveholder, 542
Letters, 543-46

Williams, Thomas. "Letters of General Thomas Williams, 1862." American Historical Review. 14 (January 1909): 304-28.

Ship Island, 306ff
Quality of officers and enlisted men, 307
Benjamin F. Butler, 307ff
New Orleans, 307ff
New tactical formation, 308
God, prayer, 309
War rumors, need to wake up the North, 310
Sand storm, 310
Fort Jackson and St. Philip, 312
Drowning, 313
Farragut, 313
Mansfield Lovell, 313-14
Surrender of New Orleans, 314
Naval success, 314-15
Occupation of New Orleans, 315ff
Local population more subdued, 316
Abolitionists, slaveholders ask help in recovering slaves, 318
Baton Rouge, 318ff
Vicksburg, 320ff

Doubtful Unionist strength in Louisiana, 320
McClellan, 320
Women, runaway slave, 322
Confiscation Act, emancipation, 325, 327
Vicksburg canal, 326
Conscription, 327-28

Williamson, J. C. "The Civil War Diary of John Coffee Williamson." Tennessee Historical Quarterly 15 (March 1956): 61-74.

Co. E, 5th Tennessee Cavalry (Confederate)
Oath, 63
Quakers, 64
Champ Ferguson, 65
Food, 69

Williamson, Peter J. "With the First Wisconsin Cavalry: The Letters of Peter J. Williamson."

Edited by Henry Lee Swint. Wisconsin Magazine of History 26 (March, June 1943):
333-35, 443-48.

Co. F, 1st Wisconsin Cavalry
Dysentery, 335
God will protect him, 336
Barracks, food, 337-38
Camp servant, 434
Peace, conscription, Copperheads, 436-37
Sleeping among soldier graves, 439
Atlanta campaign, 439ff
Election of 1864, soldiers, Lincoln, copperheads, 446
Conscription, 446
Camp dances, 446
Lincoln assassination, 448

Willoughby, Charles H. "Extracts from Journal of Charles H. Willoughby, Private Company C, Thirty-Fourth New York Volunteers." Fifth Annual Report of the New York State

Bureau of Military Statistics (1868): 473-543.

34th New York Infantry, Co. C, Private
Slaves and food, 475
Accidental shooting, 476
Picket firing, 477

Skirmishing, 477-78
Horse trade, Confederate, 479
Alcohol, man stabbed to death, 480
Ball's Bluff, 481
Confederate deserters, 482
Rain, tent, 483
Major, alcohol, 484
Thanksgiving, 484-85
Discipline, guardhouse, alcohol, 485
Bed made of straw, 486
Ball's Bluff, 486
Soldier death, typhoid, 487
Sutler arrested, drummed out of camp, 487
Alcohol, drunken soldiers threatened local family, 488
Alcohol, 489
Fort, 490
Mud, prayer meeting, 491
Assault on lieutenant with an axe, 492
Alcohol, guardhouse, 492
Picket firing, fraternization, snowballs, 493
Intelligence from slaves, 494
Harpers Ferry, 496
Camp newspaper, 498-99
Winchester, 499
Alcohol, 501
Peninsula campaign, 503ff
Monitor and Merrimac, 503
McClellan and sabbath, 503
Foraging, arrests, 504
Sharpshooters, 506
Balloon, Lowe, 510
Chaplain sermon, 512
Guarding prisoners, 512
Slaves brought soldiers water, 514
Soldier sentenced for insubordination, 515
Fair Oaks, 515-17
Cheering for McClellan, 519
Seven Days, 519-20
Sick and wounded, 520-21
Lincoln and McClellan, 522
Lice, 522
Chaplain sermon, 523
Sutler, alcohol, 524
Crossing the Chickahominy, 525
Chain Bridge, 529
Man on march died of heat, 530

Antietam campaign, 531ff
Casualties, 533
Nurses, hospital, Christmas dinner, 538
Wounded soldier, ball near brain, 541

Wills, Charles. "The Maddest Folly of the Campaign': A Diarist and a Poet Confront Kennesaw Mountain." Edited by Matthew O'Brien. Civil War History 23 (September 1977): 241-50.

103rd Illinois Infantry, Major
Wills material appears in his book

Wilmot, John. "Making It Right: The Civil War Letters of John Wilmot." Edited by Marjorie J.

Strong and Paul G. Zeller. Vermont History 81 (Winter-Spring 2013): 34-51.

Co. H, 4th Vermont Infantry
Yorktown, 37
Death, 40
Many references to soldier pay
Duty, tyranny, 43

Wilson, Arabell Lanktree. "Arabella Lanktree Wilson's Civil War Letter." Edited by James W.

Leslie. Arkansas Historical Quarterly 47 (Autumn 1988): 257-72.

Pine Bluff, 259
Worries about health of soldier son in camp, 261
Reports of Federal troops coming, 261
Unionists and Federal troops, 261-62
Soldiers taking property, 262-63
Soldiers stealing horses, 263
Oath, 264
First Kansas Jayhawkers, slaves, 264-65
Officers boarding there, 265-66
Federal soldiers firing at courthouse, 266
Burning of buildings, Confederates taking mules and horses, 267
Much destruction in town, 267-68
Slaves unmanageable, 268
Considers becoming a refugee, 270

Wilson, Charles Henry. "I Miss the Cannon's Roar': Letters of a Pennsylvania Surgeon in the Second Bull Run Campaign, August-September 1862." Edited by Edward G. Longacre.

Lincoln Herald 89 (Spring 1987): 3-8.

110th Pennsylvania Infantry, Assistant Surgeon
Pope, Army of Virginia, 3ff
Cedar Mountain, 4
Confederate artillery fire, close call, 4
Marching, 5
Blenker's division, foraging, civilians selling food, 5
Food, water, 6
Washing, 6
Chaplain, 6
Newspaper reports, 6
Second Bull Run, 6-7
Arlington, 8
Antietam campaign, 8
Diminishing patriotism, 8
Sanitary Commission, 8

Wilson, James H. "Your Left Arm;' James H. Wilson's Letters to Adam Badeau." Edited by

James P. Jones. Civil War History 12 (September 1966): 230-45.

George H. Thomas, 232-34
Western vs. eastern armies, 233
Grant, Sherman and promotions, 234
Butler and Grant, 235
Hampton Roads conference, peace, 236
Apprehensive about news from Sherman, Lee, 237
Declining morale and spirit in Army of the Potomac, heavy losses, 237
Appomattox, Lee surrender, 238
Wilson's raid, Selma, 239-40
Columbus, Georgia, 240
Lincoln assassination, Jefferson Davis, 241
Capture of Jefferson Davis, Varina Davis, 242-43

Wilson, John. "An Illinois Soldier in North Mississippi: Diary of John Wilson, February 15-December 30, 1862." Journal of Mississippi History 1 (July 1939): 182-94.

56th Illinois Infantry
Enlistment, 184
Sabbath, 184ff

War and national sin, 184
Shiloh, 185
Women in men's clothes, 186
Corinth, 188
Slaves in camp, 189
Corinth, battle, 190
Blacks, food, whites have left, 193

Wilson, Joseph David. "A Young Confederate Stationed in Texas: The Letters of Joseph David Wilson, 1864-65." Edited by Elvis F. Fleming. Texana 8 (No. 4, 1970): 352-61.

Texas cavalry, Private, Terry's Regiment?
Illness, food, 354
Mule, 355
Furloughs, 358

Winchell, Alexander. "Plantation Lessee Problems in 1864." Edited by Martha Mitchell

Bigelow. Journal of Southern History 27 (August 1961): 354-67.

University of Michigan professor, cotton plantation
Plantation leasing along Mississippi River, 353ff
Too lenient treatment of Confederates, 356ff
Lease agreements favor blacks over white men, 358
Sherman disapproves lease system, problems with guerrillas, 359
Marine brigade and security for planters, 360
Government food for freedpeople, 361
Mules and wagons, 361-62
Failure of many leases, 362-63
Guerrillas, 364
Theft by Confederate. 366

Winchell, James. "Wounded and a Prisoner--a First Person Account." Civil War Times

Illustrated 4 (August 1965): 20-25.

Berdan's 1st United States Sharpshooters, Co. D
Gaines's Mill, 20
Wounded, 20-23
Prisoner, 20
Water, 20-21
Food, 23
Philadelphia hospital, 24-25

Wingfield, John T. "Wilderness to Petersburg: Unpublished Reports of the 11th Battalion, Georgia Light Artillery." Civil War Regiments 3 (No. 2, 1993): 61-69.

Georgia Light Artillery, 11th Battalion, Lieutenant
Overland campaign, Wilderness, Spotsylvania Courthouse, Petersburg, 61-66
Petersburg, 67-69

Winter, John G. "The Letters of a Georgia Unionist: John G. Winter and Secession." Edited by

LeRoy P. Graf and Ralph W. Haskins. Georgia Historical Quarterly 45 (December 1961): 385-402; 46 (March 1962): 44-58.

Georgia Unionists, praises Andrew Johnson's opposition to secession, coercion, Tories, 390
Oath for postmasters, 391
Danger and asks him to burn letter, 391
Praises Johnson's Union speech in Senate, letter cotton states go, Jefferson Davis, 392
Fort Sumter, Fort Pickens, should hang a few secessionists, 394-95
Secession, reconstruction, Fort Sumter, 396
John Bell, 397
Fears war with England, 397-99
Florida, John Milton, 397-98
Rejoices in course of war and will give names of disloyal neighbors but also good Unionists, 47-52
Sherman, 47-48
Elections of 1864, Lincoln, McClellan, 48-49
Sherman and Atlanta, 52

Winterbotham, William Wrigley. "Memoirs of a Civil War Sleuth." Wisconsin Magazine of History 19 (December 1935, March 1936): 131-60, 276-93.

Lumber mills, 133
Sioux uprising, 134-35
Conscription, 136-
Arrest deserters, 138ff

Winthrop, Theodore. "New York Seventh Regiment, Our March to Washington." Atlantic Monthly 7 (June 1861): 744-56.

7th New York Infantry
Departure from New York, 744-45
Philadelphia, 745-46

On board ship, Boston, 746-48
Annapolis, 748-50
8th Massachusetts Infantry, 750-51
Marching, 752ff
Washington, 756

Winthrop, Theodore. "Washington as a Camp." Atlantic Monthly 8 (July 1861): 105-18.

7th New York Infantry
Washington, capitol, barracks, 105-8
Jefferson Davis, 106
Washing, 106-7
McDowell, regiment sworn in, 108-110
Camp Cameron, tents, 110-111
Daily routine, 111-13
Women, flag presentation, 113-14
Long Bridge, 114-15
Dust, marching, 115
Arlington, 117-18

Winsor, Frederick. "The Surgeon at the Field Hospital." Atlantic Monthly 46 (August 1880):

183-88.

49th Massachusetts Infantry
Surgeon account of field hospital, 183ff
Port Hudson, 183ff
Hospital in clear and soldier lay under tall trees, 184
Assault on Confederate works, 184
Much news of the day to the surgeon, 185
Wounded colonel, 186
Alcohol, whiskey, 187
Casualties, 188
Colonel worries about losing his arm, 189

Wise, George M. "Civil War Letters of George M. Wise.: Edited by Wilfred W. Black. Ohio

Historical Quarterly 65 (January 1956): 53-81.

43rd Ohio Infantry
Corinth, 55ff
Sigel, 55-56
McClellan and Seven Days, 58
War and stakes involved, morale, optimism, 58
Buell, 59
Vicksburg, 61ff

Holly Springs, 61-62
Grant, 63-64
Copperheads, 64
Chattanooga, 67
Vallandigham, Brough, governor's election in Ohio, 68
Decatur Alabama, mumps, 69-71
Atlanta campaign, 72ff
July 4, optimistic about the war, 75
Atlanta and strategy, 78
Beaufort, South Carolina, 80-81

Wise, George M. "Marching Through South Carolina: Another Civil War Letters of Lieutenant George M. Wise." Edited by Wilfred W. Black. Ohio Historical Quarterly 66 (April 1957): 187-95.

43rd Ohio Infantry, Lieutenant
North Carolina, 188
South Carolina, 189ff
Battle of Salkehatchie River Bridge, Sherman, 189-90
Burning of Columbia, 191
Destruction, foraging, 192
South Carolina punished, people poor and ignorant, 193
Sherman and destruction, 193-94

Wiseman, H. H. "The Prison Diary of H. H. Wiseman." Edited by William F. Howard. Kept 1 (December 1984/January 1985): 5-11.

1st Tennessee Heavy Artillery, Private
Fort Morgan, surrender, 6
Election of 1864 in New York, 6
Smallpox, 6
Governor's Island, 6-7
Trade with Yankee soldiers, 6
Thanksgiving, 6
Hood in Tennessee, Sherman, 6-7
Elmira, lice, 8
Oath, 8
Forging a sutler order, barrel shirt, 9
Exchange rumor, 9-10
Christmas, 9
School in prison, 9
Hospital, 10
Oath, 10

Wister, Sarah Butler. "Sarah Butler Wister's Civil War Diary." Pennsylvania Magazine of History and Biography 102 (July 1978): 271-327.

Much on Philadelphia, reaction to Sumter, Baltimore attack on Federal troops
Much reaction to first Bull Run

Withers, John. "One Year of the War: Civil War Diary of John Withers, Assistant Adjutant General of the Confederate Army." Edited by H. E. Sterkx and L. Y. Trapp. Alabama Historical Quarterly 29 (Fall/Winter 1967): 133-84.

Captain, AAG, Confederate Army
Reception at White House for officers, 134-35
Jefferson Davis speech, 136
Robert M. T. Hunter speech, 136
William H. Seward speech, 136
At Jefferson Davis's in Washington, 137
Rumors of attack on Harpers Ferry, 138
Officers call on Buchanan, 143
Anderson letter to Joseph Holt, 143
Lincoln inaugural address, 144
Resigned commission in United State army, 144
Fort Sumer withdrawal, 145
Montgomery, Alabama, 145-
Jefferson and Varina Davis at Pensacola, 146
Robert Toombs, Alexander Stephens, 146
Varina Davis, 147
Government moving to Richmond, 147
Big Bethel, 147
Alabama men forming a regiment and want him to be colonel, 147
Comet, 149
Death of child, funeral with dignitaries, Varina Davis, 149
First Bull Run, Manassas, 149-50
Bishop McGill sermon, 150
Jefferson Davis New Year's levee, Varina Davis, 151-52
John Tyler, 153
Jefferson Davis inauguration, 155
Fasting, humiliation, and prayer, 156
John Minor Botts, arrests, 157
Organization of cabinet, 159
Jefferson Davis in Gordonsville, 159
Henry A. Wise, 159
Jefferson Davis, Varina Davis, 160-61

Peninsula campaign, 162ff
Corinth, 162
Robert Toombs, 163
Lee, Davis, G. W. Smith, Joe Johnston in long meeting, 164
Troops passing through Richmond, 164
Dinner with Mercier, French minister, 165
Mallory and Randolph returning to Richmond, 166
Blowing up of Merrimac, Virginia, 167
Yankee ironclads in James River, 168
Defense of Richmond, 168
Bishop McGill, Catholic sermon, 168, 171, 175, et passim
Balloons, 169
Battle of Seven Pines, Fair Oaks, 169
Wounding of Joseph Johnston, amputation of surgeon's arm, 170
Jeb Stuart's ride around McClellan's army, 171
Seven Days battles, 171-72
Dead body brought home to family, 172-73
Soldier pay, 174-75
Meeting of Congress, 177
Antietam campaign, 179
Visit to Seven Days battlefields, 130
Day of Thanksgiving, 180
Fredericksburg, 183
Christmas, 183-84

Wolcott, Samuel W. "A Connecticut Yankee in St. Augustine, 1863." By William McGuire.

Escribano 28 (1991): 56-80.

7th Connecticut Infantry
Florida. St/ Augustine, 62
Census, 65
Killed at Deep Bottom, 72

Wolf, Otto E. "Letter from an Illinois Drummer Boy." Edited by Robert R. Madden. Journal of Mississippi History 26 (May 1964): 152-57.

117th Illinois, Company F
Battle Tupelo, Forrest, 153
Ambulance and wounded men, 155

Wolfe, Simeon K. and Attia Porter. "The Battle of Corydon." Indiana Magazine of History 54

(June 1958): 131-40.

John Hunt Morgan, Corydon, account by newspaper editor. Blandenburg Crossing, Home Guards

Women, Northern and Southern. "Five Tri-State Women During the Civil War: Day-to-Day Life." Edited by Claudia Lynn Lady. West Virginia History 43 (Spring, Summer 1982): 189-226, 303-21.

Mothers, 197-98
Courtship, 203-4
Education, 205ff
Hospitals, 215
Federal soldiers insulting women, 216
Arrests of men and women, 218-19
Destruction and theft, 219
Women's aid society, 221-22
Marriage, 223
Unionist, political discussion, 304
Oath, 305
Nurse, 307-8
Emancipation Proclamation, 308
Black soldiers, 309
Creation of West Virginia, 312-13
News, 314
Jefferson Davis, 314
Death of Stonewall Jackson, 315
Burnside, Fredericksburg, 315
Fort Donelson, 315-16
Seven Day, 316
John Hunt Morgan, 317
Food prices, 319
Troops houses on private property, 320

Wood, Henry B. "From Montgomery to Gettysburg: War Letters from Alabama Soldier Henry

B. Wood." By Wayne Wood. Alabama Heritage 15 (Winter 1990): 26-41.

12th Alabama Infantry
Effects of soldier life, 28
Montgomery, disease, 29
Officers, 29
Richmond, manufacturing, 31
Manassas, 31=32
Making biscuits, 32
Jefferson Davis speech, 34

Peninsula campaign, Yorktown, 34ff
Seven Pines, 35
Seven Days, 36
Officers, 36
Fraternization, 38
Yankee medal, McClellan, Antietam, Fredericksburg, 39
Balloon, 40
Chancellorsville, 41

Wood, James F. "Two Letters of Bishop James F. Wood to Colonel Basil W. Duke, C.S.A., at Fort Delaware Prison." Edited by Raymond H. Schmandt. Records of the American Catholic Historical Society of Philadelphia 89 (March/December 1978): 118-22.

Bishop, Duke in Fort Delaware
Looks after Duke and his spiritual welfare, 120-22
Sends coat, prayer book, 121
Possible prisoner exchange, 122

Woodford, Milton M. "A Connecticut Yankee After Olustee." Edited by Vaughn D. Bornet. Florida Historical Quarterly 27 (April 1949): 385-403.

7th Connecticut Infantry
Tents, 385, 388
Olustee casualties, 385
Real soldiers complain, 386
Jacksonville, destruction, wealthy, 386-87
Olustee, General Seymour, 391
Picket duty, 394
General Seymour, 395
Grant, too much trust in arm of flesh, 396
Shelter tents, 397
Officers, camp, men's comfort, 397-98
Confederate refugees, 402

Woodford, Milton M. "A Connecticut Yankee Fights at Olustee: Letters from the Front."

Edited by Vaughn D. Bornet. Florida Historical Quarterly 27 (January 1949): 237-59.

7th Connecticut Infantry
Expedition into Florida, 242ff
Jacksonville, 243-44, 255

Foraging pigs, 245
Skirmishers, 246
Battle of Olustee, 246-58
Critical of General Seymour, 247

Woodruff, Schuyler. "The Civil War Notebook of Montgomery Schuyler Woodruff." Edited by Frederick M. Woodruff. Bulletin of the Missouri Historical Society 29 (April 1973): 163-88.

2nd Missouri Cavalry, memoir
Nature of cavalry work, 164
Enlists in St. Louis, cannon, singing of Star Spangled Banner, music, 165-66
Boats with wounded men from Shiloh, 166
Scouting, 167-68
Volunteers for guard duty, 169
Horses, 170
Steele expedition in Arkansas, 171-76
Coward, 172
Reenlistment, 177
Fighting Sterling Price in Missouri, 177-
Militia, 178
Rations, hunger, 180
Crude soldier, 180-81
George H. Thomas, 186-87

Woodward, George Washington. "A Pennsylvania Judge Views the Rebellion: The Civil War Letters of George Washington Woodward." Edited by Jonathan W. White. Pennsylvania Magazine of History and Biography 129 (April 2005): 195-225.

Aftermath of Lincoln's election, 203-4
Proslavery, 204
Abolition and churches, 205
Democrats, 205
Secessionism, 206
Buchanan, Lincoln, 207
Jeremiah Black, secession, 208ff
Secession and coercion, 214ff
1863 Pennsylvania governor's election, 216
Conscription, 217-18
Episcopal bishop Potter, 221
Election of 1864, 222

Woodward, John H. "Herding Beef for the Union Army." Civil War Times Illustrated 9

(December 1970): 28-39.

Beef supply, 30ff
Cattle on grounds of Washington monument, 30
Peninsula campaign, 30-32
Philip Kearny, 31
Antietam, 32-33
Burnside, Fredericksburg, 33
Meade, 33
Christmas dinner, 34
Grant, Wilderness, 35
Grant and Rawlins, 35-36
Petersburg, 36
Fall of Richmond, 37-38
Lincoln, 38-39

Woodward, Samuel Lippincott. "Grierson's Raid, April 17th to May 2d, 1863." Journal of the United States Cavalry Association 14 (1904): 685-710; 15 (1904): 94-123.

6th Illinois Cavalry, Co. G, Captain and AAG
Grierson, 685ff
Scouts and spies, 686-87
Whining plantation owner, mules, bacon, 688-89
Pretending to be Confederates, 691
Rain, artillery crossing swamps and streams, 692-93
Destruction of railroad, 695-98
Did not take passengers' property, 697-98
Grierson speech local men, 699-700
Civilians hiding out to avoid Confederate conscription, 699-700
Capturing a sheriff and Confederate money, 703
Crossing the Pearl River, 705-6
Information gathered about Port Hudson, 95-96
Prisoner, oath, 98
Confederate visiting a young woman taken prisoner, 99
Confederate stores seized and given to citizens, 101-2
Skirmish at bridge, 104-5
Grierson's men in Louisiana, 108ff
Baton Rouge, 110ff
Results of the raid, 112-14

Woolsey, Georgeanna M. "Three Weeks at Gettysburg by Georgeanna M. Woolsey." Edited by Charles F. Johnson. Gettysburg Magazine 9 (July 1993): 116-21.

United States Sanitary Commission
Great delay in bring supplies into Gettysburg after the battle, 117
Some wounded immediately sent to Baltimore, 117
Tents, food for the men, 117
Tents and arrangement of supplies, 118
Crutches, 118
Dying soldier, 118
Water and food for the trains, 118
Treatment of Confederate wounded, 118
Dressing wounds, 118
Perfume, 119
Gettysburg women kind to the wounded, 119
Town after the battle, children, 119
Dying Confederate, 119-20
Black religious service, 120
Wife and sister come to take a crazy, wounded soldier home, 120-21
German mother and wounded son, 121

Woolwine, Rufus J. "The Civil War Diary of Rufus J. Woolwine." Edited by Louis H. Manarin.

Virginia Magazine of History and Biography 71 (October 1963): 416-48.

51st Virginia Infantry
Enlistment and departure, 418-19
Measles, 419
Fort Donelson, 422-23
Alcohol, 429-30
Overland campaign, 435ff
1864 Valley campaign, 437ff

Wooster, Charles. "To Tuscaloosa and Beyond: A Union Cavalry Raider in Alabama, March-

April 1865." Edited by Edward G. Longacre. Alabama Historical Quarterly 44

(Spring/Summer 1982): 109-22.

2nd Michigan Cavalry, Private
Croxtton's raid
Band music, poor whites, 112
Crossing the Black Warrior River, 112-13
Attack on bridge at Tuscaloosa, 114
Band music, 114
Wedding, bridegroom arrested, 114-15
Tuscaloosa, 114ff
Plunder, 116

Marching, 116
Plantation, slaves, miscegenation, 117-18
Forrest's men, 118
News of Appomattox, 119

Wooton, Daniel. "Civil War Letters of Daniel Wooton: The Metamorphosis of a Quaker Soldier." By Jacquelyn S. Nelson. Indiana Magazine of History 85 (March 1989): 50-57.

2nd Indiana Cavalry, Lieutenant
Enlistment, 51-52
Quaker faith, justice, secession, Bible, 52
Worries about moral impact of war, destruction, 53
Corinth, soldier life, 54
Food, cooking, 54
Conscription, 55
Duty, 56
Duty and love, religion, 56

Worden, John L. "Lincoln's Courier: John L. Worden's Mission to Fort Pickens." Edited by James P. Jones. Florida Historical Quarterly 41 (October 1962): 145-53.

Fort Pickens, 145ff
Description of Journey to Pensacola, 147ff
Arrested, 150
Jailed in Montgomery and eventually released, 151

Worley, Ted R., ed. "Documents Relating to the Arkansas Peace Society of 1861." Arkansas Historical Quarterly 17 (Spring 1958): 82-111.

Mountain counties of northern Arkansas
Men refusing volunteer for the Confederacy, Unionists, 83
Governor Henry Rector, 84-85
Arrest pro-Lincoln men, 85
Secret societies, 86ff
Constitution of the Mill Creek peace Organization Society, 87-88
Member of the IZARD County Peace Society Volunteer for Confederate Service, 88-89
Witness against peace society, 89-91

Commitment of Prisoners in Carroll County Justice of Peace Court, 91-94
Testimony of Peter Tyler on the Peace Society, 94-97
Testimony of Isaiah Ezell on the Peace Society, 97-98
Testimony of the Fulton County Prisoners before the Military Board, 98-102
Sam Leslie report on peace society to governor Rector, 102-105
Oath of peace organization society, 106-7
Testimony of Persons Arrested as Members of the Peace Society, 107-111

Worley, Ted R., ed. "Letters from Columbia County Confederate Soldiers." Arkansas Historical Quarterly 15 (Summer 1956): 172-75.

Co. G, 6th Arkansas Infantry
Organizing a brigade, 172
Soldiers dying of disease, 173-74

Wright, Henry Clay. "A Johnny Reb in Sibley's New Mexico Campaign, Reminiscences of Pvt. Henry C. Wright, 1861-1862." Edited by Michael L. Tate. East Texas Historical Journal 25 (No. 2, 1987): 20-33; 26 (No. 2, 1988): 23-35, 48-60.

4th Texas Cavalry
Enlistment, 22
Women treating soldiers, 22-23
New Mexico, 23ff
Marching, 23ff
Christmas, 24
Snow, 25-26
Fort Craig, 26ff
Battle of Val Verde, 27-28
Glorieta Pass, 23ff
Straggler, 23-24
Santa Fe, 24-25
Takes care of wounded friend, hospital, 25ff
General Canby kind to Confederates, 27ff
Taken prison, 28
Enamored of local young woman, 28-30
Trip to San Antonio 48ff
Indians, 48ff
Horse, sunstroke, delirious, 49-52

Wright, Henry H. "The Awfulest Time I Ever Seen': A Letter from Sherman's Army." Civil War History 8 (September 1962): 283-89.

Co. D, 6th Iowa Infantry
Sherman's army in South Carolina and North Carolina, 284ff
Columbia, foraging, fire, 285ff
Young women, 286
Bentonville, 287-88
Praises Sherman, 289

Wright, James. "My Relatives Are Leaving Me Very Fast': War Time Letters of James Wright to his Nephew." Edited by George L. Mahoney. Alabama Historical Quarterly 44 (Spring/Summer 1982): 50-69.

Russell County, Alabama cotton planter
Advice for nephew in the army, 53
Box, food, 54
Much about weather and crops, passim
Gettysburg campaign, 59
Salt, 60
Advice on health, 60
Impressment of horses, 61-62
Cotton, 62
Box, 65
Impressment, 68

Wright, J. E. M. "From Petersburg to Appomattox Court House." Maine Bugle 1 (1894): 115-23.

8th Maine Infantry
Chaplain, 115
Christian soldiers, 115-16
April 2 breakthrough, Petersburg, 116
Mortally wounded soldier, 116-17
Marching, 117-18
Burial, 118
Appomattox, 119ff
Wounded officer, 119
Dying soldiers, 120-21
Two slaves, one wounded, 121-22
Confederate soldiers poor condition, 122-23

Wright, John P. "Diary of Private John P. Wright." Edited by Ralph R. Rea. Arkansas

Historical Quarterly 16 (Autumn 1957): 304-18.

Co. F., 29th Iowa
Enlistment and sendoff, 304-5
Helena, Arkansas, foraging, 307
Burning deserted plantation, 308
Jenkin's Ferry, 316

Wright, Joseph. "The Civil War and Joseph Wright." Northwest Ohio Quarterly 51 (Winter 1979): 16-21.

25th Ohio Infantry
Battle of Allegheny, 18-19
Newspaper accounts untrue, 18

Wynne, Lewis N. and Guy Porcher Harrison, eds. "'Plain Folk' Coping in the Confederacy:

The Garrett-Asbell Letters." Georgia Historical Quarterly 72 (Spring 1988): 102-18.

Savannah, cotton cards, 106
Leather for shoes, 107
Man seeks draft exemption, 113-14
Farm conditions, food, 115, 117